Tells Auditors at Springfield, Mo., That Yellow is a Highly Appropriate Color

MAN WHO WEARS ONE HAS A YELLOW STREAK

Accuses Man Who Carried Taft Banner of Being Dishonest Because He Places Himself on a Level With the "Receiver of Stolen Goods"—Most of the Members of Republican National Committee Are Shady, He Declares.

Jefferson, Mo., Sept. 23.—Gov. Herbert Hadley of Missouri, in the opinion of Colonel Roosevelt, as he expressed it today, will join the progressive party. "I not merely hope, but believe," said Colonel Roosevelt, "that Governor Hadley will yet stand with us."

Colonel Roosevelt saw nothing of the governor during a trip through the state. When he went to St. Louis to speak at the beginning of his tour, the statement was published that he had received a letter from the governor. The colonel would say nothing about it. Governor Hadley, however, readily said he would make public a statement of his position.

Attacks National Committee. Beginning the day in Kansas, Colonel Roosevelt came into Missouri and spoke at Springfield and Joplin, and from the train at other points. He attacked the republican national committee, saying it had forever separated the party from the republican party and had "boarded up the party until you could not get into it with a jimmy."

He told the people in Springfield that Mr. Clark had been beaten in the democratic convention and that Governor Wilson in the primaries.

In the crowd at Kansas there was a man with a badge on his shoulder bearing the words: "We want Taft. Let well enough alone."

The banner attracted Colonel Roosevelt's attention. Bending over the railing of his car, he pointed to the man with the badge and said: "Any man who wears a badge of the receiver of stolen goods stands on a level with the receiver of the stolen goods. He is a dishonest man and is unfit to associate with honest men."

As the train drew out, Colonel Roosevelt called to the crowd: "Good-bye, honest men."

Yellow Appropriate to Taft. When the colonel reached Springfield he found another Taft banner and saw a number of men who were wearing Taft badges.

"I have noticed several Taft badges in your town," he said in his speech, "and they are an appropriate color of yellow. There is nothing of a yellow performance than that of the republican managers at the Chicago convention, and the badge is just the color of the man who puts on one shows that he has a yellow streak in his nature."

National Committee Mostly Shady. The colonel attacked the republican national committee in his speech at Joplin.

"The republican national committee," he said, "is composed of fifty-three men, most of them shady."

"All of them," said a man in the crowd.

"Well, pretty nearly all," the colonel said. "There were just about enough of the other kind to have saved the party."

Colonel Roosevelt left here for Oklahoma tonight.

Dooms Becker to the Chair

SCHEPPES SAID THAT HIS EVIDENCE WILL DO IT.

PERSISTENT GRAFTER

Police Lieutenant So Characterized by Schepps After His Arrest at Hot Springs—Testimony of Postmaster

Hot Springs, Sept. 23.—"My evidence will send Becker to the chair, don't you know it?"

This in effect was one of the declarations of Sam Schepps, Postmaster at Hot Springs, when he testified before the grand jury of the district court here today. Schepps said that he had seen Becker at Hot Springs, according to the testimony of Mr. Johnson, who tonight before Special Commissioner Huff.

Rosenthal Deserved to Be Killed. Another declaration of Schepps, according to the postmaster, was in substance: "If Rosenthal had not been such a 'peacher' he would not have got himself in so bad. I don't want you fellows to think we killed a man of some account. Rosenthal deserved to be killed."

Becker, who arrested Schepps here on August 10, Schepps said, at first begged not to be delivered to the New York police, then discussed graft, public officials, the causes leading up to the killing of Rosenthal, and declared: "I am the keynote of the whole situation."

Becker a Graft. Becker, Johnson testified, was described by Schepps as a grafter, once never satisfied, and always urging an increased donation if a gambler showed up. Becker, whose brother, Edward, corroborated the testimony of previous witnesses as to Schepps' alleged assertion crediting to Becker a threat to kill Rosenthal if the 'gang didn't kill him."

"You little shrimp!" interposed Hart, leaning over the table.

The district attorney would not glance in Hart's direction, but continued to laugh at Sawyer.

Civil Service Postmasters

THOSE OF THE FOURTH CLASS OUT OF POLITICS.

BY EXECUTIVE ORDER

President Taft to Issue It at an Early Date—Official Heads of 36,038 Post-Offices to Benefit by the Change.

Washington, Sept. 23.—It was practically decided today that President Taft in the near future will issue an executive order placing all fourth-class postmasters in the classified service. This order, relieving 36,038 postmasters from the uncertainty of political appointment, will be one of the most comprehensive and far-reaching, as affecting the civil service, ever issued by a president of the United States.

Removed from Influence of Politics. The president would take this step, his first act toward putting into practice his oft expressed belief that all government offices should be graded on the basis of merit, and removed from the influence of politics and placed under the civil service, according to the testimony of the postmaster general to the senate after a delegation of postal men returning from the annual convention of the association at Richmond, Va., had been received at the White house, and by Postmaster General Hitchcock.

Delegation Referred to Hitchcock. After discussing the matter briefly with the delegation, President Taft referred the executive committee to Mr. Hitchcock for further confirmation of the matter. Later the committee called upon the postmaster general to discuss the subject with him.

In a few days Mr. Hitchcock will submit to President Taft a formal report on the subject, and the president is expected to act promptly and favorably upon the recommendations.

No Change in New England. In the entire country there were 46,752 fourth class postoffices at the end of last year. By executive order issued July 1, 1909, President Roosevelt placed the fourth class postoffices in all the New England states and of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin in the civil service—a total of 13,634.

GEN. CAMPA ARRESTED IN ARIZONA

Mexican Rebel Leader Captured Without Resistance by United States Marshal

HAD CROSSED THE LINE TO ESCAPE PURSUIT

Will Probably be Extradited to Mexico on Charge of Murder—His Staff Also Under Arrest—American Wrongfully Convicted of Murder, Transferred From Jail to Hospital On Demand of American Ambassador Henry L. Wilson.

Campa, the rebel leader, and his staff crossed the American line south of Tucson and are now prisoners of the United States. After positive identification by Dr. Ruffo, a friend, Campa today admitted his identity and said he was tired of fighting. Dr. Ruffo was surgeon general for Madere in the previous revolution.

Ammunition Exhausted. The rebel leader declared that he was surprised by the unexpected opposition he met at the hands of the federal troops. ### MASSACHUSETTS PRIMARIES.

Both Parties to Nominate Their State Tickets Today.

Boston, Sept. 23.—The republicans and democrats of Massachusetts held joint primaries tomorrow for the selection of candidates for the November election. These two parties are the only ones officially recognized by the state, each having polled more than three per cent. of the total vote at the last election. All other parties can obtain places on the November ballot by petition.

The republicans and democrats in addition to choosing state candidates, councillor, county, congressional and legislative candidates will elect state, city and town officers as well as delegates to their respective state conventions in this city on October 5, if the presidential electors will be selected.

In Boston the regular election hours will be from 8 a. m. till 4 p. m., but in many of the towns the primaries will be held late in the afternoon and early in the evening. Interest centers in the dual contest for governor, in which the republican, Joseph C. Peirce, of Boston, and the democratic, Joseph Walker, of Brookline, and Col. Everett C. Benson, are candidates for the second place on the democratic ticket, and J. Edward Barry of Boston. These are no contests in either party for the nominations for secretary of state, treasurer, auditor and governor general.

Mr. Straus replied to this inquiry: "I am for the people of all parties and I will carry with me endorsement of the public record and upon the covenant in my platform with the people of the United States."

JORDAN DIES IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIR

Went to Death Calmly and Made No Statement.

Boston, Sept. 24.—Chester S. Jordan, sentenced to death for the murder of four years ago at Somerville of his wife, Mrs. Josephine Jordan, was executed today in the electric chair at the state prison in Charlestown. He died calmly and without making any statement. He was seated in the electric chair and had received the first current within a minute and 3 seconds of the time he entered the chamber. The number 12345 was turned on at 12:09.13, and Jordan was officially pronounced dead at 12:14.39. Nineteen hundred volts of electricity were used, and the amperage was from 9.1-13 to 10.2. After Jordan had been declared dead, C. Leonard MacNeil, his spiritual adviser, folded the dead man's arms and laid across them a bunch of asters. The flowers were a birthday present to Jordan from his mother last Thursday. The body will be given over tomorrow to the family of the dead man and will be buried in Crown Hill cemetery, Indianapolis, Ind., his old home.

A suspicious cabman was responsible for the discovery of the murdered woman's body, which was found on September 1, 1908. During a quarrel with his young wife, an actress, Jordan struck her and knocked her down a stairway. The next day he dismembered her body and placed the head and some other parts in a stove in an unsuccessful attempt to burn them. The rest of the remainder of the body in a trunk.

His actions in driving about the city with the trunk aroused the suspicions of a driver who reported the matter to the police that he believed his passenger had stolen the trunk. While the police were investigating, Jordan attempted to jump from the window of the car. Later he admitted that the body he killed during a quarrel two days before.

Jordan was born 33 years ago in MacNeil, Mass., and while on the stage married Honor O'Brien, known in vaudeville as Irene Shannon. Jordan was brought to trial on September 1, 1909, and found guilty of murder in the first degree May 4, 1909. Four days later one of the jury became insane and was committed to an asylum. The state supreme court refused to grant an appeal for a new trial and Jordan was sentenced to die on May 27, 1912, and nearly four years after the commission of the crime Jordan was sentenced a second time to die.

DOUBLE SUICIDE YARN

WAS A CRUEL HOAX

Efforts Being Made to Locate the Perpetrator of It.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 23.—A hoax, complete in every detail, and executed in such a way as to defy discovery at the Los Angeles police department, was the double suicide of Niles C. Folson, a Los Angeles actor, and his wife, Mrs. M. B. Folson, of San Diego, was announced. The perpetrators acted with malice, according to police, and their rigorous search is being made for them today.

The story said Folson and Mrs. Bartee leaped to death in an automobile. After six hours' search, the body of Folson was found in the Santa Monica mountains.

Folson is alive and well in this city. Mrs. Bartee is said to be in San Francisco. Folson declared he had no idea who the perpetrators of the hoax were, and that he knew of no one who would be so cruel as to do this.

A man, giving his name as K. Mason, a member of the national guard, first gave the report of finding the bodies. Folson, who lives at 115 Third street, Santa Monica, said:

"The published account of my supposed suicide must have been inspired by someone who wished to do me harm. I have no memory that I know of anyone who would believe that anyone I know would cause such an article to be printed. I have never met any woman named Bartee and I also knew the Bartee woman mentioned in the account. My relations with both these women were purely that of friendship and neither of them considered me as other than a friend.

"The time I was supposed to be engaged in carrying out this suicide pact, I was at home in bed. It was said that I drove the machine at full speed to the edge of the cliff, but it is not based on any fact. I cannot even drive an automobile."

POSTAL CARD SAYS VINESKI'S ALL RIGHT.

BULL MOOSE CAMPAIGN. Governor Johnson Starts Tour of New England Today.

New York, Sept. 23.—The progressive party's national campaign will be opened by Governor Johnson tomorrow afternoon when Governor H. W. Johnson, of California, speaks at Worcester, Mass. At night he will address a meeting in Boston.

The governor left here on the 6:01 o'clock train tonight for Springfield and will be in Worcester tomorrow and then go to Worcester tomorrow morning.

Throughout the day the governor was in conference with progressive leaders at the national headquarters arranged for his eastern tour. A conflict between several New England dates caused the tentative programme to be changed and it is probable that the full eastern itinerary will not be announced for several days. Unless there is a change in the programme Governor Johnson will return to New York state on October 1, and work over the state arriving here on October 6, for two meetings.

The Russian government has put the cable hunters out of business for three years.

BREAD KNIFE USED IN TORRINGTON MURDER

Captain of Police Finds It Hidden in the Tall Grass.

Torrington, Sept. 23.—Sergeant-five feet from the spot where the naked, stab-covered body of John Padeson was found yesterday, Captain Padeson of the local police force this afternoon found a long, blood-stained bread knife, which the police believe caused the death of Padeson. The knife was hidden among the tall grass, weeds and briars behind a large boiler. The boiler forms part of a fence.

Captain Padeson's attention was first directed to the spot when he saw that the grass had the appearance of having been trampled. The knife was found in the opinion that the knife was placed there by some one; rather than having been thrown in the bushes as blood.

The finding of the knife, say the police, removes the possibility of the most baffling theory, that Padeson committed suicide. No other clues have been unearthed.

"Tomorrow an autopsy will be performed."

WILSON IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Tells Audience Democrats Won't Commit "Economic Suicide."

Saratoga, Pa., Sept. 23.—Through rainy Pennsylvania, Gov. Woodrow Wilson rode today, campaigning as he went, and addressing thousands of people who crowded the train stations to see him. He arrived here at 11 o'clock tonight, and participated in an automobile parade, followed by a big mass meeting was held at a request to the official notification ceremonies earlier in the day to the state ticket.

"The interesting thing," he said at Stroudsburg, "to the whole country is that the great state of Pennsylvania, that has so long seemed entirely devoted to the interests of one party, has suddenly become a state of no party, as if the democratic party had been the financial and business interests of the country is now showing a marked inclination to turn away from the party which has not satisfied the people and intrust its confidence to the party which is now showing a new set of policies in order that the country as a whole may be served. I don't like to talk about it, because I believe in another party, and it seems to me indelicate to talk about the affairs of a family I don't belong to."

"But, evidently, there is some family trouble, and some party families have a more tender conscience than the other, and the part that has a tender conscience does not know exactly what it wants to do with. But those of us who have for sixteen years exactly what was coming in the year 1912 have no doubt where we are bound for. Because I want to call you to witness that the democratic party has had substantially its present programme of returning to the government to the people for more than sixteen years. We are not doing anything new in this year, and it seems to me indelicate to talk about the affairs of a family I don't belong to."

"Now, we believe there is not any part of the country where the business interests are better understood than in the state of Pennsylvania. But I want to remind you of this—about half the voters in the United States are democrats and you don't understand them as you should. The country is going to out their own brains in every kind of enterprise they are going to out their own brains."

"One of the papers in Philadelphia said very rightly the other day that if the democrats committed economic murder on the industries of the country they would also commit economic suicide."

I have never met any woman named Bartee and I also knew the Bartee woman mentioned in the account. My relations with both these women were purely that of friendship and neither of them considered me as other than a friend.

DECLARES ICE CREAM BANE OF THE NATION

German Physicians Say It Causes Many Ills.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Dr. Hugo Eckstein and Dr. Wilhelm H. Berlin, who are among the 25 famous German physicians now making a tour of the United States, while here expressed their opinions on American ice cream. Dr. Eckstein said:

"It has been reported that 75 per cent of all Americans suffer from indigestion, and now I know what causes it, after I have had a plate of ice cream. Bah, it is cold. Nothing more. You eat it by the plateful, and the entirely too fast, at that. The temperature of ice cream alone is enough to give one a spasm, and I regard it as the bane of America."

Dr. H. is medical consultant to several of the courts of Europe. He has succeeded Von Leyden, who was formerly consultant to the court of Christianburg, and has fellow practitioner speak of ice cream, he said:

"The ice cream that is mostly sold in this country is good for nothing. It is not real ice cream, but mostly make believe, the sole virtue of which is that it is cold. I have no doubt that it is the cause of many American ills, and nearly all of your stomach troubles are traced to its deleterious influences."

WAS A CRUEL HOAX

Efforts Being Made to Locate the Perpetrator of It.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 23.—A hoax, complete in every detail, and executed in such a way as to defy discovery at the Los Angeles police department, was the double suicide of Niles C. Folson, a Los Angeles actor, and his wife, Mrs. M. B. Folson, of San Diego, was announced. The perpetrators acted with malice, according to police, and their rigorous search is being made for them today.

The story said Folson and Mrs. Bartee leaped to death in an automobile. After six hours' search, the body of Folson was found in the Santa Monica mountains.

Folson is alive and well in this city. Mrs. Bartee is said to be in San Francisco. Folson declared he had no idea who the perpetrators of the hoax were, and that he knew of no one who would be so cruel as to do this.

A man, giving his name as K. Mason, a member of the national guard, first gave the report of finding the bodies. Folson, who lives at 115 Third street, Santa Monica, said:

"The published account of my supposed suicide must have been inspired by someone who wished to do me harm. I have no memory that I know of anyone who would believe that anyone I know would cause such an article to be printed. I have never met any woman named Bartee and I also knew the Bartee woman mentioned in the account. My relations with both these women were purely that of friendship and neither of them considered me as other than a friend.
