ST. LOUIS AMERICANS
DRAFT THIRTY PLAYERS
 Cincinnati stands Second with Eleven from the Minors.

Cincinnati, Sept. 15.—One hundred and eight minor league players were elevated to the major leagues via the draft route here today when the American League obtained 87 players by draft while the National League annexed 41 minors at the drawing which was made before the National Baseball Commission.

The St. Louis American League club was by far the luckiest in the draw, obtaining thirty players, more than one fourth of the total number obtained by all major league teams; the Cincinnati team was second with eleven; the Chicago American came next with ten; Detroit with nine; Philadelphia Americans and the Boston Nationals had eight each; Brooklyn obtained seven; Boston American five; New York Nationals five; Chicago Nationals three; Cleveland and Pittsburgh and New York Americans got two each, while Washington and the St. Louis Nationals obtained one each.

Owing to a new National Commission rule, stipulating that the major club drawing for players from a minor league club must be selected by a lot before the player is, the names of the players to be obtained by the major clubs from class "A" and "AA" were not announced immediately and will not be officially announced until tomorrow.

However, quite a number of the players to be chosen were given out unofficially tonight, among them being:

By Detroit, Williams of Saginaw and Mains of Buffalo by Chicago Americans; both of Baltimore and Barber from Lincoln, Neb.; by New York Ameri, Cole from Columbus, Ohio; by Cleveland, Giddo from Chattanooga and Wood from San Francisco and Frankie of Toledo; Boston Nationals, Gilbert of Milwaukee, Deal of Providence, Martin of Rochester, Stock of Mobile and Krueger of St. Joe; New York Nationals, Johnson of Omaha.

The remainder of the teams who obtained players from class A and AA were not ready to give out their selections while Detroit had also not completed its list.

Among those drafted from minor leagues are: Boardman, Waterbury, to Philadelphia Americans; Duchemin, Prescott, Mason, to New York Nationals; Pepe of New Haven, to Chicago Americans; Ireland of New London, to Philadelphia Nationals; Nash of Washington, to St. Louis Nationals.

Fielding of Turner and Oldring Features—Senators Miss Opportunity to Close in on Cleveland—Harvard Candidates Report for First Practice—N. F. A. Squad Answers Coach Overbaugh's Call

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—Philadelphia and Cleveland played a see-saw game here today, the former winning, 8 to 6. The locals took the lead in the third inning by scoring four runs on a pass to E. Murphy, singles by Collins, Deane and Walsh and Barry's double. Cleveland came back by scoring six in the fourth. A pass to Chapman, singles by Jackson, Lejole and Johnson and Barry's double of Turner's bunt scored two runs and left the bases filled. Plank took Bush's place and Graney cleared the bases with a double. Graney scored on an out and Gregg's single.

Philadelphia tied the score in the fifth on Baker's being hit, his steal of second, Walsh's single and two wild pitches by Gregg. With the bases filled and one out in the seventh, Houck, who started to twirl in the fifth, was relieved. Bender went in and retired the next two batters without a run. with the 2:06 pace. In the second and final heat Directum made the last quarter mile in 29-1-4 seconds against a fast breeze and won in 2:03-4.

Marta Bellini, the favorite, was beaten in the 2:10 trot. The brown mare took the first heat and in the second she was leading in the stretch when she broke. Westerville Girl, driven by Andrews, passed her and then took the succeeding heats.

The 2:16 pace was rather monotonous. Andrews guided Newell to victory in the 2:03 trot. The gelding took the first heat cleverly from Derby Boy but in the second was pushed to the limit by Lady Grant. The time for this heat was 2:07-1-3 as compared with 2:03-4 for the first.

Four races are carded for tomorrow, including the 2:13 pace, for a $5,000 purse.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE STARTS AT HARVARD.
 Sixty-five Candidates Report to Coach Haughton for First Workout.

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 15.—Harvard opened the football season here this afternoon under most auspicious circumstances. Sixty-five candidates, including all the veterans and first string substitutes of last season's championship eleven, reported to Coach P. D. Haughton for the preliminary practice. The day was ideal, being clear, with just a hint of autumn snap in the air. Most of the time was devoted to passing the ball, a few dodging runs, punting and starting early season preliminaries. There was no attempt at a lineup or tackling practice.

One of the most encouraging features of the first day's practice was the excellent condition of the candidates. All the regulars have been training during vacation period according to a carefully prepared schedule and the result was apparent as the squad as the players appeared in the stadium.

Practice will continue with two sessions each day during the present week. The principal problem to be solved by Coach Haughton and Captain Storor is the finding of a quarterback to replace Harry Gardner, Eddie Mahan, captain of the 1912 freshman team, will be tried out in the position, but is expected to have considerable competition for the place.

THIRTY CANDIDATES AT BROWN.
 Providence, R. I., Sept. 15.—Nearly thirty candidates for the Brown University football team reported to Coach Edward N. Robinson and Don Fryer at Andrews Field today for their first practice.

Among the veterans in the squad were Captain Henry and Bean, backs; Mitchell, Cobb and Maxwell, linemen; Andrews, center; and Lathrop, quarterback in both the backfield and the line last season.
