1873--OUR FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL FALL OPENING--1913

It Will Begin Today, September 27th

AND WILL CONTINUE TO AND INCLUDE SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4th

During Fall Opening Week we announce a complete showing in every department of the store, of all that is new and desirable in Fall and Winter Merchandise, representing the products of the best manufacturers, both at home and abroad. We have a particularly strong buying organization, which includes representatives in New York, Paris and Chemnitz—the leading markets of the world. This enables us to offer, at all times, goods that are—

Absolutely Dependable Correct In Style and Moderately Priced.

As an added inducement to visit our store during Fall Opening Days we will offer—

A REMARKABLE STRONG LIST OF SPECIAL VALUES

These offerings comprise only the newest and most staple kinds of Fall and Winter Merchandise, and have been selected from every department in the store.

REMEMBER OUR ANNUAL FALL OPENING WILL BEGIN TODAY, SEPTEMBER 27th, AND CONTINUE TO AND INCLUDE SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4th.

CLASSES ELECT OFFICERS AT STATE COLLEGE

A. J. Hill of Norwich Made Secretary of the Sophomores.

The Junior class at the Connecticut Agricultural College has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, E. G. Plimley, Winsted; Vice President, E. L. Geer, Hadlyme; Secretary and Treasurer, S. H. Horst, New York. The meeting of the meeting was to elect officers and discuss the annual freshman sophomore rope race across the race pond. It has been customary for the upper classes to make the rules governing the rope race and as there are no seniors this year the duties of shifting of the agricultural school to a college this year is taken care of by the acting governing committee was appointed to see that the rope race P. G. Plimley, Winsted; Alfred Knibbs, New York; H. E. Stevenson, Hartford; and Merrill Young, Danbury, New York.

The sophomore class elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Edward L. Newman, Winsted; Vice President, Mr. Shea, Waterbury; Secretary, Edward Olsen, New York; Treasurer, M. Jewett, Winsted. Another important feature of this meeting was the discussion of the freshman-sophomore rope race, which will take place September 28th. The freshman class is unusually large this year, about seventy-five students being enrolled. The entire class consists of about 150 without a senior class.

The first football game scheduled will occur at the college ground on Saturday, when the home team will face Berkeley high school of New London.

REPORTS MADE TO MISSION AUXILIARY

Miss Mary Gibbs and Miss Gertrude Allen Told of Two Conferences.

The Women's Board of Missions auxiliary of the First Congregational church held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the rooms over the Christian library and the greater part of the time was devoted to reports. The annual meeting held at the Broadway church in June as the fall meeting held last week at the Northampton reported on and Miss Mary Gibbs told of the Silver Bay conference this summer. Miss Gibbs was the delegate from Radcliffe college. Miss Gertrude Allen reported on the Northfield conference.

CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST

Handicap Match Play Arrangements Completed—The Pairings.

The arrangements for the championship handicap match play which will be conducted this fall were completed at a meeting Thursday by the greens committee of the Norwich Golf Club. J. Ralph Howe, chairman. The tournament will open today (Saturday) and will be played for the championship of the first round and a week for each succeeding round. There are 28 entrants in the tournament and the winner will receive a cup and there will probably be one for the runner up. This is the first time that a tournament of this nature has been held at the new grounds but indications are that it will be as successful as the previous years.

The pairings with the proper handicaps for match play are as follows: P. D. Armstrong (12) and G. E. Ely (24); J. D. Moulton (5) and E. L. Woodard (20); O. L. Johnson (14) and E. J. Cassidy (24); H. A. Tirrell (14) and C. L. Foster (12); R. E. Graham (22) and C. R. Curtis (20); J. C. Worth, Jr. (21) and Walter H. Woodworth (22); A. E. Chase (12) and B. Moore (15); E. H. Allen (27) and V. D. E. Wood (22); L. O. Smith (34) and W. L. Landon (20); J. Jones (10) and J. R. Howe (27); R. B. Sherman (32) and C. D. White (26); W. H. Almy (10) and L. E. Foster (12); W. Austin (3) and G. S. Palmer (24); W. L. Mitchell, 4th, (5) and R. C. Johnson (27) bye.

REACHES CONSTANTINOPLE

Yon of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gulliver at Robert College to Teach English.

The following from the Waterbury American is of interest to Norwich residents and those who have reached Constantinople, where he is to teach English for the next three years. He is a graduate of the University of Vermont and has spent some time in Europe and a pleasant sojourn in Constantinople, where he spent some time of his life. He is accompanied by Harold B. Deane, grandson of the late A. E. Abbott of this city, and another Yale classmate, Stephen Buck, who is to be an instructor at Beirut college. Two cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Gulliver, a number of friends are members of the American colony of teachers and their families at Beirut college, and it is thought there seems likely to be a very pleasant one.

Incidents in Society.

Mrs. William H. Fitch has returned to her home on East Town street after a trip to New Haven and New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Converse of Stillwater, Mich. are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Birge of Huntington place.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Tyler Brown, who have been touring the Adirondacks for two weeks, expect to arrive home today (Saturday).

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Carroll and their guests, Mrs. Adam Reid and Miss Osgood, have returned from a motor trip to New York.

Mrs. J. F. Sevin, Mrs. C. D. Sevin and Miss Ethel M. Sevin were guests of Mrs. T. E. Perry for the day at Crescent beach on Thursday.

After a summer at Brown's Beach Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Gulliver and children return today (Saturday) to Norwich and will occupy their new home on Huntington place.

W. H. Smith of Mystic visited recently with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Fitch. After a visit of two months with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Fitch, Mrs. Sarah B. Smith of Newburg, N. Y., has returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerard E. Jensen, who were guests of Dr. Jensen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jensen of Broad street, are pleasantly located in Ithaca, N. Y., where Dr. Jensen begins his work as instructor in English at Cornell university.

Our Sewing Machine Club opens a way to own a high-grade Sewing Machine in the easiest way imaginable. Pay $2.00 when the Machine is ordered, and it is immediately delivered to your home. Then $1.00 a week until paid for. We offer a choice of three Machines at these prices—

- The Shetucket at $16.98
- The Chelsea at $19.98
- The Rose at $23.98

REMEMBER—We deliver these Machines free anywhere in Connecticut—delivery to be made to the freight or express office nearest your home.
