

STRAWBERRIES

- Asparagus, 20c; Pineapples, 10c; Apples, 10c; Peas, 10c; String Beans, 10c; Cukes, 10c; Celery, 10c; Squash, 10c; Egg Plant, 10c; New Potatoes, 10c; Oyster Plant, 10c; Beans, 10c; Carrots, 10c; Sweet Corn, 10c; Peppers, 10c; Lettuce, 10c; Udo, 10c; Mushrooms, 10c; Bermuda Onions, 10c; Cauliflower, 10c.

One Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, April 18, 1913.

SOMERS

Rubber Stamps

ALL STYLES at SHORT NOTICE and LOWEST PRICES CRANSTON & CO.

Wedding Rings

of the make we sell, the best make there is, will wear well, look well and be a satisfaction to you as long as you live.

The Plant-Cadden Co.

CORRECT SOUR STOMACH

Nearly every stomach disorder begins with acidity and may be immediately relieved by one teaspoonful Magnesia Compound after eating.

AS USUAL A LARGE VARIETY OF ALL KINDS OF Fresh Fish

The Public Fish Market

40 Franklin Street P. S. - At Reduced Prices

MISS M. C. ADLES

Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist

A TONED-UP SCALP may mean hair health, so that artificial hair will not be necessary.

TO BE GIVEN AWAY FOR THE WEEK OF APRIL 14th A NEW HAT

at the Palace Pool and Billiard Parlors, 49 Main Street

Gentlemen: This is the time to order your Spring and Summer Shirts.

CUSTOM-MADE SHIRTS are one of the features of our business.

We guarantee you a perfect fitting shirt from exceptional material and patterns.

The Toggery Shop

291 Main St., Norwich, Ct.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

The rain has given everything a good start for Arbor day.

There has been a good sale of Vines and shrubs for planting today.

Norwegians about the state are preparing to observe the national holiday, May 17.

New telephone directories, in covers of spring green, are being distributed.

Don't forget your water bills this week. Additions to all bills after the 20th—adv.

Bridgeport papers state that Norwich Eagles will be at the big parade and field day.

Good weather Thursday encouraged considerable work with rake, hoe and broom in advance of clean-up week.

Best $3.50 eyeglasses properly fitted for $1.85. Burnham, 227 Main street—Adv.

Over 25,000,000 fish eggs and fry were distributed by the United States fish commission last year in Connecticut.

The Third company, C. A. C. N. G., enlisted two recruits at its regular drill Thursday evening in the armory.

Mrs. M. R. Hoppes has arrived at Fishers Island for the season to look after her interests at the Monoton Inn and cottages.

Special workers are being notified that the 40th national conference of Charities and Child Welfare Societies will be held at Seattle, Wash., July 3 to 12.

License your dog in the town clerk's office now. One dollar extra after May 1st—adv.

Mrs. Albert W. Avery of Quaker Hill has returned to Xenia, Ohio, a box packed by the local Quaker Sunshine society for the food sufferers.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lizzie C. Scott were held at Niantic Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, Rev. H. A. Fuller, formerly of Norwich, officiating.

At the meeting of the Fifth company, C. A. C., last Tuesday evening at the armory one recruit was enlisted. There was guard duty and artillery drill.

Special effort is being made this year to secure good writing in the schools, and some excellent specimens of cursive penmanship have been sent to Supt. E. J. Graham's office.

Don't forget your water bills this week. Additions to all bills after the 20th—adv.

Local dentists attending Psi Omega chapter in Waterbury Wednesday included S. R. Chamberlain, W. W. Leonard, T. A. Crowley, Psi Omega is a national dental fraternity.

The 13th annual convention of the Connecticut Congress of Mothers for Children was held at the Congregational church at Rocky Hill on Thursday and Friday, April 24 and 25, at the Hotel Hartford.

The wonderful Kinecolor pictures will be shown at the Auditorium starting Monday, April 22.

E. C. Eaton, 1912, of Storrs, is now head poultryman of the Wilkassia farm at Franklin, Mass. The farm is owned by W. K. Wood, and is specializing in Rhode Island Reds as the utility fowl.

At the New England conference of Swedish churches at New Britain Wednesday Rev. L. Lindvall of North Grosvenordale, spoke on "The Position of the Lutheran Church with Reference to Present Day Religious Unity."

Today the tax collector will be at the office of George M. Rathbone, West Side, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—Adv.

At the recent Carnation night of the Connecticut Horticultural society held in Hartford Mrs. Fraser exhibited four seedling carnations raised in the greenhouses of the state college at Storrs and received a certificate of merit for each.

Survivors are at Tolland making survey for the cut and fill in for the state road that is being constructed between Stafford Springs and Willington. This road touches on four towns—Stafford, Ellington, Tolland and Willington.

For the coming Y. M. C. A. gathering at New Haven April 30th invitations have been sent out from the state office at New Haven to church and Sunday school workers and young people's societies in addition to the Y. M. C. A. of the state.

The twenty-third annual reunion of the Connecticut Association of Women Workers was held in Derby Tuesday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the club, and the members of the six clubs in the league all were represented except Norwich.

At this time of year some of the sheep are brought from the middle farm at Fishers Island and allowed to graze in the fields at New Britain. The dogs have gotten in the habit of chasing them. Thus far seven sheep have been killed and wool scattered all over the lots.

The commissioners of fish and game have appointed seven inspectors for the year, who will enter upon their duties May 1. With two exceptions, the men are reappointments. Max Jones of Lyme succeeds David P. Huntley, and J. A. Goddard of Windsor succeeds John H. Ramsey.

The postoffice department is sending out warnings again about the endless chain prayer. The authorities say the sending of such a prayer through the mails is a violation of the postal laws, and that the persons guilty of such an act make themselves amenable to prosecution.

Arbor day in the schools is to be marked by a visit from members of the City Beautiful committee detailed from the work at New Britain, in conjunction with the hope of interesting all pupils in an effort to keep home and school beautiful. The teachers in general free from litter and dirt.

One hundred and fifty-three members responded to the roll of the Connecticut division of the Grand Army of the Republic, called Tuesday evening by Adjutant A. A. May at the meeting of Merriam post, Meriden. Many of the posts throughout the state were represented.

It looks as though the town of Hanover was to furnish the next mayor of Norwich. The town of Hanover is in honor of District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, Wednesday evening, when the town clerk, J. C. May, at the town meeting would make a good mayor, the cheering lasted twenty minutes.

The seventy-five members of Holy Cross College Alumni association have met at the Hotel Hartford for the banquet of the association will be held at the Elton, Waterbury, on April 22. Rev. John C. Murray, chancellor of the Roman Catholic diocese of Hartford will be toastmaster.

PERSONAL

Rev. A. F. Earnshaw of Mystic was a visitor in Norwich Tuesday.

Willis Rogers of Asylum street is recovering from a serious illness.

Mrs. G. Herbert Rich of New London is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Lavalie.

Mrs. John R. McDonald of East Lyme was the guest of friends in Norwich.

Mrs. Manuel Foster has returned to New London after two weeks' visit to relatives in South Coventry.

Selectmen E. D. Caulkins, George Griswold and Griswold Perkins of Old Lyme were in Norwich this week.

Mrs. Walter H. Woodworth of Norwich has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Robertson of Quaker Hill.

Miss Ruth E. Kind of this city is to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. J. Dowdell, 23 Belden court, New London.

Warren Hotchkiss of Laurel Hill and his sister, Miss Florence E. Hotchkiss of New London, have been spending a few days in Norwich.

The many friends of Mrs. William H. Dowsett of Whitaker avenue will be pleased to learn of her steady improvement in health after a illness since Thanksgiving.

Miss Annie Greenwood, Miss Lena Dandurand and Nelson Greenwood have returned from their trip attending the wedding of their cousin, Oliver Greenwood, in New London.

George Hill of Norwich has been engaged for the season to work in the fishermen's island livery barn. He has been there every season for a number of years, and at one time was in charge of the baggage for the hotels and cottages.

OBITUARY

Thomas Morrison.

Following a serious illness of about a week, Thomas Morrison, in his home, No. 259 Bay street, Springfield, Wednesday, Mr. Morrison suffered a fatal stroke of paralysis.

He was born in Barnet, Vt., Feb. 9, 1837, the son of John and Elizabeth (Barber) Morrison, both natives of Vermont. His parents came to this country in 1832 and soon after his birth they moved to this state. Mr. Morrison's education was brief and at the age of 11 years he was sent to work in a mill.

He worked in various mills and factories in Connecticut and Massachusetts for some time, and spent four years learning the brass finishe trade in this city and when the Civil war broke out he entered the 10th Connecticut Infantry.

After a residence of about four years on Springfield road near Enfield he removed to Springfield, where he was married three times, his first wife being Frances Cox, daughter of John and Mary Cox of this city.

Among those whom there was one son, George N. Morrison, who at present is in Pawtucket, he later united in marriage with Miss Mary J. Robinson, daughter of William and Julia A. Robinson, also of this city. Three children of that union are now living—Mrs. Charles W. Perkins of this city, Mrs. Joseph Leete of Hartford, and George T. Morrison of Florida.

Following the death of his second wife he was again married, his bride being the late Mrs. George W. Gager on Franklin street at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and services were conducted by Rev. David E. Brown. The bearers were Charles Wiedewald, Herman Bradley, Edward Losander, John Gardner, and Mrs. J. W. J. Gardner.

Burial was in Maplewood cemetery, where a committal service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Brown.

Mr. Morrison was of a quiet disposition and was devoted to his home and family. He had many friends, many of whom he was held in high esteem and his loss will be deeply felt by all who knew him.

Burglars at Dawley's.

When officers arrived at the office of H. P. Dawley, 100 State street, this morning it was found that the office had been broken into during the night, and the safe had been opened.

The safe was found unlocked and the marauders had opened the inside cash box, in which were some $100 in cash. The burglars were seen to enter the office by a man in a dark coat.

Forest fire wardens will have little to fear for many weeks, the woods are so wet down by this month's rains.

138 YEARS AGO TODAY

One hundred and thirty-eight years ago today the first train was run in this city.

The famous ride that linked his name forever with the heroes of American Revolutionary history.

A lone man on horseback stirred up a whole countryside—"every Middlesex village and farm," as we are told.

If newspapers had been more generally distributed the Middlesex folks would have known all about the movements of the man on horseback.

There was a very large attendance at the funeral of Timothy Leary, Sr. which was held at St. John's church in Fitchville Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

A requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. David E. Donnell of Colchester, pastor of St. John's church. During the services soloists were rendered by Mrs. J. W. J. Gardner, Mrs. Charles Wiedewald, and Charles Wiedewald.

The Holy Name society of St. John's church, of which he was a member, attended, matching from the church, and a church in a body. The bearers were Joseph D. Pfeiffer, John J. Fields and John J. Swenney.

Members of the H. S. of Norwich and Jeremiah J. Sullivan, Lewis H. Bradley, and other members of the Holy Name society.

There were several handsome floral tributes, and a very nice arrangement of flowers from the Broken Chord, a standing harp from the Norwich Y. M. C. A., and a large wreath from the St. Joseph's Holy Name society.

Among the attendants were relatives from Brooklyn, Connecticut, New York, and other places. The remains were conveyed to St. Mary's cemetery at Greenfield, where services were held by Rev. J. W. J. Gardner, chaplain of Division No. 2, A. O. H.

Must Want to Start a War. Some Britislers certainly have it in for this country. One lawmaker wants to exile the military, being a lawless America.—Milwaukee News.

TWO RESERVOIRS FOR NORWICH

Norwich Water Situation Will Reach Unprecedented State Today—Stony Brook Reservoir Full and Fairview Expected to Fill to the Brim Today—City Will Then Have 838 Million Gallons of Water Behind It.

From the alarming water situation which faced this city in the middle of December 1910, Norwich will today reach the opposite end of the scale and by nightfall can be reposing in the consciousness that both its reservoirs are full to the brim and running over.

The heavy rain of Wednesday and Thursday night will send the water in the reservoirs up to the top of the dam and when Superintendent J. J. Corkery took the measurements on Thursday morning the water was found to be full to the brim.

At the present rate the water will be full to the brim some time this afternoon. For the first time then in its history the city will have two reservoirs full and running over while the auxiliary Meadow Brook and its tributaries will have a magnificent stream into Fairview.

There is 83 million gallons of water in Meadow Brook over the 24-inch pipe into Fairview and Superintendent Corkery said Thursday night that there was enough water to last for a week.

The rainfall Wednesday was 1.23 inches, and the water in the reservoirs is now at the top of the dam.

ARSON CHARGE MADE AGAINST JACOB SLOSBERG

Norwich Man Arrested on Warrant from Jersey City.

Jacob Slosberg was arrested here Thursday evening between 9 and 10 o'clock by Policeman Charles Smith of the local force and Detective Bennett from the district attorney's office in Jersey City.

The detective came here on a warrant for the arrest on the charge of arson. He had been in the grain business in Hudson county and his place was destroyed by fire.

Mr. Slosberg has been a resident of this city for several months. He has resided with his family since coming here at No. 11 Elm street. He was arrested on Thursday evening when he came to the door in response to the call of the officers. He was taken to police headquarters and locked up.

Since coming here Mr. Slosberg has purchased a house on Elm street and has been looking upon as a respected citizen.

SUIT IS BROUGHT AGAINST STONINGTON BARBER

By Customer Who Claims He Contracted Barber's Itch.

Claiming $1,500 damages, Joseph Benjamin Adams of Stonington has brought a suit against Jacob Slosberg, a barber of Stonington, by papers filed with the clerk of the superior court.

Mr. Adams claims that on December 1, 1912, he was shaved in Slosberg's barber shop, and there he contracted an itchy skin disease. A bank account of the defendant's in the name of Adams was found in London and another of $351.25 in the Mariners Savings bank have been attached to other accounts have been garnished.

FUNERALS

Albert Mehrholz.

The funeral of Albert Mehrholz was held at the home of the deceased, 100 State street, at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and services were conducted by Rev. David E. Brown.

The bearers were Charles Wiedewald, Herman Bradley, Edward Losander, John Gardner, and Mrs. J. W. J. Gardner.

Burial was in Maplewood cemetery, where a committal service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Brown.

Josephine Quillo.

The funeral of Josephine Quillo, infant daughter of Mrs. J. W. J. Gardner, was held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Mary's cemetery.

The child was in the hospital for three weeks with scarlet fever, but had been a year. Three sisters, two brothers and a father survive.

The remains were accompanied here by his sister, Mrs. Gardner, and her husband.

The funeral of Mrs. Ella D. Greenleaf was held from the parlors of Undertaker Gager on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. H. Dennis, assisted by Revs. E. A. Carroll and R. J. Harris, officiating.

Mrs. Mary Hutchinson, Charles Hall, Harrison Grayson and Professor George rendered "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "The Green Hills of Switzerland and Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." The bearers were Charles Hall, Harrison Grayson, and Professor George.

Burial was in Maplewood cemetery, where a committal service was read at the grave by Rev. Mr. Dennis.

Simon H. Stevenson.

Tuesday evening the body of Simon H. Stevenson, who died at Waltham, Mass., arrived in this city on the 115 train, and burial was in Maplewood cemetery Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The remains were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stevenson, parents of the deceased. Mr. Stevenson was a former resident of Hill street, this city. Undertaker Gager had charge of the arrangement.

Timothy Leary, Sr.

There was a very large attendance at the funeral of Timothy Leary, Sr. which was held at St. John's church in Fitchville Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

A requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. David E. Donnell of Colchester, pastor of St. John's church. During the services soloists were rendered by Mrs. J. W. J. Gardner, Mrs. Charles Wiedewald, and Charles Wiedewald.

The Holy Name society of St. John's church, of which he was a member, attended, matching from the church, and a church in a body. The bearers were Joseph D. Pfeiffer, John J. Fields and John J. Swenney.

Members of the H. S. of Norwich and Jeremiah J. Sullivan, Lewis H. Bradley, and other members of the Holy Name society.

There were several handsome floral tributes, and a very nice arrangement of flowers from the Broken Chord, a standing harp from the Norwich Y. M. C. A., and a large wreath from the St. Joseph's Holy Name society.

Among the attendants were relatives from Brooklyn, Connecticut, New York, and other places. The remains were conveyed to St. Mary's cemetery at Greenfield, where services were held by Rev. J. W. J. Gardner, chaplain of Division No. 2, A. O. H.

Must Want to Start a War. Some Britislers certainly have it in for this country. One lawmaker wants to exile the military, being a lawless America.—Milwaukee News.

WORKING TO STRAIGHTEN OUT BANK CONDITIONS

National Bank Examiner in Charge at the First—Assurances About the Trust Co.

Thursday was a busy day at both the First National bank and at the Thames Loan & Trust company in getting the bank affairs straightened out.

At the First National bank, National Bank Examiner in Charge at the First, Mr. H. H. was at work with his assistant, S. J. McKean, Thursday evening. Mr. H. H. said that he was not in a position to make any statement about the bank's affairs, but that he was proceeding as fast as possible to make up a report which would be forwarded to the comptroller at Washington.

He was desirous of having all depositors bring in their pass-books to be written up as that would greatly facilitate making up his report.

President Franklin S. Jerome of the bank arrived during Thursday evening from New York and spent part of the evening at the bank. When asked if he had any statement to make, he said that there was nothing to report on the situation at present.

At the Thames Loan and Trust company the directors were met this morning and those desiring to settle loans or make payments of interest were allowed to do so as far as a banking business was concerned there was none. No bank deposits of their money were being received or any money paid out.

At the bank Officer John Donovan, a supernumerary policeman, occupied a position inside the door to maintain order, but there was no disturbance. Customers and others who wished to enter the bank did so and any questions asked were answered by the bank officials.

Bank Commissioner F. P. Holt worked on an inventory of the assets and liabilities of the bank after 10 o'clock. He was thoroughly satisfied the depositors would receive every dollar of their money. Although the scaling of assets caused by having to dispose of some securities at market value, rather than at face value, was a source of some concern, the bank's assets were ample protection for the depositors.

The restraining order was obtained in order to conserve the interest of the bank. The state banking department had been established, he said, that no trust company should be allowed to do business until it had failed to pay its depositors in full. The first move of the bank examiners will be to secure an exact statement of the assets and liabilities of the bank at the present time. As soon as this is obtained the examiners will supervise the conversion of the assets into cash, and it is probable that, when the restraining order expires, a new order will be issued, which will allow the depositors to be paid in full as far as possible at the time, and resume business. The company holds a large amount of some of its other assets, quoted at $25,000 would not bring anywhere near the amount in an open market. Mr. Holt says there are still enough assets to pay the depositors in full, but he is not optimistic, he said that the company probably would be able to keep its charter, through a reorganization.

Regarding the security for savings depositors in the trust company, State Bank Commissioner Norris S. Lippitt stated during the day that the savings depositors were secured by special investments under provisions of the law of 1907, which required savings banks to invest in state legal securities. The law required that all trust companies with savings departments to invest in state legal securities, and that the state officials approve of, and nothing else. These depositors should feel no uneasiness, he said, and he could not see why every one of the savings depositors should not receive every cent of their deposits. The trust companies were given five years at the time of the passage of the law in 1907 to change their securities over to state legal securities. One-fifth of their securities was changed over each year, and in October last year the trust company had to show all state legal securities.

In the commercial department of the Thames Loan and Trust company the depositors are secured by the capital surplus and undivided profits, which amount to $100,000 capital stock, $50,000 surplus, and $16,875 undivided profits, less current expenses, and taxes paid. The general deposits in this department amount to $22,000.

The restraining order will remain in force until the next meeting of the trustees, which may not be for some time. No plans for reopening the bank business have been made, and a meeting will all waive the legality of the matter. Treasurer Robert W. Perkins is chairman of the bank and will continue in charge.

GOVERNMENT COMES TO FISHERMEN'S AID.

Norwich Received Some of 25,000,000 Fish Eggs and Fingering Sent to State.

Of the 25,000,000 fish eggs and fry distributed by the United States fish commission last year in Connecticut, 500,000 were sent to Norwich.

The 2,000,000 eggs were sent to Haddam, and 500,000 each of pike fry and trout fry were sent to Haddam, and 500,000 each of pike fry and trout fry were sent to Haddam, and 500,000 each of pike fry and trout fry were sent to Haddam.

There was a large distribution to individuals also. Five million yellow perch eggs went to the state, 100,000 to Deep River, and 100,000 to West Lake, Danbury; Lake Peacock, East Hampton and Taunton pond, Newton. The distributions of brood trout by the federal authorities last year included 25,000 eggs to Westport from 400 to 500 fingerlings each to Burton, Cleland, Moore and Washneck brooks, Lakeville; Mill river, Mt. Carmel; Jack's brook, Roxbury; Mitchell pond, Tarrytown; Lead Mine creek, Pine Cobble brook, and West Branch, Thomaston, and Hancock brook, Waterville; and from 5,000 to 30,000 fry each to Bridgeport, Five Mile river; Canaan, Blackberry brook, Congamog, Morris, Hampton, Dickinson creek; East Haddam, Eight Mile river, Roaring brook, Granby, Bissell's brook; Greenwich, Bryan river, Newbury, Burton brook; Leonard's Bridge, Pease brook; Manchester, Roaring brook; New Canaan, Mill river, Norwich, Broad brook, Chopt brook; Portland, Hurlbrook; Waterbury; Hop brook, Mad river; Whiton, Comstock brook.

NORWICH IS RIVAL OF NEW HAVEN.

For Next Convention of State Total Abstinence Society.

At a meeting of the state officers and county directors of the Connecticut Total Abstinence society at Bristol it was decided to hold the annual field day for the T. A. S. on Thursday, May 1st, at the T. A. S. building in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry between New Haven and Norwich, the decision was put over until Monday of next week, when a meeting will be held in New Haven.

The question of the next meeting place for the annual convention came up, but as there was strong rivalry