NORWICH TOWN. Sophy Weitzel Circle Entertained by Miss Beckwith—Home Department's Social Gathering—Teachers Visit Schools.

Sophy Weitzel circle of the King's Daughters was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Miss Beckwith at her home on West Town street. Mrs. Alice Hale was chosen delegate to represent the circle at the state convention in Hartford, which will be held October 22 and 23. After the evening hour, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Social Gathering of Home Department. There was a social gathering of the members of Home department of the Sunday school of the First Congregational church, Wednesday afternoon, which called together nearly 200 ladies. The parlors were bright with autumn leaves, asters and nasturtiums.

OBITUARY. George J. Hourigan. About 11 o'clock Wednesday morning George J. Hourigan, 123 Central avenue, following an illness of eight months. He was confined to his bed the past three months, death being due to heart trouble. Mr. Hourigan was born in the city of New York, August 14, 1853, and was the son of Martin and Ellen Hourigan. He lived here all his life and was a butcher by trade. Mr. Hourigan was a member of the Eagles and belonged to Engine Co. No. 2 of Greenfield.

Mr. Hourigan was married about two years ago, in Willimantic. Besides his wife he leaves one son, Arthur Hourigan. He is also survived by five brothers, William, Martin, Richard and Edward, all of Norwich, and one sister, Mrs. John Somers of Bridgeport. There also survives an uncle, Michael Hourigan of this city, and an aunt, Mrs. Mary Monahan of North Main street this week was opened by Rev. Mr. French, pastor of the church, who offered a prayer. Miss Kern gave an eloquent and interesting talk on Repentance. The singing was led by Mr. Frazier and Mrs. Robert McNeely presided at the organ. The large attendance present included members of the Loyal Temperance legion. The services will be continued every evening this week. The regular Thursday evening prayer meetings of the M. E. church on North Main street have opened for the season and will continue through the winter months.

Horse Ran Away. About three o'clock Wednesday afternoon a horse belonging to a tailor's establishment on Main street ran away and damaged the wagon to which it was hitched, to some extent. The accident happened on Prospect street. The driver had left the horse standing in front of a house on Prospect street while he was making a delivery and while he was gone the animal started off. After running along the sidewalk the horse turned down Second street, where it hit a tree. The impact freed the animal from the shafts and it ran down Second street, up Central avenue and into the barn on Eighth street, where it is kept. The shafts of the wagon were broken and the vehicle sustained other minor damages. It is not known what started the horse.

M. E. Revival Service. Tuesday evening, the opening service of the revival meetings that are being held in the M. E. church on North Main street this week was opened by Rev. Mr. French, pastor of the church, who offered a prayer. Miss Kern gave an eloquent and interesting talk on Repentance. The singing was led by Mr. Frazier and Mrs. Robert McNeely presided at the organ. The large attendance present included members of the Loyal Temperance legion. DANGER IN DELAY. Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Norwich People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease may follow as the kidneys get worse. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in Norwich. Mrs. J. F. Sundstrom, Norwich, Conn., says: "For several years I suffered from backache and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. I had about despaired of ever getting relief when I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills about a month ago. I procured a supply of the remedy at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, and through using them my kidneys were strengthened and I felt better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Saves Leg of Boy. "It seemed that my 14 year old boy would have to lose his leg on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote D. F. Howard-Aquino, N. C. "All remedies and doctors' treatment failed. I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles. 25c at Lee & Osgood Co.

In the city court Tuesday morning D. Kellher, James Minnehan, Andrew Fitzgerald and W. Hourigan were found guilty of vagrancy and were sentenced to terms in the jail. The men were found asleep on the top floor of the old look shop building in Forest street, and had been arrested by the court. Anderson was also arrested on the charge of breach of the peace, but was discharged. Mrs. Lottie Simmons, who deserted her five children in Westerly and had been arrested for non-support, was advised by the court that she must take care of them, and upon her promise to do so was discharged.

General Huntington, who is remembered by some now living here, was born in 1784 and died in 1850, so that this fashion must have prevailed at the beginning of the last century. Gilbert Vergason of Providence spent the week end with his parents, and Mrs. Henry Vergason of Huntington avenue, having been called here by the severe illness of his grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Vergason.

Funeral of Andrew Krodell Was Largely Attended. At two o'clock Wednesday afternoon the funeral of Andrew Krodell was held from his home on Norwich avenue. There was a large attendance, including relatives and friends from Providence and Pawtucket. There was also a large delegation from the Odd Fellows and from the German Shooting club present, and a special car was chartered to convey them to the cemetery. Services were held at the house and were conducted by Rev. D. B. MacLane, pastor of the Taftville Congregational church. There was a wealth of handsome flowers that bore testimony of the high regard in which the deceased was held by his many friends. The bearers were Charles Kluss, John Fromander, Richard Thomas and John Krause. Burial was in Taftville cemetery and a committal service was read at the grave by Rev. Mr. MacLane. Undertaker George G. Grant had charge of the funeral.

FREE ADVICE TO SICK WOMEN. Thousands Have Been Helped By Common Sense Suggestions.

Women suffering from any form of female ill are invited to communicate promptly with the woman's private correspondence department of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established a confidential correspondence which has extended over many years and which has never been broken. Never have they published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which they have to draw from, it is more than possible that they possess the very knowledge needed in your case. Nothing is asked in return except your good will, and their advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (Confidential) Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.
