Walsh of New London, conservator for Mary Jane Gallipo of Montville, is endeavoring to regain possession of real estate and bank books which the conservator alleges that Mary Jane Gallipo made over to her daughter, Julia Sawyer of New London. It is charged that the mother, who is now in an insane asylum, induced the daughter to sign over real estate in Montville and a bank book to her in the past twenty years.

ANOTHER CHANCE TO LOCATE INDUSTRY HERE.
Western Manufacturing Concern Wants to Move—New York Brokers Prepose Plan.
Another manufacturing proposition for the consideration of Norwich men has been received from J. Clifford Moore of New York city. The firm being a broker in manufacturing and mercantile properties. Mr. Moore has been in Norwich with President Quimby of the American Thermos bottle company. Mr. Moore's proposition is similar to that of the Thermos company, and for that reason will probably be taken up by the people of Norwich which are scarcely prepared at this time to raise another large sum, it is believed. Mr. Moore's letter says: "Would you like to have locate in your community a manufacturing concern which has enjoyed a steady growth of business since its inception in 1890? They have outgrown their present plant, which is located in the middle west. Most of their business is now done in and around New York city, where their main office is located. They must move and are desirous of locating in the east. This is your opportunity."

SUSPICION OF POISONING.
WAS DISPROVED.
Autopsy on Body of Five Year Old Rosa E. Langevin of Ledyard—Coroner Still Investigating.

Coroner Frank H. Brown has been investigating for a week some suspicious circumstances in connection with the death Sunday, Jan. 5, of Rosa E. Langevin, five year old daughter of the youngest of the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Langevin, of Ledyard.

Shortly after finishing her breakfast she and another sister, some two years older, were suddenly attacked by violent pains and convulsions. Dr. McVey, who was called, found the child dead. The little one had passed away before he arrived. The children were treated by the physician and soon recovered.

The coroner was pointed towards police officers that Coroner Brown and Dr. McVey were notified, and with Dr. McVey, performed an autopsy on the child's body to determine if possible the exact cause of the girl's death. Monday evening Coroner Brown stated that no poison had been found in any of the organs examined and he was satisfied that the child had not been poisoned, but he was investigating other circumstances in the case, and had not yet rendered a verdict as to the cause of death.

Besides her parents, the little girl is survived by two sisters, Martha, aged 11, Alice, aged 7, and a brother, Ralph, of 9 years.

State Attorney Hull Has Received No Offers of Confessions.
The superior court, criminal side, will convene again today here. State's Attorney Hull said Monday that he has heard some of the men accused in the Mystic indecency charges were to plead guilty but that none had offered any confession yet to him. He said that a new jury will be empanelled for the trial of the remainder of the Mystic cases.

Major Hull also said that it was reported that another of the men implicated in the scandal had gone away. Inquiry in Mystic elicited the information that the man in question had been seen only an hour before.

After passing several months at her home on Sentry Hill, Mrs. Thomas Hardaway went Monday to Brooklyn, N. Y., where she will spend the remainder of the winter.

KILLED HIS BRIDE OF SEVEN MONTHS.
Romance of Foreign Trip Culminates in Double Tragedy.
San Francisco, Jan. 13.—Donald Jadin, son of a wealthy Brooklyn family, shot and killed his wife, Minna Van Bergen Jadin, well known in society here, as she sat at dinner with other members of the family tonight. He then shot himself, dying two hours later.

They had been married seven months and until a short time ago had been leaders in the smart circles in which Mrs. Jadin's family held high place. She was 19 years old and her husband six years older.

Both couples thought the young couple lived with Mrs. John Sauros, the wealthy grandmother of Mrs. Jadin, in Pacific avenue. According to members of the family, the bride and her quarrelled ten days ago and the young husband left the house in a rage.

Tonight, when all the family, including the young wife's grandmother, aunt and brother, were at dinner, Jadin came into the dining room, apparently happy and ready for reconciliation. He approached his wife smiling, kissed her tenderly and in a flash whipped out two pistols and shot her.

The wedding of the dashing Miss Van Bergen and young Jadin was one of the leading society events of the city last year. The happy couple met in the summer of 1911 while crossing the Atlantic and became engaged during a summer abroad.

Recipe that Breaks a Cold in a Day and Cures Any Curable Cough.
"From your druggist get half ounce of Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated) and two ounces of Glycerine. Take these two ingredients home and put them in a bottle with a tight stopper. Shake well and use in doses of one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal and at bedtime. Smaller doses to children according to age. But be sure to get only the genuine Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated) and Glycerine. This formula comes from a reliable doctor and is certain. This was first published here six years ago and has since been copied by many imitators. It has been in constant use and successful results are shown by the Globe Pharmaceutical Laboratories of Chicago.
