Patriotic Instructor Potter's Annual Report—Thirteenth Company May Have Evening Parade—Funeral of Mrs. Melvin E. Fisher—Exhibit of Curios.

At the state encampment of the G. A. R. in New Haven, Tuesday, the annual report of C. A. Potter, patriotic instructor for Connecticut, was read. In it he said:

I have received reports from thirty-two (32) post patriotic instructors and good work has been done in carrying out the order of the department commander. Memorial day, Flag day and Washington's birthday have been observed in some way by every post in this department.

I have received letters from post patriotic instructors occasionally as to what their duties are. In answer I will say: "From my point of view it is expected that you improve every opportunity to instruct the young; to visit the schools and remind the men who lived in the time of war of those trying times through which they passed; that they, although old in years, are still young in love, gratitude and loyalty to a great country which they helped to save."

School Flags.

The laws of Connecticut require that school boards or selectmen provide a flag for every school room under their jurisdiction, and a proper place in which to keep it. I am sure that nearly every school is thus provided, yet there are cases where the matter has been neglected. If a patriotic instructor finds that one or more of his neighboring schools is without a flag, he should wisely call the attention of the board to the law. This is, in fact, the duty of every comrade.

Keep in Touch with the Schools.

No class of persons are more fully in sympathy with us in our patriotic desires than our teachers, especially those below the high school. We would better visit them every time they present patriotic programs, not necessarily for the sake of talking in school, but to thank them and listen to their exercises. He who undertakes to talk much in school has need of pretty good judgment. It is at all times in order, however, to encourage both teachers and pupils in their work. They will always be glad of good words from their bronze-buttoned visitors.

Has Spoken Twenty-three Times. I have, since the last encampment, had the privilege of speaking upon patriotic subjects twenty-three times. I believe that every one of us should be an active and lively patriotic instructor. Living examples of patriotic citizenship, not only telling our boys and girls what they ought to be and do, but showing them how.

Heard and Seen.

Clothesline Thieves Active.

From lines in the rear of the home of Phyllis Blanchette on Franklin street sneak thieves stole a quantity of men's underwear during the early hours of Tuesday morning.

Flags Should Fly Friday.

Colonel C. A. Potter, patriotic instructor for the G. A. R., has made the request that as many homes as possible display the national colors Memorial day that Danielson's patriotic spirit be fully manifested. The putting into effect of the Business Men's association plan for closing on holidays will mean more general closing in Danielson on Memorial day than has been the rule. Business will be practically suspended after 9 a. m.

but many of the stores will not open at all. Rev. Denton J. Nelly and Mrs. Nelly, of Gloucester, Mass., have reached Danielson, where they are to remain for several weeks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Pierce at the Senaw Rocks farm on the Green Hollow road. Rev. Mr. Nelly was formerly pastor of the Baptist church here.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the Young People's course of entertainments for next fall has decided upon a list of five numbers: four musical and one lecture number, these to be supplied by the same lyceum bureau that arranged the course given last fall and winter.

St. Jean Baptiste Memorial Sunday. A meeting of Union St. John Baptist was held Tuesday evening and arrangements perfected for the annual memorial exercises for the deceased members of the order, to be held next Sunday. The fraternity will meet at St. James' cemetery, escorted by St. James' band, where services will be held and the graves of the dead members will be decorated.

New Boston Express. There are to be no changes in the leaving time of passenger trains out of Danielson under the new summer time schedule that becomes effective on Sunday, but Danielson people will be interested in the putting on of a new express train on the Midland division, giving a morning express service to Boston. Danielson people who want to get this train may do so by taking the 9.10 a. m. trolley for Putnam, where the express is scheduled to leave at 10.14, arriving in Boston before noon.

Wedding Party Photographed. Procession of a half dozen Polish couples, led by a bride and groom, married at St. James' church Tuesday morning, was of interest to people in the business section when the party came up town to have wedding photographs made at a Main street studio. The bride wore her wedding gown and veil.

Interested in New Law. What is recreative sport as defined in the Sunday bill and how much additional liberty to amuse ourselves are we to have under it? is about the sense of many questions asked by young men in Danielson Tuesday, when they learned that Governor Baldwin had signed the Gross bill. Danielson, a borough, has no park commissioners, just a park committee of the court of magistrates, but even the young men who would like to play baseball on Sunday do not want to play on Davis park, and it is a certain fact that no one else wants them to do so. And so to the privilege of having Sunday concerts, this borough is not worrying much, considering that no concerts are arranged for week days. On the whole the new Sunday law will make little difference to Danielson, probably none at all.

Evening Parade Talked Of. It is possible that the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., will have what is known as an evening parade on Davis park Memorial day, after the exercises are concluded. This pretty and inspiring function includes the lowering of the colors, and when seen here a few years ago was commented on as a very fitting spectacle for marking the close of the Memorial day exercises. Whether the evening parade will be held will probably be decided today.

Audience Pleased. The Paolo Crestani, players and Lulu Hedges, Indian singer and cartoonist, played to another appreciative audience at the Orpheum theater Tuesday evening.

Valuable Curios. A. P. Woodworth has placed upon exhibition a collection of old firearms, muskets, etc., from the collection of Walter Kies, Broad street, who for many years has been interested in antiquities and who has secured a notable and very valuable collection, many of the pieces having an interesting history.

Democrats Sure Mann Will be Judge—Republicans Claim Fuller's Reappointment—Elks' Initiation and Social—Worcester Student and Nurse Elope and Are Married in Putnam.

New interest has been injected into the contest, if such it may be termed, for the appointment as judge of the city court of Putnam. Democratic leaders of the party, were claiming here Tuesday that the judiciary committee's favorable report on the resolution naming Alderman J. Harry Mann, democrat, for the judgeship, means that he is now assured of the appointment, this claim being based on an alleged agreement between republican and democratic leaders in the legislature not to contest a favorable report which comes in from a committee backed by unanimous support. If that be true, and the house passes the resolution when it is taken from the calendar, Alderman Mann is sure of the support of the democratic senate.

Republicans were positive in their assertion Tuesday, however, that the fight against the Mann resolution and the unanimous report of the committee on the judiciary would be made in the house, where Mayor MacDonald is a republican member. They realize that they are facing considerable of a handicap as the situation is now shaped, but will attempt to secure the reappointment of the present incumbent Judge L. H. Fuller. Should the effort to secure the endorsement of the house succeed for Judge Fuller and the senate stands by Alderman Mann the appointment and any disagreeing action, will go over until the first of the year, when Governor Baldwin would make it.

The democrats feel that they have much the better of the situation at the present time, however. Action on the Mann resolution by the house may be expected the latter part of this week if business moves along rapidly, as it is now doing as the end of the session draws near.

New Sunday Train. Putnam is to have a new Sunday train and a first-class express service to and from Boston beginning Sunday, when the new summer time schedule of the New Haven road goes into effect. The train referred to is to leave here for Boston at 10.16 a. m., reaching Boston at 11.40, only two stops being scheduled. Blackstone and Franklin. Returning the train is to leave Boston at 5.50 p. m., reaching Putnam at 7.14 p. m., making only two stops as indicated. This train is the same train that is to be put on for the week day service but it is to be run seven days a week. It is to have a parlor car and vestibuled coaches, being practically of the same make-up as the New York-Boston expresses that now run through Putnam. The train will run through from Waterbury on Sunday, as on week days, so will give accommodation to principal points along the route of the Midland division.

Few changes, hardly any, in fact, are made in the schedule that goes into effect Sunday from the one now in force. One change however, is in the train that leaves Boston for Putnam at the present time at 4.10 p. m. Beginning next Monday, this train is to leave Boston at 3.43 p. m., and will be due in Putnam at 5.53, instead of at 6.04, as at present this change getting it back to the old schedule in force until late in the winter.

ELKS' JOLLIFICATION. Visitors at Social Evening Following Initiation.

A number of candidates were received into membership in Putnam lodge of Elks at an initiatory and social session held in their home here Tuesday evening. Members of the lodge from Webster, Danielson, Pomfret and other places within the jurisdiction of the local body came here for the event. The vaudeville act from the Bradley theater, furnished entertainment after the degree work had been completed and a fine supper was served under the direction of members of the lodge.

Williamantic Visitors Coming by New Train. The adding of a new Sunday train will make it possible for a large delegation to come here from Williamantic for the big Holy Name societies demonstration planned for Sunday, June 8, and will increase the number in the parade considerably. Before it was learned that this train was to be added only a small delegation was expected from Williamantic on account of poor transportation arrangements for Sunday.

News From All Points. A number of the members of Putnam grange have made arrangements to attend the special session of Quinebaug Pomona grange, No. 2, to be held with Echo grange at Mansfield Center Saturday.

Only routine business was transacted at the meeting of the selectmen of Putnam this week, bills being paid etc. It is not expected that there will be any state road building in Putnam by the town with state aid this year.

A marriage at North Grovesdale Monday was that of Victorine Deslaurier and Alfred Barrette, the ceremony taking place in St. Joseph's church, Rev. B. M. Donnelly officiating. George A. Lawrence of Fall River was a visitor with friends in Putnam Tuesday.

No one can be found here who knows of the Home Trust company, whose resolution for incorporation has been favorably reported in the legislature by the committee on banks. Student and Nurse Married. Relative to a recent marriage here a Worcester paper of Tuesday had the following: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Hopkins are at the home of the groom's father, Rev. W. L. Hopkins, pastor of the Baptist church in Fiskdale. They have received parental sanction for their marriage, which took place secretly, in Putnam, Conn., Wednesday.

The groom is a student at Clark college and the bride was Miss Ada Belle McKay, who was in the employ of Dr. John E. Willis, 5 Hawthorn street, close by.

The young people had been keeping company some months and intended to get married sometime. Last week they decided to have the wedding right away. So, to avoid publicity, they went to Putnam, Conn., and Rev. F. D. Sargent of Putnam did the rite.

Miss McKay has been in Worcester about six years. She worked with Dr. Carl Crisand four years. After his death she worked with Dr. Willis. She made her home with Mrs. Henry Clinton, 167 Chandler street.

The groom's father said last night: "The young people are here with us. We readily sanctioned their marriage. They will stay with us for the present. My son intends to finish his course at the college."
