

One Price To All NOT A LOW PRICE AND A HIGHER PRICE FOR SOMETHING BETTER BUT ONE LOW PRICE FOR THE BEST.

Friday and Saturday We saw many new faces last week; we want to see more this week.

- 28c Prime Rib Roast ... 25c
22c Rib Roast ... 18c
20c Pot Roast ... 18c
20c Shoulder Steak ... 17c
35c Sirlion ... 30c
40c Porterhouse Steak ... 32c
35c Fancy Lamb Chops ... 30c
35c Pekin Duck ... 28c
Roasting Chicken ... 29c
45c Boiled Ham ... 35c
16c Corned Beef ... 12c
8c Sardines, 4 for ... 25c
1-1/2 lb. Wilber Cocoa ... 10c
30c Coffee ... 25c
60c Black Tea ... 35c
10c Pan Wax, 3 for ... 25c
10c Chalmers Gelatine, 3 for ... 25c
10c Corn Starch, 3 for ... 24c
Cooking Apples ... 30c
Jello or Jellycon, 3 for ... 24c
20c Huylers' Chocolate ... 17c
New Turkish Figs ... 25c
Green Gage Plums ... 65c
35c Cheddar Cheese ... 28c

ALL QUALITY GOODS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY SOMERS

Best Melons of the year MR. H. T. MILLER'S School for Dancing

$10 buys a Waltham Watch in a 20-Year Gold-Filled Case Fully Guaranteed

Ferguson & Charbonneau FRANKLIN SQUARE

P. W. Latham & Co. Our apples are hand-picked and most carefully graded.

Canned Shrimp at RALLION'S

Pickling Onions Red Cabbage Green Tomatoes Pears, Etc.

People's Market 6 Franklin St. JUSTIN HOLDEN, Prop.

ORDER IT NOW Hopkins & Co's Light Dinner Plates per dozen.

Have You a Kodak? If so this will interest you.

LEROUX, The Progressive Druggist, Opp. Chelsea Bank 289 Main Street

One Bulletin Norwich, Saturday, Oct. 11, 1913.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Monday will be a holiday for the bank and the school.

Wet sidewalks and wet leaves made a slippery combination Friday.

The county Pomona grange is to meet with Colchester grange Oct. 16th.

The rainfall Thursday was .06 of an inch as measured by Inspector DeLaney.

Several guests from Norwich attended the Thomas-Curry wedding at the church Thursday evening.

At present Miss Gibson, matron of the county home, and her assistants are caring for 75 children, 43 girls and 32 boys.

Tomorrow (Sunday) evening, District Superintendent G. G. Scrivener of Norwich will preach at Vernon Methodist church.

Katherine G. Lambert, manufacturer of human hair goods at 116 Main street, is being told to close her business.

The public schools will be in session as usual Monday. The Free Academy is being closed. Monday has been designated as a cutting day.

The coming to Breakwater-on-the-Thames of so many families with children has necessitated the reopening of the Long Cove school building.

The papers announce that Miss Elizabeth Pulver of Norwich will speak at the Congregational church at Waukegan Sunday evening, October 12th.

The old ice house at Amston, formerly Turnerville, which was built a few years ago by the Providence Dairy Co. is being torn down and the lumber taken away.

Rev. T. M. Crowley of New London and Rev. E. M. Hayes of Jewett City will visit Bishop Nolan at the dedication of St. Joseph's cemetery this afternoon.

Connecticut women have been in attendance this week at the annual convention of the New England branch of the women's foreign missionary society at Malden, Mass.

The grange at Elkton recently had a novel entertainment called Sample night, when a fine collection of fruit of the month was brought in, tested—and tasted—by the members.

In the supplemental automobile register the motorcycle registrations number 2,909 and there are 331 dealers and 321 licensed drivers.

Agricultural societies in the western part of the state which have been holding fairs this week have had hard hits. The weather man provided three ideal days for Norwich fair this year.

A Plainfield correspondent writes: Rev. H. T. Johnson of Norwich will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

On Thursday, Mrs. Cynthia Allen, who is spending the winter with her son in the city, was remembered by many friends with cards, gifts and good wishes on her 81st birthday.

Charts for testing the eyes have been distributed to most of the schools in the city by the state board of education which followed and the teachers will complete the test.

Those from Norwich who are attending the convention of the Episcopal conference in New York, at the Hotel Waldorf, are Judge Gardner Greene, Archbishop J. Eldred Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Chapman.

In memory of Mrs. James Malone, an anniversary of the 25th birthday of her son, the Rev. J. H. Malone, pastor of St. Patrick's church in New York, will be celebrated Friday at 8 o'clock in St. Patrick's church by the pastor, Rev. John H. Malone, relatives, family friends and acquaintances attending the service.

Miss Virginia Hazard La Forge of Fishers Island and Lieutenant William Harry Weggenmann, C. A. C. U. S. A., are married in New York, at St. Thomas church, New York, Lieutenant and Mrs. Weggenmann will reside at Fort Wright, where the former is stationed.

FATHER MATHEW ANNIVERSARY Observed by St. Mary's T. A. B. Society—Mayor Murphy and Rev. M. P. Galvin Speak.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larkham of Canterbury were recent visitors in Norwich.

W. W. Gillette of Lebanon has been a guest of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Moore at Broad Brook.

Miss Leora Mitchell of this city has been elected a member of the advisory board of Wesleyan Junior class.

Miss Fannie C. Church, clerk of the probate court is spending a week in Springfield and the White Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carey and Miss Amanda Fisher of Norwich visited at St. A. Carey's in Central Village Friday—Missus Journal.

Ernest E. Frank of Yantic is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Frank in Elkton. Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Frank, also of Yantic, have been recent visitors there.

The friends of Mrs. George A. Turner will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from her recent illness at the Backus Hospital and will return home in a few days.

DESCRIBED PANAMA TRIP. Edwin A. Tracy Gave Instructive Talk at Norwich Town Church.

Friday evening in the chapel of the First Congregational church at Norwich Town Edwin A. Tracy held his interesting description of his trip to Panama.

At present Miss Gibson, matron of the county home, and her assistants are caring for 75 children, 43 girls and 32 boys.

Tomorrow (Sunday) evening, District Superintendent G. G. Scrivener of Norwich will preach at Vernon Methodist church.

Katherine G. Lambert, manufacturer of human hair goods at 116 Main street, is being told to close her business.

The public schools will be in session as usual Monday. The Free Academy is being closed. Monday has been designated as a cutting day.

The coming to Breakwater-on-the-Thames of so many families with children has necessitated the reopening of the Long Cove school building.

The papers announce that Miss Elizabeth Pulver of Norwich will speak at the Congregational church at Waukegan Sunday evening, October 12th.

The old ice house at Amston, formerly Turnerville, which was built a few years ago by the Providence Dairy Co. is being torn down and the lumber taken away.

Rev. T. M. Crowley of New London and Rev. E. M. Hayes of Jewett City will visit Bishop Nolan at the dedication of St. Joseph's cemetery this afternoon.

Connecticut women have been in attendance this week at the annual convention of the New England branch of the women's foreign missionary society at Malden, Mass.

The grange at Elkton recently had a novel entertainment called Sample night, when a fine collection of fruit of the month was brought in, tested—and tasted—by the members.

In the supplemental automobile register the motorcycle registrations number 2,909 and there are 331 dealers and 321 licensed drivers.

Agricultural societies in the western part of the state which have been holding fairs this week have had hard hits. The weather man provided three ideal days for Norwich fair this year.

A Plainfield correspondent writes: Rev. H. T. Johnson of Norwich will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

On Thursday, Mrs. Cynthia Allen, who is spending the winter with her son in the city, was remembered by many friends with cards, gifts and good wishes on her 81st birthday.

Charts for testing the eyes have been distributed to most of the schools in the city by the state board of education which followed and the teachers will complete the test.

Those from Norwich who are attending the convention of the Episcopal conference in New York, at the Hotel Waldorf, are Judge Gardner Greene, Archbishop J. Eldred Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Chapman.

In memory of Mrs. James Malone, an anniversary of the 25th birthday of her son, the Rev. J. H. Malone, pastor of St. Patrick's church in New York, will be celebrated Friday at 8 o'clock in St. Patrick's church by the pastor, Rev. John H. Malone, relatives, family friends and acquaintances attending the service.

Miss Virginia Hazard La Forge of Fishers Island and Lieutenant William Harry Weggenmann, C. A. C. U. S. A., are married in New York, at St. Thomas church, New York, Lieutenant and Mrs. Weggenmann will reside at Fort Wright, where the former is stationed.

FATHER MATHEW ANNIVERSARY Observed by St. Mary's T. A. B. Society—Mayor Murphy and Rev. M. P. Galvin Speak.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

SMALLPOX CASES

L. Treverre, Mill Hand, and Miss Barbara Cornet, School Teacher, Have the Disease—A Number of Others Suspected—Norwich and New London Health Officers Order Trolley Cars Not to Take on or Let Off Passengers in the Town.

Health Officer Morton E. Fox of Montville discovered two cases of smallpox in that town on Friday, and has a number of other cases under observation.

The friends of Mrs. George A. Turner will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from her recent illness at the Backus Hospital and will return home in a few days.

DESCRIBED PANAMA TRIP. Edwin A. Tracy Gave Instructive Talk at Norwich Town Church.

Friday evening in the chapel of the First Congregational church at Norwich Town Edwin A. Tracy held his interesting description of his trip to Panama.

At present Miss Gibson, matron of the county home, and her assistants are caring for 75 children, 43 girls and 32 boys.

Tomorrow (Sunday) evening, District Superintendent G. G. Scrivener of Norwich will preach at Vernon Methodist church.

Katherine G. Lambert, manufacturer of human hair goods at 116 Main street, is being told to close her business.

The public schools will be in session as usual Monday. The Free Academy is being closed. Monday has been designated as a cutting day.

The coming to Breakwater-on-the-Thames of so many families with children has necessitated the reopening of the Long Cove school building.

The papers announce that Miss Elizabeth Pulver of Norwich will speak at the Congregational church at Waukegan Sunday evening, October 12th.

The old ice house at Amston, formerly Turnerville, which was built a few years ago by the Providence Dairy Co. is being torn down and the lumber taken away.

Rev. T. M. Crowley of New London and Rev. E. M. Hayes of Jewett City will visit Bishop Nolan at the dedication of St. Joseph's cemetery this afternoon.

Connecticut women have been in attendance this week at the annual convention of the New England branch of the women's foreign missionary society at Malden, Mass.

The grange at Elkton recently had a novel entertainment called Sample night, when a fine collection of fruit of the month was brought in, tested—and tasted—by the members.

In the supplemental automobile register the motorcycle registrations number 2,909 and there are 331 dealers and 321 licensed drivers.

Agricultural societies in the western part of the state which have been holding fairs this week have had hard hits. The weather man provided three ideal days for Norwich fair this year.

A Plainfield correspondent writes: Rev. H. T. Johnson of Norwich will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

On Thursday, Mrs. Cynthia Allen, who is spending the winter with her son in the city, was remembered by many friends with cards, gifts and good wishes on her 81st birthday.

Charts for testing the eyes have been distributed to most of the schools in the city by the state board of education which followed and the teachers will complete the test.

Those from Norwich who are attending the convention of the Episcopal conference in New York, at the Hotel Waldorf, are Judge Gardner Greene, Archbishop J. Eldred Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Chapman.

In memory of Mrs. James Malone, an anniversary of the 25th birthday of her son, the Rev. J. H. Malone, pastor of St. Patrick's church in New York, will be celebrated Friday at 8 o'clock in St. Patrick's church by the pastor, Rev. John H. Malone, relatives, family friends and acquaintances attending the service.

Miss Virginia Hazard La Forge of Fishers Island and Lieutenant William Harry Weggenmann, C. A. C. U. S. A., are married in New York, at St. Thomas church, New York, Lieutenant and Mrs. Weggenmann will reside at Fort Wright, where the former is stationed.

FATHER MATHEW ANNIVERSARY Observed by St. Mary's T. A. B. Society—Mayor Murphy and Rev. M. P. Galvin Speak.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

Kill Catarrh Germ Use Booth's Kyoemei

Try the sure and most effective way to reach the raw, tender inflamed membrane of the throat infected with catarrh germs—breath Kyoemei. All druggists sell it.

Change in Attitude. In this city, a few years ago so inimical to the foreigner, the school and hospital have grown until a year ago there were 103 students, and this year it was merely a matter of picking out the brightest and best fitted of the applicants.

Health Officer Morton E. Fox of Montville discovered two cases of smallpox in that town on Friday, and has a number of other cases under observation.

DESCRIBED PANAMA TRIP. Edwin A. Tracy Gave Instructive Talk at Norwich Town Church.

Friday evening in the chapel of the First Congregational church at Norwich Town Edwin A. Tracy held his interesting description of his trip to Panama.

At present Miss Gibson, matron of the county home, and her assistants are caring for 75 children, 43 girls and 32 boys.

Tomorrow (Sunday) evening, District Superintendent G. G. Scrivener of Norwich will preach at Vernon Methodist church.

Katherine G. Lambert, manufacturer of human hair goods at 116 Main street, is being told to close her business.

The public schools will be in session as usual Monday. The Free Academy is being closed. Monday has been designated as a cutting day.

The coming to Breakwater-on-the-Thames of so many families with children has necessitated the reopening of the Long Cove school building.

The papers announce that Miss Elizabeth Pulver of Norwich will speak at the Congregational church at Waukegan Sunday evening, October 12th.

The old ice house at Amston, formerly Turnerville, which was built a few years ago by the Providence Dairy Co. is being torn down and the lumber taken away.

Rev. T. M. Crowley of New London and Rev. E. M. Hayes of Jewett City will visit Bishop Nolan at the dedication of St. Joseph's cemetery this afternoon.

Connecticut women have been in attendance this week at the annual convention of the New England branch of the women's foreign missionary society at Malden, Mass.

The grange at Elkton recently had a novel entertainment called Sample night, when a fine collection of fruit of the month was brought in, tested—and tasted—by the members.

In the supplemental automobile register the motorcycle registrations number 2,909 and there are 331 dealers and 321 licensed drivers.

Agricultural societies in the western part of the state which have been holding fairs this week have had hard hits. The weather man provided three ideal days for Norwich fair this year.

A Plainfield correspondent writes: Rev. H. T. Johnson of Norwich will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

On Thursday, Mrs. Cynthia Allen, who is spending the winter with her son in the city, was remembered by many friends with cards, gifts and good wishes on her 81st birthday.

Charts for testing the eyes have been distributed to most of the schools in the city by the state board of education which followed and the teachers will complete the test.

Those from Norwich who are attending the convention of the Episcopal conference in New York, at the Hotel Waldorf, are Judge Gardner Greene, Archbishop J. Eldred Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Chapman.

In memory of Mrs. James Malone, an anniversary of the 25th birthday of her son, the Rev. J. H. Malone, pastor of St. Patrick's church in New York, will be celebrated Friday at 8 o'clock in St. Patrick's church by the pastor, Rev. John H. Malone, relatives, family friends and acquaintances attending the service.

Miss Virginia Hazard La Forge of Fishers Island and Lieutenant William Harry Weggenmann, C. A. C. U. S. A., are married in New York, at St. Thomas church, New York, Lieutenant and Mrs. Weggenmann will reside at Fort Wright, where the former is stationed.

FATHER MATHEW ANNIVERSARY Observed by St. Mary's T. A. B. Society—Mayor Murphy and Rev. M. P. Galvin Speak.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

St. Mary's T. A. and B. society observed the anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, patron of total abstinence societies, Friday evening in T. A. B. hall, and a great number of people were present.

Kill Catarrh Germ Use Booth's Kyoemei

Try the sure and most effective way to reach the raw, tender inflamed membrane of the throat infected with catarrh germs—breath Kyoemei. All druggists sell it.

Change in Attitude. In this city, a few years ago so inimical to the foreigner, the school and hospital have grown until a year ago there were 103 students, and this year it was merely a matter of picking out the brightest and best fitted of the applicants.

Health Officer Morton E. Fox of Montville discovered two cases of smallpox in that town on Friday, and has a number of other cases under observation.

DESCRIBED PANAMA TRIP. Edwin A. Tracy Gave Instructive Talk at Norwich Town Church.

Friday evening in the chapel of the First Congregational church at Norwich Town Edwin A. Tracy held his interesting description of his trip to Panama.

At present Miss Gibson, matron of the county home, and her assistants are caring for 75 children, 43 girls and 32 boys.

Tomorrow (Sunday) evening, District Superintendent G. G. Scrivener of Norwich will preach at Vernon Methodist church.

Katherine G. Lambert, manufacturer of human hair goods at 116 Main street, is being told to close her business.

The public schools will be in session as usual Monday. The Free Academy is being closed. Monday has been designated as a cutting day.

The coming to Breakwater