AT DAVIS THEATER.

Myrtle-Harder Company in Two Productions.

At the Davis theater Monday evening the big audience was delighted with "The Barrier," from a novel by Rex Beach, presented by the Myrtle-Harder company, and the programme was punctuated with frequent bursts of applause. A character which made an especially strong impression was Dorot, the French trapper, in the person of Thomas E. Dewey. Jack Bertrand, as the leading man in the character of Captain Burrill, U. S. A., and Emma Myrtle made a hit in her role of the heroine, Miss Edith Pell appeared as Dan Stark, the villain about whom all the difficulties centered. Charles F. Ward gave an understanding version of John Gale, Stark's life enemy. Other minor parts were all well cast.

The play is filled with highly dramatic moments, one thrill following another in rapid succession. The audience as a whole was more than pleased at the offering of the company.

In the afternoon the play presented was A Bachelor's Romance, and in this the company showed its entire capability in a somewhat different line from the drama of the evening. The comedian and setting are bright and new leading parts as well as the minor ones capably taken, and the company bids fair to enjoy a week of big houses.

Arthur Towson and Ronald DeMuth, and William L. H. Graham, grammar school, New London, who are spending part of their vacation in Preston City, made the trip on their wheels Saturday and Sunday, and returned to Norwich, 45 miles, in an hour and 15 minutes.

Everybody
Is Talking About
The New Styles

By JOHN P. FALLON

Spring fashion exhibits are now in full swing at Norwich's leading stores. The new things are irresistible. Everyone is captivated with the new suits, the new gowns and the new hats which is only natural, for the NEW THINGS for spring have never been so beautiful in color and contrast, so becoming or so alluring to feminine hearts.

The beauty and attractiveness of the stores give the brilliant displays of new merchandise a charming atmosphere.
Everywhere the light-hearted and jocular spirit of Easter week is apparent.

To be well informed regarding the approved styles, the know about the new things the moment they arrive, to keep posted on the store news of Norwich's most reliable merchant, you should read the advertising columns in THE BULLE-TIN closely and constantly every day. This splendid habit will enable you to purchase the best and most up-to-date things for your new things for spring to best advantage and keep your clothes in the special merchandise that will be offered.

One of Mallet's swings was provided for the army orchestra, won't Drew and T. Kelly were in the box office, Policeman Charles Smith took the tickets and John Donovan and Joseph Lathrop distributed the programme.

SOCIETY'S EASTERN DANCE BALL

Brilliant Social Event at the Army Opened the Post Lenten

Season of Gaiety—Big Drill Shed Beautifully Decorated in Lavender and White—Concert Programme Preceded the Dancing.

In accordance with a custom which has been theirs for years, St. Joseph's Social and Literary association opened the post Lenten season of gaiety with their annual ball, which was given at the Army on Monday evening.

Decorated with notable attractiveness in the color scheme of lavender and white, the big drill shed made an inviting spot for the pleasures of the evening, and the merry crowd of dancers enjoyed to the almost the programme of 18 numbers, for which the Cadillac orchestra under the direction of James E. Drew rendered the latest music in a way that was an irresistible invitation for all to mingle in the movements of the dance.
