Up to the present time the assessors have received no tax lists from owners of motor cycles. The assessors have just had directions from the state tax commissioner that these must all be listed for taxation.

In the last two years the local assessors have taken the authority into their own hands and allowed the motorcycle owners to sign their names in lists but now, the local board says there is nothing for them to do but to comply with the orders of the state tax commissioner.

It will be for the interests of motorcycle owners to put in their lists, as otherwise they will be assessed on the lists themselves, and this may not be with such satisfactory results to the motorcycle man. Along with the list of motorcycle owners and automobile owners who also have to put their machines into the list.

EXTRA MEN SWORN IN AT MONTVILLE TO PREVENT THOSE WITHOUT PASSES FROM RIDING ON TROLLEY CARS—ONE NEW CASE OF SMALLPOX—NEW PATIENT'S AUNT CRITICISES TOWN OFFICIALS—NEW CASE IS ROBERT CRESY

In order to more strictly enforce and maintain the embargo on the trolley car passengers during the prevalence of smallpox in Montville, the town authorities have decided it is necessary to procure the aid of constables, who are doing duty on all the trolley cars, from taking on or letting off passengers between Quaker Hill and Trading Cove, which necessitated Charles Johnson, Roscoe Dart and Michael Hickey, five townsmen have been sworn in.

This has become necessary since the issuing of the quarantine passes allowing people who have passed a medical inspection to leave the town. When the embargo was originally placed in force prohibiting the trolley cars from taking on or letting off passengers between Quaker Hill and Trading Cove, which necessitated Charles Johnson, Roscoe Dart and Michael Hickey, five townsmen have been sworn in.
