AMERICANS IN BRUSH WITH REBELS

Bluejackets and Marines Fired Upon in Nicaragua and Severe Fighting Follows

REBEL LEADER DEFIES AMERICAN ADMIRAL

Later Sought to Keep Railway Open For Relief of Famine-Threatened City of Granada—Rebels Resorting to Barbarism—Numerous Instances of Torture and Starvation of Their Victims—Call For Reinforcements.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Severe fighting between American naval forces and Nicaraguan revolutionaries is believed to have occurred in the past few days near Barranca, although reports from the scene are so meagre that officials here have no definite idea of what has happened.

May Attract Europe's Attention. European attention to affairs in Nicaragua is believed to be one of the possibilities of the situation.

British Subjects Murdered. The British consul general at Managua and the British vice consul at Masagapa have reported two British subjects murdered by the rebels at Acahua.

Americans Fired Upon Sept. 17. A delayed cablegram from Admiral Southernland, dated 11 p. m., Sept. 17, and reporting that American bluejackets and marines were fired upon as they attempted to reach the railway, reached the navy department today.

Proposed to Open Railroad. Whether or not there was more firing from the rebels before the additional American force arrived is not known, but it is possible that the brush referred to in the dispatch received today was the one that took place on Sunday.

Defied American Admiral. While Zelaya hesitated, the former secretary of war at Nicaragua, and the principal leader in the revolution, came northward from Granada with another large force of rebels and joined him. After a consultation they sent a formal demand to Admiral Southernland, announcing their purpose to oppose his advance.

It is not known exactly how many sailors or marines composed the admiral's force at that time but it is believed it did not exceed three or four hundred men.

Rebels Resort to Barbarism. Official reports to the state department rarely include such severe language as those which are now issued, dealing with the conditions in Granada, which it is said, were worse than those which existed in the Congo and in the Putumayo.

Tortured and Deprived of Food. They have learned that General Menzies and his staff are persecuting their relatives because they themselves are members of the Diaz government.

UNDERBID BY ENGLISH CONCERN Foreign Company Names Lowest Price on American Ammunition.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Secretary Meyer will be called upon soon to decide whether the navy will depart from its unwritten policy of awarding contracts to American concerns only and give a contract for 2,000 14-inch shells to the Hatfield Steel company of Hatfield, England.

The English company underbid its nearest American competitor nearly $200,000 on a $1,000,000 contract. The American concern contended that the navy department should not award to a foreign company a contract for ammunition for American warships.

Admits Robbing Morgan Mansion

DETECTIVES PICK UP BURGLAR BY ACCIDENT.

WERE SHADOWING HIM

Suspected Him of Being an Escaped Convict, But Morgan Jewels Were Found on Him—Makes Confession.

New York, Sept. 20.—Burglary of the mansion of J. P. Morgan, Jr., with the ransacking of every room while Mr. Morgan and his forty servants slept through it all, is confessed by the police say, by John Bernauer, whom they arrested late today. In his possession were found seven watches, several diamonds, plus a number of articles of jewelry belonging to the young financier.

Morgan Offered $5,000 Reward. The burglary occurred last January, but news of it was not made public until some time afterwards, when Mr. Morgan informed the police that he would pay a reward of $5,000 for the recovery of the stolen articles, many of which are priceless to him for their associations.

Shadowed by Detectives. Detectives who were shadowing a man suspected of being Bernauer, Froehner, who made his escape from the Tombs prison, watched the suspect late today as he visited the office of a pawnbroker in the Bronx where he tried to dispose of some articles of jewelry. He was arrested and a search of his pockets which followed, disclosed the stolen goods which he had not Froehner, but the Morgan burglar.

Found Back Door Unlocked. The prisoner gave his name as John Bernauer, describing himself as a native of Munich, Germany, 34 years old, and as having been in this country four years with ambitions to be a chemist, but had turned burglar.

In admitting the Morgan burglary, Bernauer told the police he saw about 4 o'clock on the morning of January 25, while prowling in the vicinity of the Morgan house, he found the back door unlocked, he slipped into the vestibule and took off his shoes. In stocking feet he visited almost every room in the big house. Seventh Day Baptists during the past eight months.

Found All Pawnshops Watched. He got away as quietly as possible, but could make little use of his loot, for he found that all of the pawn shops were watched for months he thought the case would have been gotten.

SUFFRAGETTE RELEASED FROM DUBLIN PRISON. Refused to Eat and is in an Emaciated Condition.

Dublin, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Mary Leigh, the suffragette, was released from Mount Joy prison today on a charge of ill health, due to her refusal to eat and having to be forcibly fed. Mrs. Leigh was sentenced August 7 to five years' imprisonment on a charge of having wounded John Redmond, leader of the Irish parliamentary party, with a hatchet, which she threw at Premier Asquith's car. Shortly after her incarceration Mrs. Leigh announced her determination to refuse to partake of food, and the prison officials resorted to the drastic measure of administering nourishment through a tube.

When Mrs. Leigh was brought outside the prison in an invalid chair she refused to get up, and the prison officials resorted to the drastic measure of administering nourishment through a tube.

There are many merchants who delay advertising, or only advertise a few times a year, because they consider it takes a big appropriation to conduct that department of their business. It is this erroneous view which hinders the development of such establishments far beyond where they now are.

To obtain these desirable buyers the daily advertisement in the newspaper going into the home, the logical method of effectively setting forth trade opportunities. It is the advance agent of any business. The public is always ready to buy for ready money, and seeks in the daily paper the best way to spend it. It enables the merchant to turn over his funds many times a year.
