For the holidays Fritwell is offering an especially attractive line of diamond rings, pendants, necklaces and jewelry; also a fine line of umbrellas, always a most acceptable gift. See advertisement.

BREED THEATRE.

The Ranchman's Anniversary, the Big Esanay Cowboy Feature.

On the splendid bill at the Bred there is one of those limitable Esanay cowboy comedies, entitled The Ranchman's Anniversary. It is full of the rollicking, mischievous spirit of the best, and in this case they discover it is the wedding anniversary of their boss and they prepare to celebrate in the most approved western fashion. This they do, much to the chagrin of the parties most interested, and things are pretty lively most of the time to the big climax, which is undoubtedly a mirth provoker.
The first pictures of the Balkan war appear at the Bred in the Pathé Weekly No. 48, and show the great spirit of unrest in the territories where the scenes of activities lie. This portion of the weekly was the recipient of concentrated attention yesterday, and proved a very instructive picture. The Flower Girl's Romance, a Kaleidoscope of the great carnation fields of California, is indeed a beauty, and aways the audiences with its emotional story, while A Question of Age, the Pathe American comedy, keeps the house in a murmur of laughter during its entire presentation.

AT THE DAVIS.

Knight Brothers and Sautelle in the skit called The Power with the Green Umbrella give more real excuse for a hearty laugh than has any sketch booked in to the Davis this season, and Johnson is truly a wonderful aerial contortionist. More and Towse have a very classy comedy singing and piano act. The above kind of vaudeville has done much to make the theater which was thought to be "a dead one" the success that those whose good opinion is worth having have always hoped it would be.
The photoplays for Thursday, Friday and Saturday were selected by Mr. Davis.

Mr. Davis sees every picture run in his house before it comes to us, and comes to the theater at least twice each week to observe how his offerings are received. The sending of the Five Fights, Love and Towse, call attention to the ladies who give all of their time to their work, and fortunate indeed be they if given one hour in which to sit down with the "kiddies" for Christmas dinner. The Dartmouth Duel gives the feeling that is a necessary part of any bill, and The Fugitive from Justice is a western drama of the thrilling sort.

What the Auditorium is Offering Today

Not the best show that has ever played Norwich, or even the greatest acts in the business, are offered today, but three good acts which are all capable entertainers, and all combined make up a most pleasing program. The Lester trio, presenting the screaming farce, The Bathroom Mystery, by Harry Usher, have an act that is constructed for the sole purpose of making you laugh, and if they do this then they have succeeded in attaining the result they set out for, and if you don't laugh it is because your sense of humor has become dulled.
The Little Melba, Miss Madeline Nash, has a very fine singing offering which shows her excellent voice to good advantage, without the use of "rag" songs. A straight singing act that is meritorious.
A merry number of song, music and comedy is offered in the specialty presented by Harry and Laura Prampin, who feature Miss Laura Prampin, America's greatest colored lady cornet soloist.
Every Thursday is Gaumont Weekly day, and issue No. 29 today will show twelve interesting items, chief among which are: The most successful of Greek embarkings at Marseilles for the Front; Wonderful Heroism of the Italian Cavalry, New Fashions in Colors from Paris, and many other views.

ALMA GLUCK, SOPRANO.

Will appear in Slater Hall, Tuesday, Dec. 17, in Musical Course.

The first number in this season's musical course in Slater Memorial Hall, will be a song recital by Alma Gluck, the soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, which will take place Tuesday evening, Dec. 17. This will be the first appearance of this famous soprano in Norwich and the management feel that the local music lovers are fortunate in having an opportunity to hear this eminent artist.

Nature has been most kind to Mme. Gluck; she is dainty, petite, beautiful to look upon with a lovely, even, sympathetic voice and with her youth, talent and musical feeling, combined with great intelligence, no limit can be placed on the height to which she may rise in her chosen profession.

Although born in Bucharest, Roumania, Mme. Gluck is essentially American, as she came to this country at the age of six and most of her musical education was received here.
The public knew very little of this young singer until one morning a few years ago, when, after making her first appearance as Sophie in Werther at the New Theatre, she awoke to find herself famous. Since that time she has sung in various operas with much success.

The following criticism, from the New York Evening Post will be of interest. "Carnegie hall's great auditorium was well filled to hear this young soprano with the lovely voice and fast-growing popularity, for she is charming to hear and to see. Her programme was an exacting one. It comprised 21 songs, sung in four languages and in varying moods—sunshine in Mozart, pathos in Dupare and Tchaikovsky's beautiful legend."
Tickets for the Gluck concert are now on sale at the store of George A. Davis. Admission $2. All seats reserved.

CHILD'S HANDS
CRACKED AND BLEED

Poisoned by Brown Tail Moth. From Wrists Down Sore and Red. Scratched Until They Were Almost Raw. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured Her.

9 Faunce Place, Brockton, Mass.—"My girl was poisoned by the brown-tail moth when she was five years of age. Her hands from her wrists down were sore, red and bleeding. She scratched them until they were almost raw. She suffered enough when they cracked and bled. Her hands and wrists looked so bad I was discouraged to take her out in company. It kept her from sleeping well. I tried Ointment, and also a treatment with no avail. I was so discouraged I said 'I will see what the Cuticura Soap and Ointment will do.' I started to use them. I was obliged to keep her hands and wrists done up day and night in linen cloth saturated with the Cuticura Ointment, but always before it was applied I washed them in hot water and Cuticura Soap. The bathing soothed her wonderfully. When I took the cloth from her hands in the morning the dry skin was all peeled off. Cuticura Soap and Ointment completely cured her. It has never returned." (Signed) Mrs. L. H. Allen, Feb. 10, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for poor complexions, red, rough hands and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little that it is almost criminal not to use them. Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. book on the skin and scalp. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Send for free sample of Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.
