MANY NEW MANAGERS FOR 1913

Disatisfaction Has Caused Numerous Shifts Among Baseball Club Officials—Four New Leaders in National League—White Sox Have Sixteen Pitchers.

Dissatisfied with the 1912 season, many ball clubs have made changes in the managerial end of the game for the next season, confident that a change of managers will help the team.

The new managers in the National League are Johnny Evers, at Chicago; Joe Tinker, at Cincinnati; Miller Huggins, at St. Louis, and George Stallings, at Boston.

The season in the American league, as usual, was serene and fast and few changes were made. The dropping of Wolverton and placing of Chance at the head of the New York club was the only shift.

Relief For Ed. Walsh. The White Sox have sixteen pitchers in line for next year. Each one, of course, comes highly recommended.

is said that Callahan is willing to trade about six of the youngsters for one more veteran slaban. He has been trying hard to engineer a deal for George Mullin of the Detroit Tigers.

NOTED HARVARD ATHLETE IS UNDER SUSPENSION.

Paul Withington is Charged With Accepting Salary For Coaching Football and Swimming Teams.

Paul Withington assistant graduate treasurer of the Harvard Athletic association, has been temporarily suspended by the New England Amateur Athletic association and has been requested to appear before the wrestling committee of that body and give his reasons if any, why his suspension should not be made a permanent one.

An evil which is expected to be brought before the committee shortly is that of promiscuous "expert articles" writings by amateur and college athletes who exchange the use of their names and their knowledge gained as participants in amateur sport for ready cash.

Chairman's Statement. When James E. Sullivan, chairman of the national registration committee of the A. A. U., was asked about Withington's suspension, he said: "I know nothing about the details of his case. I simply heard that he had been suspended. I have great faith in the honesty and ability of the members of the New England association, and I feel sure they would not suspend any one unless they had sufficient evidence to warrant it."

"If Mr. Withington thinks he has been treated unfairly he may appeal from the ruling of the New England association and receive a hearing by the national body. If he were suspended unjustly he will be reinstated."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

A DAY OF WEAKNESS. Declines in Prices Range from Fractions to Three Points.

New York, Dec. 29.—Contrary to technical observation, the stock market yesterday exhibited weakness. Declines at the close were exhibited very generally in the list and ranged from fractions to three points.

Another instance in the market is the trend of call money. The renewal rate on Friday of 12 per cent. indicates the disposition of the banking interests toward any expansion of speculation.

There is yet too much uncertainty abroad to warrant overconfidence. The atmosphere, after all things considered, is not sufficiently clear to allow full play of optimism, although the reasonable outlook is that in time the present clouds will disappear.
