OBITUARY. George F. Bard.

George F. Bard, for many years a well known business man of this city, died at 11 o'clock Friday evening at the Norwich state hospital, where he had been a patient for a week.

On account of poor health he had not been actively engaged in business for the past year and had suffered from shocks. He sustained an apoplectic stroke a week ago and remained in a state of coma up to his death.

He was born in Boston, March 15, 1846, and was the son of George Bard, who was a well known merchant in this city.

He was married to Mrs. Mary A. Bard, who was a daughter of the late George F. Bard, and was a member of the Baptist church.

He was a member of the Royal Arcanum, the Arcanum club of St. James' lodge, No. 23, F. and A. M. He was a 23d degree Mason, and a member of Park Congregational church. He was a great lover of music and was a violinist of talent.

He was married in New York city and is survived by his wife and two sons, Dr. George Percival Bard of Stafford Springs and Charles Tyler Bard of this city, and a stepson, J. H. Holbrook of Winchester.

He was prominent and highly respected in the business world of the city for his industry and ability. His death is a source of deep regret to all who knew him.

Charles M. Manning.

Word was received here Friday of the death of Charles M. Manning, which occurred at his late home in New Haven Thursday evening, after an illness of some time. He was 55 years of age.

Charles Murphy Manning was born in Norwich Oct. 21, 1824, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ann Manning. He learned the trade of a cabinet maker in the shop of Colton & Lane and soon after moved to New Haven, where he has spent the greater part of his life.

He was engaged there in the making of furniture, clocks and cabinets. He was a member of the Baptist church in New Haven. He married Charlotte Manning of Norwich in 1848, her death occurring a number of years ago.

The deceased is survived by one son, Charles E. Manning, of New Haven, and two daughters, Mrs. Harry M. Clarke of New Haven and Mrs. Charles Hayden, of Brooklyn. He also leaves one brother, William D. Manning of this city. Lemuel A. Manning, B. Manning of this city are nephews. Burial will be in this city.

Denunciations Report as Foolish.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Senator Suarez, Chilean minister here, declared today that the report that Germany was about to buy from Chile a coalled station on one of the Magellan islands was foolish. His country, he added, was not in the market selling coalled stations to foreign governments, and would be no more willing than the United States to part with one of her ports.

QUARTER MILLION IN STATE ROADS

Close to That Amount Now Represented in New London County Contracts—Representing About 20 Miles—Considerable New Projected—Norwich to Groton Survey of 10 1/2 Miles to be Made.

Just at the present time New London county has road work contracts running for nearly a quarter of a million of new state roads, these touching all parts of the county, and some of them recently let. Others are practically completed and when all represented by the quarter million are completed it will mean an addition of about 20 miles of new roads, well built and maintaining good spots that have been sources of trouble and complaint for a long time.

Besides those, there are several projects are bright for several new roads in the near future.

The near completion of the four Eidsvold contracts will put into use roads that will be much appreciated. These are two in Voluntown, gravel and macadam, one in East Lyme, and Preston road, of a mile and a half over Fox Hill, representing about $15,000, and a mile of grading in Lyndebury below the Drabridge.

The Franklin road to Willimantic, about three miles of graded road with macadam, of which about two-thirds is nearly finished. The grading on the rest is nearly completed. This has been a particularly heavy job.

Contractor Tryon is completing this Colchester job, and will then take his outfit to the Lisbon River road, a road of about three miles, which is nearly finished. The grading on the rest is nearly completed. This has been a particularly heavy job.
