Brief State News

Middletown—The Middlesex hospital endowment funds have been increased $5,000 by the generosity of the late Prof. John M. Van Vleck.

Waterbury—During the year just closed Probation Officer Nicholas Connellick collected 2,030 from prisoners placed on probation by the Waterbury city court.

Hartford—The First company, Governor's Foot Guard, at a meeting Monday night passed a rule prohibiting members entering any saloon while in full dress uniform.

Bristol—Tuesday evening the grand lodge of the Daughters of Pochonon instituted a new lodge to be known in the future as the Kitchawan council, D. of P.

Simsbury—Miss Myrtle Ketchin, daughter of Mrs. Emma Ketchin of South Main street, has been appointed examining nurse for the school children of the town of Branford.

Rockville—The speaker at the meeting of the Men's union of the Union Congregational church next Sunday noon is to be Miss Emily Pierson of Cromwell. She will speak on Woman's Suffrage.

New Britain—Six couples were married Tuesday at the Polish church. Last Sunday twenty-three couples were called for the first time. Rev. Lucyan Bojnowski has about fifty couples on his list who are to be married between now and Lent.

Fair Haven—This (Thursday) evening in the basement of St. Francis church, the senior Holy Name society members and friends will hear Hon. John F. Gunshanan, of the state tuberculosis commission, who will speak on Great White Plague.

Bridgeport—That his wife has spent all her money on a New York fortune teller, estimated by him at $400, was the defense put up by George Katona of Bridgeport in a hearing of support charges. He claimed that she consulted the fortune teller upon every little pretext.

Polite Letter Writing. The polite letter writer has almost disappeared with the successive discouragement of the penny post, the halfpenny postcard, the telegraph and the telephone. Personally, I have abandoned all the elaborate mazes to my signature, the complimentary foolery of fulsome or obsequious affection or truth. My own approach to a signature is just—"Yours" on a postcard and that is the usual one. I'm not out at all. I'm in.

There are many people who throw the soul into that introduction to the signature. Not the postscript, but just the words before the signature. To me come many letters every evening, and many of them are postcards. And many of these cards of comment and criticism have ended with "Yours, with time to waste." It is not a polite or even a kind ending.

As to letter writing: Bishop Thorold, like the Duke of Wellington, practiced courtesy in letter writing. When one of his clergy wrote to beg leave of absence from his duties in order to make a long tour in the east, Thorold answered: "Dear Sir, I have no objection to your going to Jericho, 'Yours, A. W. R.'" Lord John Russell, too, knew how to write briefly and to the point. When the Dean of Hereford wrote a solemn epistle to Lord John, announcing that he and his colleagues would refuse to elect Dr. Hampden to the see, he received the startling reply: "Sir, I have had the honor to receive your letter of the 21st instant, in which you intimate your intention of violating the law."—London Chronicle.

GO RIGHT AT IT Friends and Neighbors in Norwich Will Show You a Way.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it. But won't cure it if the kidneys are weak.

You must reach the root of it—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it. Reach the cause; attack the pain.

Are recommended by many Norwich people. E. C. Roath, 5 Thames Street, Norwich, Conn., says: "For a number of years I have used Doan's Kidney Pills when having severe pains in my back and other symptoms of kidney trouble, and they have always rid me of my trouble. I procured this remedy at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, and since using it I have felt better and stronger in every way."

If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Roath had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
