COMING TO THE DAVIS.

Bunty Pulls the Strings.

The sale of seats for Bunty Pulls the Strings, which comes to the Davis theatre on Wednesday, Oct. 1, will open Monday at 10 a. m. It goes without saying that no play of the last decade has created the same interest among theatregoers as Bunty. Almost unheralded, it came to this country and immediately created a profound impression, so much so that Collier's theatre in New York was crowded to its utmost capacity for over 15 months. The secret of the play's greatness lies in the fact that it is so different from all plays that have gone before. It is all about a simple, charming girl in the Highlands of West Scotland and her love for the home Scotch wit and Scotch character.

AT THE DAVIS.

Way Down East Tonight.

There will be a reunion of old friends at the Davis theatre tonight when the old familiar personages of Way Down East come back to town. Ed Squire Bartlett will be there to bluster and roar and rant, and sweet Anna Moore will go out into the realistic snowstorm, and Bill Holter, when he has done the chores, will laugh himself into spasms reading his Pickin' from Puck, and Reba Whipple, the town comely, will relate that "It's all sound round with a woeless string," and the village choir will sing the old songs as they have been doing these many years, and the horses and cattle will munch peacefully in the barnyard as though Lemmy Sanderson, the villain double dyed, were not intent upon the crimes of a decade or more.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Maurice Costello Appearing in The Lonely Princess—Venetian.

A thoroughly novel picture story is on the feature page of the Colonial today, entitled The Lonely Princess, with Maurice Costello and Clara Young in the leading roles. An interesting feature of this picture is the fact that each and every scene was photographed in Venice, with Mr. Costello and Miss Young in their happiest vein.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Best Show This Season Today.

Without a question of a doubt the bill which will grace the boards at the Auditorium this afternoon and evening is the best show seen here this season. Margie's Making is a corker. It represents a stage upon a stage with toy scenery, toy performers, a toy orchestra which works and a toy audience which talks, applauds and acts in general like a real audience.

The other act on today's bill is the Four Musical Kings, who present a very neat offering of good music on brass instruments. One of the four is a very clever comedian and keeps the house roaring during the entire act.
