

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

SALEM

Special Observance of Easter—Social Dance Given by the Grange.

Rev. T. A. Williams conducted the Easter service in the Congregational church Sunday morning. He took for his text Mark 16: 3-4. He also had charge of the Y. P. S. C. E. service in the evening substituting for Mrs. Herbert Houston.

Mrs. William Robinson and Miss Ruth Murray are spending the week at the home of Mrs. Robinson in Yantic.

Richard Tibbatts visited relatives in Yantic recently.

Mrs. Charles Gordon and sons, Milton and Chester, of Montville visited relatives in town Sunday and attended morning service at the Congregational church.

Mrs. J. Manwaring and daughter, Dr. J. J. Manwaring, of Norwich were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Douglas.

T. Hunt Steery and his oldest daughter, Miss Ora Steery, are spending a few days at their cottage in town.

Lawrence Beebe, a student of N. F. A. is spending his vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Beebe.

J. Frank Rogers and daughter, Miss Jennie Rogers, also Carl Rogers and family spent Saturday of last week in Norwich.

Mrs. E. J. Standish and daughter, Sydney of Montville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Day Tuesday.

Mrs. William R. Kingsley spent the greater part of the week at the home of her brother, Warren Rogers, of North Lyme.

Miss Ethel Maynard of North Lyme visited during the week at the home of her brother, William H. Maynard.

Miss Josephine Hart is spending the Easter recess at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Hart, in Uxbridge.

Mrs. James Lane is passing the week at her former home in New London.

Henry Darling is spending two weeks' vacation at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Darling.

At Summer Home. Prof. Hiram Bingham of Yale university, his wife and two sons, with guests from New Haven, spent the fore part of the week at their summer home on Woodbridge Hill.

Charles Miner is passing his vacation with relatives in Norwich.

Misses Fluvia and Florence Miner of Millington were recent visitors at the home of their brother, Sherwood Miner.

Mrs. Rose Ray, Miss Kittle Ray and Clyde Ray attended the prize speaking contest in Grange hall, Colchester, last Wednesday evening.

Miss Eva M. Standish is spending the Easter holidays at the home of her parents in Westchester.

Grange Gives Dance. A social dance was held in Grange hall under the auspices of the local grange last Thursday evening. An excellent supper was served during the evening.

Miss Susan Miner is spending the Easter recess with relatives in Millington and East Haddam.

Donald Mitchell of New London was a Woodbridge Farms Monday.

SHUNOC

Rev. John M. Collins delivered a fine Easter sermon Sunday morning in the Second Baptist church. A Sunday school concert followed the preaching service. The programme was excellently rendered by the pupils under the supervision of the superintendent, Mrs. Herman C. Brown, the principal speakers being Katherine W. Wheeler, A. E. James, Fanny C. Merrill, Ida B. James, Edith Thompson, R. B. Wheeler, J. Anna Merrill, Morris Bromley and several others. The singing proved an important feature. Miss Nellie Vincent was organist.

Preached Elsewhere. Rev. J. M. Collins conducted an Easter service Sunday afternoon at White Rock, Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Collins spoke the large congregation at Clarkville.

E. B. Wheeler was in Willimantic Monday and in Boston Wednesday.

Work is being pushed on the new residence of Nathaniel B. Maine.

George W. Miner is seriously ill.

Miss Flora York is a visitor among relatives in New York.

Peepfrogs are here—a harbinger of spring.

Captain and Mrs. Andrew P. Culver of Stone Hill were recent guests of Nathaniel Culver and family.

Dr. A. S. Maine of Killingly was a caller in the place Wednesday.

Richard Thompson and sister, Mrs. Elizabeth, of New Haven, were in town Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Samuel Thompson.

Occum and Versailles. Easter Observed at M. E. Church—Hose Company Opens Series of Fairs.

Easter at the Versailles M. E. church Rev. Charles Smith delivered a helpful Easter sermon and a large congregation attended excellent music. Potted plants used in church decorations came from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gregory.

At Occum hall Tuesday evening the Toteoket Hose company held its opening night of a series of fairs. A number being present. Excellent music was furnished for dancing by a Taftville orchestra. The hall was decorated under the direction of a committee, Messrs Colburn, Hill, Phillips, Privie. The colors were red, white and blue. A large booth at one end of the hall, prettily decorated, was used for a sale counter. Here were William Kinder, Mrs. William H. Mitchell and Mrs. Wilfred Smith. Mrs. Josephine Lamarie and Miss Lily Lamarie presided. The soda counter was cared for by Messrs. Hill, Frohnmeyer and Mossey.

Mrs. C. J. Senzaman and daughter, Miss Edith Senzaman, have been guests during the week of friends in Boston.

OAKDALE

Observance of Festival of the Resurrection—Horse Runs Away, Injuring Owner.

Rev. C. L. French, pastor of the Congregational church, preached Sunday an excellent Easter sermon. The text was Life and Immortality Beyond the Grave, Job 14: 14, II Cor. 5.

The C. J. meeting was conducted by Mrs. French. Topic, Vital Living the Lesson of Easter, II Cor. 4: 8-18.

Numbers from this place attended service at Christ Episcopal church in Norwich Sunday.

Frank R. Chapel of Rockville was a caller at the home of his brother, William D. Chapel, one day last week.

Edward M. Curtin, who has been employed at the garage of A. C. Swan in Norwich the past year, has recently entered the employ of P. S. Palmer as chauffeur.

E. H. Rogers, while driving a new horse near Paul Giasbrenner's one day last week, was thrown out and severely bruised about the face and rendered nearly unconscious for a few minutes. The horse ran away. Herbert Dupitt, who was with Mr. Rogers, was also thrown out but escaped injury. It is supposed the horse became frightened either at a gunshot or with which was in operation at Mr. Giasbrenner's or at some other object.

GLASGO

Mills Closed for Holiday—Mrs. Harriet Eccleston's Death—Surprise for Home-Comers.

Mrs. J. T. Wilbur spent last Friday and Saturday in Willimantic. The Glasgow mills were closed Friday and Saturday of last week.

Peter Selway, Jr., left last week Monday for Alberta, Canada.

Funeral of Mrs. Eccleston. The many friends of Mrs. Harriet Eccleston were saddened to hear of her death last Saturday morning at 10:30 a. m. The funeral services were held at her home Monday, 11:30 a. m. Rev. John Thompson officiated. A quartette from Jewett sang three selections. Burial was in Litching cemetery.

Miss Mabel Blanchard is visiting relatives in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Young were guests of relatives in Westley Tuesday.

School in the Eighth district commenced the spring term Monday.

J. G. Bill was a week end guest of friends on Pendleton Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Burton spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burton.

Surprise for Daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Luther arranged a pleasant surprise for their daughters Saturday evening on their home-coming from Connecticut. Music by a quartette of young people who spent the evening in games, music, singing and a social hour. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Luther.

Rev. J. Thompson gave his people a fine Easter message Sunday morning. In the evening he held services at Voluntown.

Miss Mary Edgecomb was a week end guest of friends in Ashwille.

Arthur Billings of Natick, R. I. was in town Saturday looking after the interests of his farm.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Miss Dorothy Loomis of Lebanon is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Warner.

Master Bernard Crandall, who underwent an operation at the Backus hospital recently, is recovering steadily.

Mrs. J. C. Mahoney and daughter spent Thursday and Friday with friends in Norwich from New London.

Fred H. Race, Jr., has returned to his studies in New York after spending the Easter vacation with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crandall and daughter Alma of South Windham were Sunday guests at Theodora Crandall's.

Henry Shippee is at the home of his parents in Woodstock for a week vacation.

Miss Dorothy Cox entertained her cousin, Miss Cummings, of Willimantic, for several days the past week.

Friends were grieved to learn of the death of Stephen Parker, although confined to the house for years, he was always of a happy, genial disposition and will be greatly missed by many friends.

MOHEGAN

A good number attended the Easter exercises at the church Sunday, including visitors from New London, Norwich and Quaker Hill.

Mrs. Denison Davis of Mystic and Mrs. Mary of South Norwalk were guests of Miss Hunter Sunday.

Mrs. Harris of Norwich attended church in this place Sunday.

Harrell Fielding of New London called on Mohegan friends Sunday.

Clara, wife of George of New London was at the home of Mrs. Fowler early in the week.

G. R. Saunders has been visiting friends in Mohegan.

Mr. Brainard of Norwich attended church here Sunday.

Windham County

WOODSTOCK

Social Well Attended—Public Rhetoricals at Academy—Honor Essay to Edmund G. E. Anderson.

Mrs. W. J. Lindeman was in New London over Easter.

Mrs. F. E. Rockwell sang two solos at the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Judge C. H. Child has returned from a visit in Lancaster, Mass., and Nashua, N. H.

Mrs. Clarence W. Taber recently entertained her father, Mr. Chamberlain, of Bennington, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Ritch have been visiting in New York City.

The social at the home of Henry T. Child Monday evening was well attended.

Miss Edith H. Hall of Philadelphia spent Sunday at E. R. Hall's.

Missionary Lecture. Rev. R. Kendall is to give another missionary stereopticon lecture in the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Academy Rhetoricals. The Public Rhetoricals given by the students of Woodstock academy took place at the academy hall Friday evening.

The following program was carried out: Orchestra; Coronation of the King; Great Britain and America, Newman Hall, Arthur A. Anderson; choral; Gualberta's Victory, Eleanor C. Donnelly; Olive A. Johnson; The Shadow of the Blind, Amy, Ruth E. Williams; orchestra; Three Days in the Life of Columbus, Delavigne, Ruth E. Bjorn.

Little Maude, Charles B. Maude and Agnes C. White; girls' chorus, Lovely Night, J. H. Richardson; When Maude Inglew, Grace Hawkins; When Maude Lindy, Paul Lawrence Dunbar; Hermann Hagedorn, Eleanor M. Keith; Etiquette, W. S. Gilbert; Raymond R. Benson; girls' chorus, The Skylark; Burton, Dixie, in Memoriam; Toussaint L'Ouverture, Wendell Phillips; Willa K. Jerome; Katie N. Lyon; orchestra; The Loper, N. P. Willis; Eleanor A. Johnson; Shamus O'Brien; Joseph Sheridan; Frank, Donald A. Collins; The Law of Service, Lyman Abbott; Edmund G. E. Anderson; The Rajput, Currier; Minstrel Boy, arranged by Baife.

Honor Essay. Miss Nettie Z. Phillips, a teacher at Putnam, was at William Saunders' recently.

Miss Roydon has been confined to the house the past week by illness.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

School in district No. 9 closed Friday for ten days vacation.

Miss Marjorie Hammond who is attending Westboro High school, is spending her vacation at her home here.

Miss Alice Alderman is visiting in Westboro.

Miss Beryl Beckwith is visiting her parents in New London.

Miss Eva Johnson of Myrtle has been visiting Mrs. E. L. Chamberlain.

Mrs. Arthur Aldredge has been ill the past week.

WESTMINSTER

Minister from New York to Preach As Candidate Sunday.

Charles Koch is spending the week end with his family here.

Miss Helen Koch is entertaining her cousin from New Rochelle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Merrill have returned to their work in New York. Master Arthur Merrill went with them to spend the Easter vacation.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Raymond Sheldon is home for his Easter vacation.

Many friends of C. S. Sheldon gathered at his home on his birthday last Saturday and presented him a rocking chair.

Putnam lodge attended the burial service of their brother, N. E. Gilmore of Putnam.

HELLO, NORWICH!

—This is TOM—Tom Murray, the Tailor, 10 Broadway—Can you drop in to see me for a few minutes today—I want to show you why "TOM" is the talk of the town—Yes, you will be interested, and bear in mind please, that you won't have to spend a penny when you get here.—All it will cost you is a few minutes of your time—Goodby—See you today.

JUST TO GET ACQUAINTED

$5.00 PAIR OF MADE TO MEASURE PANTS ABSOLUTELY TO EVERY CUSTOMER ORDERING A SUIT OR TOPCOAT

FREE

Suit or Topcoat To Order

$15.00

Made to measure, any style. Fit, materials and satisfaction guaranteed in every detail, or a new suit free.

"TOM" MURRAY, TAILOR

10 Broadway

THE TAILOR WHO MAKES GOOD CLOTHES AT LOW PRICES

Open Evenings

ATTAWAUGAN

Ye Little Old Folks' Concert at M. E. Church—Mill Changes.

Margaret Caffery was baptized at the M. E. church Sunday and received on probation.

There was a pleasing entertainment, Ye Little Old Folks' Concert given at the M. E. church Wednesday evening by the young people of the place. All took their parts well.

School closed in District No. 3 Emerson and family of Northbridge, Mass., over Good Friday.

A young child of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Anderson is ill with pneumonia.

Shubal Watson has gone into the carding room as second hand, George Brown of Balauxville being boss at present.

Miss Edith Frissell entertained Miss Minnie Bigelow of Westfield and another friend from Moodus over Easter.

Phil Caffrey is detained from work on account of illness.

Easter Concert. There was an Easter concert at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Olin, Mrs. Amelia Loftish and Oliver Tatro spent Easter at Woonsocket.

A. E. Gay has put two steel ceilings in two of his tenements.

THOMPSON

The funeral of Mrs. Elvira Farr was held at her residence Monday at 1:30.

Miss Annie Dunning, teacher at Deer Cliff Manor on the Hudson, is at her home here.

Clinton Lewis is moving into the tenement recently occupied by Henry Draper. Mr. Draper will move upstairs with his sister.

John Mills was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Myrtle Kingsbury, who was in town with friends last Sunday.

Bernice Armstrong is home with her mother for several days.

Miss Sarah Crosby of Northampton is at her father's, Judge Crosby's, home.

WESTMINSTER

Minister from New York to Preach As Candidate Sunday.

Charles Koch is spending the week end with his family here.

Miss Helen Koch is entertaining her cousin from New Rochelle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Merrill have returned to their work in New York. Master Arthur Merrill went with them to spend the Easter vacation.

John Crofts of Hanover preached a very interesting Easter sermon at the Westminister Congregational church. The church was prettily decorated with plants and cut flowers.

Candidate to Preach

Rev. G. W. Meyer of New York is to preach as candidate at the Westminister church Sunday.

Howard Valley school is closed, as the late Dr. Charles M. Knighi, the teacher, Miss Ethel M. Riley, is ill with pneumonia. She was taken to St. Joseph's hospital Monday.

HOWARD VALLEY

Patients Taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

EASTFORD

Methodist Pastor to Start for Conference Monday—Wedding Guests.

SOUTH CANTERBURY

Malcolm Wiberly of New Haven is spending a week's vacation with his father, Samuel Wiberly.

CANTERBURY PLAIN

Master Charles Perkins is spending his Easter vacation with his aunt Miss Mrs. Dewey.

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. B. S. Upham spent a few days last week with Worcester friends.

PLAINFIELD

Mrs. William H. Devoive and son Henry visited over Easter with their uncle, Elias L. Barber of Canaanville, N. H.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Two chimney fires caused commotion Monday during the terrible windstorm.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Robinson visited over Easter with their daughter, Mrs. Ada Brown, over Sunday.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Earl Gallup entertained quite a company Saturday evening at his home near Sterling Hill. Rumor says he is going west.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Mr. Maxwell Reynolds spent Tuesday in Danvers.

CHIMNEY FIRES

George Paine of Woonsocket visited his father over Sunday.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lyon and their niece, Miss Grace Lawton, were in Southbridge Wednesday to attend the wedding of Miss Lawton's brother, Benjamin Lawton.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Miss Blanche Perry has been improving her vacation by visiting the different schools.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Rev. Frank Chamberlain will leave here Monday to attend the N. E. Southern conference to be held in New Bedford. Mrs. Chamberlain will accompany him as far as Providence, where she will spend the week with friends. The church will be closed on Conference Sunday, April 6.

CHIMNEY FIRES

At Southbridge Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lyon and their niece, Miss Grace Lawton, were in Southbridge Wednesday to attend the wedding of Miss Lawton's brother, Benjamin Lawton.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Miss Blanche Perry has been improving her vacation by visiting the different schools.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Rev. J. M. Collins conducted an Easter service Sunday afternoon at White Rock, Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Collins spoke the large congregation at Clarkville.

CHIMNEY FIRES

E. B. Wheeler was in Willimantic Monday and in Boston Wednesday.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Work is being pushed on the new residence of Nathaniel B. Maine.

CHIMNEY FIRES

George W. Miner is seriously ill.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Miss Flora York is a visitor among relatives in New York.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Peepfrogs are here—a harbinger of spring.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Captain and Mrs. Andrew P. Culver of Stone Hill were recent guests of Nathaniel Culver and family.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Dr. A. S. Maine of Killingly was a caller in the place Wednesday.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Richard Thompson and sister, Mrs. Elizabeth, of New Haven, were in town Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Samuel Thompson.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Occum and Versailles. Easter Observed at M. E. Church—Hose Company Opens Series of Fairs.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Easter at the Versailles M. E. church Rev. Charles Smith delivered a helpful Easter sermon and a large congregation attended excellent music. Potted plants used in church decorations came from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gregory.

CHIMNEY FIRES

At Occum hall Tuesday evening the Toteoket Hose company held its opening night of a series of fairs. A number being present. Excellent music was furnished for dancing by a Taftville orchestra. The hall was decorated under the direction of a committee, Messrs Colburn, Hill, Phillips, Privie. The colors were red, white and blue. A large booth at one end of the hall, prettily decorated, was used for a sale counter. Here were William Kinder, Mrs. William H. Mitchell and Mrs. Wilfred Smith. Mrs. Josephine Lamarie and Miss Lily Lamarie presided. The soda counter was cared for by Messrs. Hill, Frohnmeyer and Mossey.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Mrs. C. J. Senzaman and daughter, Miss Edith Senzaman, have been guests during the week of friends in Boston.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Missionary Lecture. Rev. R. Kendall is to give another missionary stereopticon lecture in the Congregational church Sunday morning.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Academy Rhetoricals. The Public Rhetoricals given by the students of Woodstock academy took place at the academy hall Friday evening.

CHIMNEY FIRES

The following program was carried out: Orchestra; Coronation of the King; Great Britain and America, Newman Hall, Arthur A. Anderson; choral; Gualberta's Victory, Eleanor C. Donnelly; Olive A. Johnson; The Shadow of the Blind, Amy, Ruth E. Williams; orchestra; Three Days in the Life of Columbus, Delavigne, Ruth E. Bjorn.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Little Maude, Charles B. Maude and Agnes C. White; girls' chorus, Lovely Night, J. H. Richardson; When Maude Inglew, Grace Hawkins; When Maude Lindy, Paul Lawrence Dunbar; Hermann Hagedorn, Eleanor M. Keith; Etiquette, W. S. Gilbert; Raymond R. Benson; girls' chorus, The Skylark; Burton, Dixie, in Memoriam; Toussaint L'Ouverture, Wendell Phillips; Willa K. Jerome; Katie N. Lyon; orchestra; The Loper, N. P. Willis; Eleanor A. Johnson; Shamus O'Brien; Joseph Sheridan; Frank, Donald A. Collins; The Law of Service, Lyman Abbott; Edmund G. E. Anderson; The Rajput, Currier; Minstrel Boy, arranged by Baife.

CHIMNEY FIRES

Honor Essay. Miss Nettie Z. Phillips