BREED THEATER.

At Napoleon's Command, Gorgeous, Historical Two- reel Feature.

The story revealed by the marvelous two-reel A. Napoleon's "Napoleon at Waterloo" is a grand and spectacular incident in the career of the great Napoleon, and the lives of two brilliant officers and a woman beloved by each. One of the officers gains the love of the woman, but forgets her in his pursuit of glory, and she marries another and just as successful, cherishes her as his sweetheart, and is as constant as her husband. These two men discover their relations to the same woman on the eve of the great battle when Napoleon's legions are marshaled against the British. The fact is imminent, and this fact is brought to the attention of the great general, who appears in person and puts a stop to the affair of honor, permitting the two officers to head their respective troops in the great contest. The battle scenes here are marvellous, and the historical accuracy, and the scenes at the palace of Fontainebleau are brilliant in their gorgeous array of courtly elegance. The picture was made entirely in France, and hence has the correct atmosphere, and proper natural scenery. It will remain at the Grand for Monday and Tuesday only, and will be accompanied by three other strikingly successful feature films.

Three Exceptional Acts and Feature Films at Auditorium Today.

For a good, all round show, the Auditorium the first three days has three acts that are away above par. On Monday and Tuesday, there is only one act of its kind in the world. The specialty consists of soap bubble juggling, now being done by a man who has heard of an act of this kind. This is his act's first week in the smaller houses, and they are just breaking the trip from New York to Boston, where they are booked at B. E. Keith's big house. Under and Webb will hold the comedy spot on the bill, they are two burlesque ladies who have a clever character and talking specialty that is different to any other. A good laughing hit.

The Great Marro is a wonder. When you consider the fact that he is the possessor of only one leg, and yet is able to perform the most difficult acrobatic stunts, barrel jumping and dancing. A two reel photoplay adaptation of Dion Boucicault's drama, "The Long Stride," by the Imp Co., will head the photoplay program. The program feature of this film is the 100 foot dive from the top of an ocean liner by Herbert Brenon, the director of this company.

CURED VERY SORE RASH ON BABY'S EAR

Scratched Until It Bled Then Turned into Scabs. Mother Washed It with Cuticura Soap and Applied Cuticura Ointment. In Three Weeks He Was as Well as Ever.

74 Blackstone St., Worcester, Mass.—"First a red rash came on baby's ear and it was very itchy. He would scratch it until it would bleed and then it would turn into scabs, and get very sore. He was very cross. I got some ointment, but that made it worse and made him cry. I bought Cuticura Soap and Ointment and washed baby with the Cuticura Soap; then put the Cuticura Ointment on. I was surprised to see him getting better after a few treatments and I kept on using them. At the end of three weeks he was perfectly cured. Now he has a beautiful clear skin and has had no trouble since."

"When I saw how it cured baby I made my husband try it on a rash he had on his leg, which was very sore. After using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment six times it disappeared for good." (Signed) Mrs. John D. Dixon, Nov. 19, 1912.

For treating poor complexion, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, Cuticura Soap and Ointment have been the world's favorite for more than a generation. Sold everywhere. Liberal sample sent free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address: "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."
