BAKING OF THREE COUNTS

Indecent Assault on Leah Barracough and Simple Assault Against the Two Boys in Mystic—He Stoutly Affirmed His Innocence of Charges—Jury Deliberated an Hour and Three Quarters—Sentence Not Pronounced Thursday.

It took the jury in the superior criminal court here on Thursday an hour and a quarter to deliberate over the testimony and arguments in the case of the state against Alfred Baker, who they are holding guilty of the guilt of three of the four counts in the complaint against him.

On the second count, the state has charged upon Helen Roscoe, the state had presented no evidence, and Judge Shumway in his charge to the jury instructed them that they were to bring in a verdict of acquittal on this count, which they did.

All three counts upon which judgment was given had alleged indecent assault, but the state had presented no evidence, and Judge Shumway in his charge to the jury instructed them that they were to bring in a verdict of acquittal on this count, which they did.

The jury took the case at 10 o'clock and returned their verdict at 11:30 o'clock. The state had presented no evidence, and Judge Shumway in his charge to the jury instructed them that they were to bring in a verdict of acquittal on this count, which they did.

Most of the day Thursday was occupied by the defense, conducted by Attorney Herbert W. Rathbun. The first witness called by the defense was Dr. William H. Gray, a practicing physician in the village of Mystic, who testified that he had known Baker for many years and that he had never seen Baker in the village of Mystic since he had been in the village of Mystic.

The state's attorney, Mr. Williams, admitted that all he knew of the Barracough girl was that she was the daughter of Leah Barracough, who was a relative of Baker by marriage.

Captain R. H. Wilcox's Testimony. Capt. Rowland H. Wilcox of Mystic, employed by the Wilcox Fertilizer Co., said that he had known Baker a long time and that the accused had always been a good citizen.

Edward G. Cameron, George W. Wilcox and Douglas A. Douglas all testified in the same strain as the preceding witnesses regarding the relative reputation of Baker and the Barracough girl. Douglas is Baker's landlord, it developed.

After Rathbun had finished with the character witnesses, he put on Helen Roscoe, 10 years old, who testified that she had known Baker for many years and that she had never seen Baker in the village of Mystic since he had been in the village of Mystic.

The Roscoe girl said she used to live in Derby with her mother. She testified simply to the fact that she was summoned to Norwich for the trial by the police to testify, and then was not put on.

Mrs. Baker on the Stand. The new witness called by Mary Baker, wife of the accused, Mrs. Baker, testified that she had known Baker for many years and that she had never seen Baker in the village of Mystic since he had been in the village of Mystic.

BIG PHILADELPHIA CHURCH CALLS REV. P. C. WRIGHT. Gethsemane Baptist, Second Largest in the City, Invites Norwich Pastor.

(Special to the Bulletin.) Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 8.—The Rev. P. C. Wright, pastor of the Gethsemane Baptist church of Norwich, Conn., received the unanimous call last night of the Philadelphia Baptist church, the largest and the second wealthiest Baptist church in the city.

Official notice of the call had not reached the Central Baptist church's pastor on Thursday before he left for the city after receiving the call. By next April, Mr. Wright will complete eleven years in the pastorate of the church here, and he has already received the call to Philadelphia, such a decision would be received by the members of the church with a sense of the loss that would be theirs in the severance of the pastoral relations.

Charles H. Brown, 80 years old, died Thursday at the Norwich hospital. Mr. Brown, a Lydard farmer, had been sick a year. He is survived by a widow and one son.

Time Extended for Auto Numbers. The secretary of state finds it necessary to make a further extension of ten days in the time allowed for the sale of 1913 motor vehicle markers on account of inability to deliver all of them by the tenth of this month.

Did Not Hear Locomotive. Samuel J. Harrington of New London, a freight brakeman on the New York and New Haven railroad, was killed at East Great Plain, a most unusual occurrence for this line of road.

In the trial of the case, which involved the erection of a structure which one side called a fence and the other a building, it was claimed that it was erected out of spite between property of the principals, who are residents on Hedge avenue, East Side, living at No. 30 and No. 32, respectively.

Winings were also filed in state of Connecticut vs. Nellie M. Vain of Preston, in which notice has been given of appeal from the court's decision in favor of the plaintiff. The suit is brought for an account of the sum of $257.78 interest on a trust fund of $1000.00.

Turners from eastern Connecticut, including delegation from Rockville, will attend the state convention of Active Turners in Meriden at Turan Hall Saturday evening and Sunday.

ROLL CALL AT SECOND CHURCH MEETING.

Responses Made to Names of Resident and Non-Resident Members—Officers Elected.

There were about 150 members present at the annual meeting of the Second Congregational church, held at the church on Thursday evening. A session marked by the transaction of much business.

The business session opened at 7:30 with the pastor, Rev. H. J. Wyckoff, presiding. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Clerk Henry D. Johnson and approved.

J. Wyckoff.

23 Years on Charities Committee. Mrs. Lucy W. Lucas, for 23 years a member of the church charities committee, tendered her resignation, and in recognition of her faithful services during this period, Rev. H. J. Wyckoff, in behalf of the church presented her a handsome bouquet. She has served on the committee with suitable expressions of appreciation.

The roll call and non-resident members was called, and beside the responses from those present there were many letters read out of town members which were read.

Reports from Societies. The following society reports were read and accepted: Home Missionary Society, Miss E. R. Huntington; Apollonia Women's Board of Missions, report of Miss L. D. Hawland read; report of Arthur L. Pease read by John H. Sherman; Home department, report of superintendent, Miss H. J. Wyckoff, read by John H. Sherman; Church improvement society, Mrs. Henry D.
