MYSTERY SURROUNDS DEATH OF ARIO B. LOVE, EX-SOLDIER

Ario B. Love of 41 Stone row was struck and killed. It is claimed, by the train running over the tracks of the New Haven system at a point near the foot of Winter street, some time early Saturday morning.

It is not known just what engine caused the fatality which is the third within a short period of time at practically the same point. It is believed, however, that Love was struck by the switch engine that left this city about 3 o'clock for Hartford to have its boiler washed out. Shortly after the switcher had passed the place where the body was found, the Frozdenok and Hartford freight pulled up and the conductor on the train, while checking up the cars in his train, found the body as he was walking beside the track.

There is no way of actually determining how long the body had been lying where it was found—that is, within a space of two or three hours. Some entertain the suspicion that Love was waylaid and put out of business and then his body placed upon the tracks by his assailants to be run over by the train as a cloak to their dastardly work.

Medical Examiner Mason was notified and following an examination of the body turned it over to Killoury Bros, funeral directors, pending disposition by the proper authorities.

Ario B. Love had resided in Willimantic between four and five years, but very little actual knowledge concerning his relatives or himself was gained by those who knew him, and from the fact that he had as fine a record as a soldier as any man who ever resided in Willimantic.

Mr. Love, according to information obtained at the time of his application for membership in A. C. Tyler post, No. 4, U. S. W. V., July 11, 1911, was born October 20, 1874, in Fulton county, Georgia, a son of D. P. Love, who was first enlisted at Atlanta, Ga., July 6, 1864, and was discharged in 1869 from the United States army. Re-enlisted in and served until 1892, was discharged and re-enlisted again in Cuba, and was finally discharged on July 10, 1898, with the rank of sergeant, from Company B, Fifth U. S. Regulars. He was originally enlisted as a private and worked up to the rank of a corporal and when he was re-enlisted as a private. He participated in all the engagements in Cuba, practically all in the Philippines insurtion and the Boxer movement in China. All of his enlistment papers and discharges bear indorsements of a high order, giving his character as excellent and his service honest and faithful.

As no relatives were known to exist, although his application to Tyler camp gave his nearest relatives as Madeline Bradley, Atlanta, Ga., A. C. Tyler camp took charge of the body and if no relatives can be located the camp will bury the body with honor befitting a fine soldier of the United States.

The probate court empowered Commander Robert O. Snow of A. C. Tyler camp, No. 4, U. S. W. V., to take temporary charge of the dead soldier's personal effects. An investigation of Commander Love's effects by Commander Snow and Past Department commander Frank P. Fenton revealed that Mr. Love had seven honorable discharges from the United States army and that all were of the highest character. Letters were found that would indicate that Mr. Love had sisters and brothers in Atlanta, Ga., a father, perhaps, and a wife, who resided in Deserats, Ont., some three or four years ago.

Everything tended to indicate that Mr. Love's connections were of the best and that his people owned considerable property in Georgia. Special delivery letters were sent to several relatives in different places and a telegram was immediately sent to the sister who was accustomed to write him most frequently.

Sunday afternoon word was received that no such person was known as M. E. Bradley, the supposed sister, at 220 Courtland avenue, Atlanta, Ga. Further efforts will be made to locate some of the man's relatives.

When found Love's body was in horrible shape—both legs were cut off, one arm severed from the body and several cuts and abrasions marred the face and head.

It is known that Love had a good sized sum of money in his possession Friday afternoon, when he paid his rent for five weeks, and some other petty bills. He was formerly employed as a mason's tender by different firms and also by Foley & Henry as a teamster. For the past three weeks or so he had been employed as a coal shoveler for the New Haven railroad in the roundhouse in the Columbia yard, and Friday evening went there to visit his fellow workers. It is said that he lay down and took a nap and left there shortly after midnight, which was the last seen of him until his body was found, when but a small bunch of keys, a gold watch and five cents in change were found upon his person.

C. B. BLAKE OF BROOKLYN.
Nominated for Senator by Republicans of Twenty-ninth District—Received 21 Votes to 4 of Elmer Bennett of Canterbury.

The republican senatorial convention for the Twenty-ninth district was held in the town hall here Saturday afternoon, Charles O. Thompson, chairman of the senatorial committee, called the convention to order. Edward J. Gallagher of Plainfield was elected chairman and A. T. Grosvenor of Plainfield was chosen clerk. Following the reading of the call, the roll of delegates was called, and all responded as follows: Canterbury, L. Bryden of Pomfret, Brooklyn, L. Bailey, H. G. Mowry; Canterbury, Arthur Bennett, Clinton Frink, Myron Bennett, Charles A. Moore; Plainfield, L. Lewis, Clarence E. Chester; Hampton, Charles E. Burham, Albert L. Mills; Plainfield, John T. Lynch, Edward J. Gallagher, Edward T. Greiner, A. A. Chace; Pomfret, Charles O. Thompson, W. V. Averill, A. T. Grosvenor, Walter Bryden (not present); Plainfield, C. M. Smith, W. M. Burnham, Charles A. Capen, John P. Carlson, G. O. Carter.

Nominations were then called for and the name of Charles H. Blake of Brooklyn, Mr. Blake's nomination was seconded by several delegates. Byron Hicks of Canterbury then obtained the floor and placed in nomination Elmer Bennett of Canterbury, saying that his name was entitled to the nomination, as it had not had a candidate selected for the office in thirty years. There were no further nominations, and it was voted that an informal ballot be taken. A. A. Chace of Plainfield and A. L. Mills of Hampton were appointed by the chairman. Twenty-five votes were cast on the informal ballot, of which Mr. Blake received 21 and Mr. Bennett 4. It was voted that the ballot be made formal and unanimous. The chairman was then instructed to appoint a committee of two to notify the successful candidate of his nomination, and Judge William

A. Arnold and Charles O. Thompson were named. They retired and soon returned with the names of the delegates to be introduced to the convention. Mr. Blake addressed the delegates briefly, thanking the convention for its support and assuring the delegates that he would do all he could to assist in electing the entire republican ticket. He said he felt sure that the republican ticket would be elected. He then tendered the delegates representatives of the press and friends an invitation to be present at dinner at the Hotel Hooker.

This senatorial committee was re-elected for the two years next ensuing: Charles O. Thompson of Pomfret, Frank W. Phillips of Plainfield and William A. Arnold of Willimantic. Charles H. Perkins, Avery A. Stanton and Edwin M. Burnham were named a committee to prepare resolutions, which they did, and submitted the following to the convention: Resolved That we, the republican delegates from the Twenty-ninth senatorial district, in convention assembled, approve and indorse the principles embodied in the republican platform adopted at the annual convention in Hartford, September 11, 1912, and urge the republican voters of the district to make an aggressive campaign, giving one their old-time loyalty to the state ticket, in which this district takes especial pride, three members representing this district, one being the Hon. William A. King, another the Hon. Fayette L. Wright, and also Charles H. Blake, who is today nominated for senator from the Twenty-ninth district.

A motion was passed empowering the senatorial committee to fill any vacancy. Adjournment was taken and the meeting closed. The following remarks were made by different ones, including William A. King, candidate for congress from this district.

Rev. Father Fleming's Will Probated.
Saturday morning the last will and testament of Rev. John J. Fleming was accepted by the probate court. Rev. John P. Donohue, pastor of St. Mary's church, was executor of the will, which was executed July 30, 1912, and signed in the presence of Thomas J. Kelly, Arthur T. Kelley and Miss Emmet L'Haurac.

By the terms of the instrument all of the books, pictures, oil paintings, etc., of the late Rev. John J. Fleming, his sister, Miss Rose A. Fleming, his brother, James, of this city, is given a $1,000 bond of the United Realty and Mortgage company of New York. To his sister, Miss Rose A. Fleming, is given ten shares of the stock of the Christian Press association and one share of the capital stock of the Willimantic Press.

John P. Donohue of South County is left in trust $100 for masses for deceased priests and old ladies. To his wife, Mrs. Mary Ann Fleming, is given $500. To his daughter, Miss Rose A. Fleming, is given $500. To his son, James, is given $500. To his daughter, Miss Rose A. Fleming, is given $500. To his son, James, is given $500.

Lebanon Man Held on Serious Charge.
John C. Holbrook of Lebanon was arrested Friday evening by Police Officer J. P. Downing. The charge against Holbrook was assault upon Lottie House, aged 64. He pleaded guilty at a hearing before Justice E. H. Blake and was sent to jail to await trial before the superior court.

City Water Improving.
Supt. Henderson S. Moulton of the water department is in receipt of a letter from James H. Newlands, state chemist, in which he contains a report of the analysis of the water. The report indicates that the water is very satisfactory, and that the amount of bacteria is lower than last month, and that there is no evidence of any dangerous contamination.

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING.
Nineteen Citizens Transact Business—$500 Appropriated for Schools—$950 for St. Joseph's Hospital.

Moderator William A. Dawson called the annual town meeting to order in the town hall here Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The warning was read by Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton. There was a total attendance of nineteen at the meeting, which lasted almost an hour. The reports of the town officers were acted on. It was moved by Attorney Kelley and seconded by Fenton that the tax be deferred until such time after the board of assessors have made their report as is deemed expedient by the board or another meeting. A resolution was adopted authorizing the board of selectmen to borrow such sums of money as is necessary from time to time to defray the expenses of the town.

Dr. F. E. Guild, chairman of the town school committee, asked for an appropriation of $500 for the use of the schools for the coming year. John F. Carr said: "I have confidence in the school committee and know the money will be spent in the best manner." The motion was adopted. The sum of $100 was then appropriated for the use of the town mission-ary.

A resolution was offered by John P. Reilly, appropriating $350 for St. Joseph's hospital. Mr. Eugene Lincoln offered as an amendment that the sum of $2,000 be appropriated and that include the cost of the care of the town's patients. John F. Carr opposed the amendment, reading statistics relative to the maintenance and care of the patients at the hospital, and that figuring the cost upon an extremely low basis it amounted to approximately $12 per week each, and according to his figures the hospital got over $1,400 the past year on town patients alone. Mr. Lincoln expended and believed in the money—no matter of what a character—upon business principles. He maintained that $2,000 was not much. An amendment to the amendment was then offered by Mr. Reilly, making the appropriation $350 and a weekly charge of $5 for each town patient extra. The motion as amended was finally adopted.

A resolution was adopted whereby in future town meetings and elections meetings in the town shall be held from 6 a. m. until 5 p. m., and the polls will hereafter be open during those hours. As there was no further business the meeting was adjourned.

WEDDING.
Slate-Kingsbury.
Ronald Winfield Slate of South Windham and Miss Mary M. Kingsbury of Lebanon were married Saturday afternoon (Tuesday), the formal transfer of title and securities to

SAGE TEA DARKENS THE HAIR.
Restore Faded And Gray Hair to Natural Color.
There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the aid of a simple Sage Tea. Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderful beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and we have to do is to call for the ready-made product. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy does not exactly as represented. Agents, The Lee Osgood Co.

Seventy Attend Teachers' Meeting.
The teachers' institute held under the direction of the board of education at the Willimantic normal training school Saturday was attended by seventy teachers and was productive of much good. Supt. This Woman Has
Red, Rough Hands
Moral: Madam, Use the Right Laundry Soap.

Women, whose hands were their humiliation, now take pride in their soft whiteness, the result of using Welcome Laundry Soap. So today there is twice as much Welcome Soap sold in New England as any other brand, because it protects the hands as well as the clothes. Gets the wash out fast and makes the finest bright as a new dollar.

One reason for this is the fact that there is five times as much Borax used in Welcome as in all other New England laundry soaps put together—just enough to perfectly soften the water and to make Welcome do more than any other soap. A big cake 5¢—of your grocer. You owe it to your hands and to your clothes to try Welcome today.

Your grocer will give you money back if you can find a better laundry soap.
