ASSISTED HER LOVER TO ESCAPE FROM GUARDHOUSE.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Aiding her lover and three other men to escape from the guardhouse at Fort Sheridan six months ago caused prosecution of Mrs. Adele Lawrence today, but the woman's tearful plea of love and ignorance of the seriousness of her act won clemency in Federal Judge Carpenter's court today.

Miss Lawrence pleaded that she was in love with Thomas Hindman, who with three other men—Frank Newlin, Harold Smith and Charles H. Underwood—was confined in the Fort Sheridan guardhouse. She said she wanted to help Hindman and she hired an automobile and assisted in the escape of her lover and his fellow prisoners.
