COLONIAL THEATRE.
Tigris, the Master Crackman, Four Reel Mystery Spectacle.

A thousand thrills await the patrons of the Colonial Theatre in the stupendous mystery spectacle in four reels entitled, Tigris, the Master Crackman, a story of a criminal with a thousand disguises and as many personalities. The four reels are crowded with sensational events which show among them, a runaway horse that crashes through a plate glass restaurant window to land in the carriage and its occupants. Then there is the underground den, the trip through the sewers, Roland's escape from death, the enchanted ball room, the night for the dark, the motor car episode, and the strangest duel ever fought. All this is superbly presented with gorgeous accessories and marvelous acting, and this powerful offering can be seen for only one night. The Hermit's Rose is a beautiful Kalem drama, Saved from the Vigilantes, a western drama, is of breezy and sprightly spirit. Vitaphone comedy is supplied to give good measure to the program.

Across Alaska by Motor.
United States Army engineers have just completed a remarkable expedition in a motor truck, driving half way across Alaska to a point within two degrees of the Arctic Circle, the farthest northern point ever attained by a motor vehicle, and officially confirmed. The party drove from Valdez to Fairbanks and return, a distance of 326 miles, in 16 days.

The truck had been shipped to the Alaska road commissioners early in the summer. It was delivered in Valdez on July 26, and two days later it started on the trail to Fairbanks, there to be joined by Lieutenant-Colonel Richardson, president of the Board of Road Commissioners, and other engineers. It left Valdez with a load of supplies and a quantity of mail for camps along the military telegraph line. Considerable mail was carried to points where none had been received over a year. In order that the trip might reveal average conditions, the truck was not especially equipped, except in the matter of fuel and road tools. Food was carried for use only in the desperate regions where there are no road houses or settlements.—Engineering and Mining News.

ATTRACTIVE HAIR

Always Fascinates—Parisian Sage
Makes Hair That is Dull,
Faded or Thin, Abundant

Every girl and woman, too, wants to be beautiful and attractive—it's her birthright—but unsightly, or thin and characterless hair destroys half the beauty of the most attractive face. THE FINEST LAXATIVE

IN THIRTY CENTURIES.
Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is Truly
Tasteless—Not Flavored or Disguised.

For 3,000 years castor oil has been the world's best laxative, but until now it has been offensive, sickening and limited its use.

For 3,000 years chemists have tried to remove the taste.

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is just what the name means—a pure, clear, refined oil without any taste. It is the newest product of Spencer Kellogg & Sons of Buffalo, large refiners of vegetable oils.

Anybody can disguise the taste of castor oil by mixing it with alcohol, wintergreen, peppermint or other flavors, but it remained for the Kellogg family to keep the oil pure and make it tasteless.
