GRANGERS WANT TAX REFORMS

Legislative Committee Urged to Work to That End—State Convention Endorses Tax Commissioner. Corbin's Recommendation—Mayor Mahan Gave Delegates Welcome to New London.

Shortly after opening the third day's session of the Connecticut Patrons of Husbandry Thursday at New London, the State grange was declared at rest, while Mayor-Congressman Bryan F. Mahan was ushered to the speaker's platform.

The mayor, who is not a granger, but who hopes to be some day, according to his own statement, was privileged to witness installation ceremonies. Afterwards he addressed the delegates and at 12:30 gave a dinner at the Crocker house to officers of the State grange.

Mayor Mahan has been busier than usual since the State grange opened and deplored his inability to formally welcome the grangers Tuesday night. So many of them wanted him to come to the convention that he put aside other matters and went to Lawrence Hall.

seer Charles T. Davis of Middletown, who were elected Wednesday to fill vacancies, were installed. Worthing High Priest of Demeter Gaunt installed the officers, assisted by Mrs. Hubert Brackett of North Haven, acting as lady assistant steward.

The State grange was opened again in the fourth degree and the reports of committees were taken up. Recess was taken at 12:30 for dinner and the resumption of unfinished business began at 2 o'clock.

Taxation Committee's Report. The most important action taken by the State grange in Thursday's session was the adoption of the report of the recess committee on taxation.

The report commended the attitude of Tax Commissioner Corbin, who declares the tax laws do not have sufficient scope in that they make it possible to tax only property in sight of the law.

It recommends the appointment of a state official co-operating with local boards, to fix values; the doing away with the state tax as soon as sufficient income may be derived from property not now accessible to local assessment units; the adoption of an annual franchise or corporate excess tax on all domestic corporations not paying direct tax.

An amendment to public acts, limiting land for forest purposes entitled to tax exemption to that of a value less than 100 acres.

A specific provision for the taxation of the property of private water supply companies and gas companies.

H. C. Dunham of Middletown reported for the Patrons' Mutual Fire insurance. His report showed that the institution was in flourishing condition. It had taken sixty new risks in the year, bringing the number up to between 500 and 600.

The convention closed in the afternoon. The gathering was beneficial to the grangers, for they discussed matters in which they were interested in the way of business and attended to their duties as grangers with earnestness.

The degree work of the grange was conducted excellently by all who witnessed the impressive ceremony. The addresses were among the most interesting and instructive the grange has ever provided.

Officers installed. Directly after the opening of the session Master Sherwood and Overseer Charles T. Davis of Middletown, who were elected Wednesday to fill vacancies, were installed.

WANTS TO GET BABY BY THE PARCEL POST. Georgia Resident Writes for Directions as to Wrapping It.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The mailing of babies by parcel post is a real fact, and the Postmaster General Hitchcock is asked to foster.

In the circumstances of his bachelorhood, Mr. Hitchcock is considering seriously the calling in of consultation of experts in the transportation of babies as a letter which he received today presents to him a mail problem with which he is quite unfamiliar.

STATE SENATORS ON A GENERAL TICKET. Governor Baldwin Advocates His Inaugural Recommendation.

Canaan, Conn., Jan. 16.—Speaking tonight before the annual dinner of the Canaan business men's association, Governor Simeon E. Baldwin strongly urged the election of United States senators by the people. He also spoke at some length in a plea for the election of state senators according to the plan recommended by him in his recent message to the legislature.

From 1629 to 1928 the people of the whole state chose senators on a general ticket, all the electors voting for senators on a general ticket, all the electors voting for senators just as they did for governor. That mode plan. It also gave the people, as a whole, the control of one house, while the towns, as such, had control of the other.

"Now, I say, let us go back to the old plan, providing for fair representation for minorities."
