

HEAVY SNOWFALL AT WESTERLY

Cuts Down Volume of Christmas Shopping—Daniel J. Sully to Re-enter Financial Life—Horse Thief Makes Getaway—Local Interests.

As predicted by the weather bureau, the snow storm arrived on schedule. There were sudden changes in conditions and the snow came, arriving at 4 o'clock and continuing for many hours. The weatherwise in a regular fashion Christmas. As a natural sequence there was but very little shopping before Christmas shopping. The schedules of the steam and electric roads were unreliable. All Christmas mail and express parcels received were delivered as promptly as could be expected, but such was delayed in transit will of necessity be delayed in delivery.

With the execution of the snow that came at Thanksgiving time, that of Tuesday is all that came to this section thus far the present winter and in volume and severity will probably equal any that are yet to come, as such a storm is rarely exceeded in this section.

Daniel J. Sully, manager of Kenneth Ridge Inn, at Watch Hill, erstwhile the Cotton King, and the manipulator and possessor of millions of dollars, is planning to get back in financial circles and probably employ someone to substitute for him as purchasing steward for his inn at the Watch Hill. Mr. Sully is very well known in Westerly and is deservedly popular by reason of his democratic mannerisms. Kenneth Ridge was the former private summer home of the Sullys and was the largest residence at the Watch Hill, only requiring interior changes to convert it into a modern hotel of no small proportions.

Several years ago Mr. Sully met with reverses and now he hopes to come back. First he intends to go back in person to New York, from which embarrassing court orders made him a voluntary exile. This accomplished, he hopes to come back financially. All depends upon the success of a suit Mr. Sully has brought to reopen an intricate court case.

Local Laconics.

There were Christmas tree exercises in St. Michael's school, Tuesday afternoon, and many children were made happier.

Knees Became Stiff

Five Years of Severe Rheumatism
The cure of Henry J. Goldstein, 14 Barton Street, Boston, Mass., is another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where others have utterly failed. Mr. Goldstein says: "I suffered from rheumatism five years, it kept me from business and caused excruciating pain. My knees would become as stiff as steel. I tried many medicines without relief. Then I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon felt much better, and now consider myself entirely cured. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla in its liquid form or the so-called tablets called Sarsatabs."

MYSTIC

Tom Collins, Dead at 23, Was a Great Traveler—Funerals, Mason P. Fitch, Mrs. Charles Grinnell.

Tom, the pet of Mrs. Collins, on Pearl street, died Saturday, at the age of 23. Tom was well known in this village and Woodville, R. I., and since he came here has run away five times and returned to Woodville, and had had five trips by the Adams Express company from that place to Mystic, after his long journey by foot. He was a great lover for rats, and up to within a week of his death pleased his mistress by bringing a huge rat and placing it before her. Tom received a good burial and will be missed by those who were in the habit of taking their lunch at the restaurant.

FUNERALS.

Mason P. Fitch.
The funeral of Mason P. Fitch, who died at his home on New London road Saturday, was held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Welcome E. Bates, pastor of the Union Baptist church, conducted the services. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Charles Grinnell.
The funeral of Miss Ella Avery Grinnell, widow of Charles Grinnell, was held from her home, on Willow street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. C. T. Hatch, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member, conducted the services. The floral designs were beautiful. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Funeral of Rev. H. M. Vail—Record Holiday Business at Postoffice—Gifts for Mill Officials—Personal Items.

The funeral of Rev. Henry M. Vail took place at the home in Staffordville Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The body was taken to Brimfield for burial.

Harold's omibus and Miss Hazel Conroy of Danbury are spending Christmas in town.

Postal Clerks Busy.

The holiday rush at the postoffice has been on for the past two days. The clerks have been kept unusually busy and the rural delivery men have been well laden with parcels. The volume of business at the office will probably exceed anything in previous years.

Although the weather was bad yesterday, the merchants had a big day, but undoubtedly the sales would have been larger if the weather had been more favorable, so that the country folks could come in. On the whole the Christmas trade this year will average considerably higher than usual.

Housekeeping Is Not the Task It Used to Be

MODERN invention has done away with much of the hard work. For instance, the cleaning and polishing of hardwood floors, the dusting of moldings, the tops of high furniture, the stairs, under the radiator, etc. These back-breaking tasks are now made easy with the

O-Cedar Mop

Polish Mop

With it you can dust, clean and polish a hardwood floor in the time it formerly took you to get ready to do it.

Besides, you do not have to get down on your hands and knees to dust under the bed or other hard-to-get-at places, or to stand on a chair to dust the top of the high furniture. All of the hard work is now made easy with the O-Cedar Polish Mop. It gathers all the dust or dirt from crevices and base. The mop is easily cleaned by washing and then renewed by putting on a few drops of O-Cedar Polish.

Try it at Our Risk

Use it two whole days with this mop. If you do not find it satisfactory in every respect we will return your money. The price is only $1.50 and it will save you many more in a short time.
