

WESTERLY WILL OF 1851 FOUND

Deceased Probate Judge Burke by Trust Company—Disposes of Estate of Stephen B. Gavitt and Had Never Been Called For—Congregational Conference at Pawcatuck—Widow of Owner of Watch Hill House Appointed Administratrix of Westerly Portion of Estate—Sullivan-Bebarina Marriage.

The autumnal conference of the Congregational churches of Rhode Island was held Tuesday in the Congregational church in Pawcatuck, which is affiliated with the Rhode Island district.

The first hour of the afternoon session was devoted to business, then there was discussion of the subject "The Supreme Need of Rhode Island Congregationalism."

This discussion ended at 4 o'clock and during the balance of the afternoon session, which closed at 6 o'clock, there was singing, and addresses as follows: Three Men at the Gate, by Rev. Samuel C. Fellows; The Anti-Saloon League Work, by Rev. A. B. Crisley; and an address on the Fundamental Principles of Congregationalism, by Rev. Charles R. Brown, D.D.

The evening session was opened with devotional exercises by Rev. J. E. McConnell, D. D., followed by addresses by Rev. A. Hurlbert and Rev. Gains Glenn Atkins, D. D.

George R. McKenna, attorney for Mrs. Corrine Harris Brewer, widow of Edward S. Brewer, owner of the Watch Hill house, who died in New York, petitioned to the Westerly probate court, that Mrs. Brewer be appointed administratrix of that portion of the estate of the deceased located in Westerly.

Upon petition of Lorenzo P. Bray, the court appointed as administrator of his wife's estate, the Watch Hill house, Trust company and fixed the bonds at $400. Everett Barnes, Thomas B. Nichols and Thomas Perry were appointed appraisers.

Margaret M. Gray was appointed administratrix of the estate of Murray Gray, Bonds $1000. Eugene B. Peniston, Everett A. Kingsley and Jacques Hoxie appraisers.

Judge Burke received from the Washington Trust company a document that had been placed in the institution for safe keeping, sixty-one years ago, and had never been called for. The document was enclosed in an envelope marked "Stephen B. Gavitt, 1851."

In the supreme court of the state of Rhode Island there was hearing Wednesday on the plaintiff's petition for a new trial in the case of Attorney Albert B. Crafts, formerly of Westerly, against Charles A. Trafford and Edward P. Metcalf.

DANGER PERIOD OF WOMAN'S LIFE FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

Asheville, N.C.—"I suffered for years with female trouble while going through the Change of Life. I tried a local physician for a couple of years without any substantial benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I quit my physician and commenced using it with the happiest results.

"If you think this letter will contribute anything towards further introducing your medicines to afflicted women who are passing through this trying period, it is with great pleasure I consent to its publication."—Mrs. JULIA A. MOORE, 17 East St., Asheville, N. C.

The Case of Mrs. Kirilin. Circleville, Ohio—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one half a bottle I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better it has been for several years. If women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRILIN, 363 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

AFTER PASSING YEARS

Norwich Testimony Remains Unshaken

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Norwich story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Mrs. Charles H. Whaley, 9 Treadway Avenue, Norwich, Conn., says: "Ever since my first experience with Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago I have valued them highly. This remedy has saved me a great deal of suffering when having trouble from my kidneys. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, and in view of the good results I received I consider it a pleasure to recommend them." (Statement given August 21, 1908.)

A LATER ENDORSEMENT.

At a later date Mrs. Whaley added: "Doan's Kidney Pills have done me a world of good and I consider it a pleasure to let other kidney sufferers know of this remedy. You may continue to publish my former statement." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. none more embarrassing than the pension graft.

(Macon, Ga., News, Dec. 17, 1911.) An Oscar Underwood (or any other democrat) in the presidential chair would veto the Sherwood pension bill. There is a heap in that.

(Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, Dec. 13, 1911.) The republicans have worked the old soldier cry until the pensioners, including deserters, skulkers and their widows, are costing the taxpayers exceeding the annual payment of the army while the war was going on. General Sherwood is playing politics.

(Chattanooga, Tenn., News, Dec. 14, 1911.) That a majority of the democrats in the house of representatives have not lost all traces of assiduity was shown when they passed the Sulloway bill, which would add $75,000,000 to our pension appropriations. It is creditable to the Tennessee delegation that they are generally found defending and preserving democratic ideals.

(Memphis Commercial-Appeal, Dec. 15, 1911.) In the country districts of some parts of the United States pension-paying day is the great day. The federal pension is the ready money which enables a man, if his wife works hard in the garden and does the cooking, to spend his time in idleness and be able to meet all the trains that pass by the railroad station. Sometimes a pension enables a whole family to eke out an existence without the male members working.

"Disgusting, Disreputable Bounty Jumpers." The Richmond, Va., Times Dispatch, speaking of the democratic leadership of Mr. Underwood, says that he "was unable to prevent the house from squandering $75,000,000 on a lot of disgusting and disreputable bounty jumpers who entered the army for plunder and who have been realizing their wildest dreams ever since the value of the old soldier vote began to be understood."

Now, my soldier friends, is there not sufficient reason to halt, ponder and look well at the prospect ahead, before voting for any man for president or any other high office who thinks as the editors of the above quoted democratic papers think? Is it not time also to consider the fact that a vote for Crafts and Debs in Connecticut is a vote wasted. A vote for Roosevelt in Connecticut, no matter how much you honor, admire and respect him, no matter how strong your desire is to see him president, no matter what you think of the Chicago convention, that vote for Roosevelt is one vote taken away from William Howard Taft, the man who signed the Sherwood bill inside of an hour after its passage.

C. R. MONTGOMERY, Pacler, Conn., Oct. 16, 1912.

Important to Retain Republicans.

Mr. Editor: I do not think that in these last few weeks of the presidential campaign so much prominence can be given to or too much stress laid upon the importance of having a continuation of republican form of goverment. The United States now enjoys a prosperity unequalled by any other country in the world. The American workmen because of higher wages, regardless of the higher cost of living, own their own homes, wear better clothes, eat better food, and besides have laid aside for a rainy day $1,000,000,000 in the savings banks of this country. The reforms under Mr. Taft's administration have been many. A deficit of $57,000,000 was in two years' time changed to a surplus of $47,000,000. Postal banks have been established, forty-three anti-trust prosecutions conducted, and serious complications with Russia over the passport treaty avoided, and arbitration treaties negotiated with foreign powers. And for the benefit of the suffragists I might say that the franchise has been granted the women exclusively in republican states by a majority republican vote. The disasters which followed in the wake of the last democratic administration were many. Banks suspended, factories and mills closed, industries declined, and millions of men were thrown out of employment. The election of a democratic president may mean a return of the same conditions. A vote for Roosevelt is a vote for Wilson. E. H. LEARNED, Norwich, Oct. 16, 1912.
