GIFT TO RETIRING DIRECTOR OF BAND

Frank E. King Resigns from Tubbs' Band—Stickpin Given Him.

At the regular meeting of Tubbs' band for practice in their rooms on Monday evening, Frank E. King presented his resignation as director, stating that he did it for business reasons as he found that other duties would not allow him time to devote attention enough to the band leadership.

It is with much regret that the resignation was received but a few of the boys who had learned during the day that he was coming were prepared for the occasion and having circulated among the band members had a diamond and ruby stickpin on hand which Mr. King presented to the retiring member and leader.

It is with much regret that the band members see Mr. King drop the leadership. He has been a member of the band since 1894, and before that time had held the place for a number of years during the incumbency of the old esteemed leader, Charles W. White. Mr. King has been director of the interest in the band and attendance at its meetings, as well as the quality of the music, has been of a constantly improving standard which have made the past few years among the most satisfactory in its history.

Definite arrangements about a permanent successor have not been made, but John M. Swain has been appointed as acting director. He is a musician of ability and a leader who is expected to secure good results in the band work.

Hotels and Restaurants Busy. Because of the Sunday school convention, Manager James T. Egan of the Auditorium hotel said on Tuesday morning that their rooms were all filled and they had also a number of rooms in use in the annex. The hotels of the city are experiencing the business benefit of having the convention come here and the restaurants are also places where the patronage of the convention will add materially to the receipts this week.

Initiated Two New Members. The regular monthly meeting of St. Mary's Catholic church, held in their rooms Tuesday evening with vice president Joseph J. Quinn in the chair. The regular routine of business was transacted. Two new members were initiated. Three propositions were received. Arrangements were completed for a smoker and social evening the week of the annual festival in January were discussed.

Filling Places of Polishers. With a partial force filling the places of the polishers who were last week given notice by the Hopkins & Allen Arms company, that day's work of the firearms factory resumed operations on Tuesday. The firm expects to fill the other places as fast as the help can be secured.

Coal Kills Titanic Survivor. Shamokin, Pa., Nov. 4.—Martin Moran, a survivor of the Titanic disaster, was killed today by a rush of water from the big liner and when she went down he jumped into the ocean, swam to a boat and was saved.

A progressive Ohio farmer uses an electric motor to run a fodder cutter and a blower to blow the cut food into a silo.

BUYING FURS? A WARNING!

There are more kinds of ways of fooling people about furs than there are animals in America.

There is only one sure protection in fur buying and that is to consult a merchant in whom you have confidence and to rely on his word.

To begin with you can well be prejudiced in favor of the merchants, who advertise in live papers like The Bulletin.

Before choosing your furs read the advertising carefully. See what your merchants have to say. Weigh their claims and decide for yourself.

ARBITRATION ORDER REFUSED. Manufacturers Refuse This Method of Settling Garment Workers' Strike—Report Made to Central Labor Union of Progress of Negotiations—Several Conferences Held Without Results Towards Settling Strike.

In Carpenters hall on Tuesday evening there was a meeting of the Norwich Central Labor union, at which report was made from the grievance committee upon the present status of the Garment Workers' strike.

The grievance committee, which was organized at the conference held Sunday afternoon between representatives of the manufacturers and the grievance committee, and also later conferences that have been held.

In the report it was stated that the figures recently published by the manufacturers to show what wages were being paid in other cities were substantially correct, but that the grievance committee had learned that the employees were working from 56 to 60 hours a week, and that the manufacturers were insisting upon a 55 hour day and to a very slight advance which was less than what the employees had made in their demands, but when it came to the question of a shop commission, which was insisted upon by the employees, the manufacturers declared positively that they would not agree to that and the negotiations came to an end.

The matter stands now, it was stated, that the grievance committee had not been made up to the satisfaction of the present difficulty to arbitration, but it had been declined. The offer made to the manufacturers was to submit the matter to arbitration, but the offer should consist of representatives of the firms and as many delegates from the employees as there were representatives from the firms. There were to select one of three persons to act as referees, whose decision should be binding on both sides.

It was further reported that through the grievance committee an offer had been made to the manufacturers to submit the present difficulty to arbitration, but it had been declined. The offer made to the manufacturers was to submit the matter to arbitration, but the offer should consist of representatives of the firms and as many delegates from the employees as there were representatives from the firms. There were to select one of three persons to act as referees, whose decision should be binding on both sides.

FIRE MARSHAL REPORTS ON SCHOOL INSPECTIONS

Sends Statistics to State Board of Education—Parochial Schools in the Exempt Class.

Fire Marshal Howard L. Stanton has forwarded to the state board of education, as he is required to do by statute, his report of inspection of the school buildings of the town in Norwich and the parochial schools, the county home and the parochial schools. He is required to report on construction, fire escapes, fire exits, fire escapes, and whether the buildings are exempt from the law covering upon fire escapes.

The parochial schools, he says, are all in the exempt class, as they have modern buildings with broad, easy stairways and the necessary exits. The Broad street school is one of the two-story school buildings that is also exempt because of its modern construction.

SHOP TALK AT CUTLERY.

Address and Sales by Rev. G. C. Chappell of Montville.

Rev. George C. Chappell of Montville was the speaker at the shop talk at the plant of the International Silver company under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday noon. There was prayer by General Secretary Edwin Hill of the Y. M. C. A. and solos were rendered by Rev. Mr. Chappell, being accompanied by Miss Harriet Colt.

Rev. Mr. Chappell spoke of the mission laid by the Lord on Moses to bring the Israelites out of Egypt and emphasize the fact that Christ had come for us whatever our daily tasks and abilities.

In closing he said: Can you bear the burden for some fellow man today? Do it. Can you speak a simple word of cheer to some lonely heart? Do it. Can you sing a song of praise to the Lord? Do it. Can you carry a bouquet to the sick and infirm? There are those who need it now.

OBITUARY.

George Baker, Sr. George Baker, aged 65 years, died suddenly at his home, No. 277 Prospect street, at 9.45 o'clock Monday night and the unexpected termination of his useful life comes as a deep blow to his circle of friends. For a short time previous to his death Mr. Baker had complained of a pain in his chest, but had regarded it as the matting of arteries. He retired early, as usual, Monday evening, and a half hour later was suddenly stricken with heart disease. A physician was summoned, but Mr. Baker passed away within a few minutes without regaining consciousness. Medical Examiner Dr. R. W. Kimball was summoned and pronounced death due to heart disease.

Mr. Baker was born in London 65 years ago and was the son of George Amos Baker. He was married in London and removed from that city to Norwich with his family 28 years ago. He made his home here from that time up to his death, and was throughout this period employed as a finisher in the plant of the United States Finishing company, where he was a valued and trusted workman, a member of the Foresters of America.

Mr. Baker was of a bright, cheerful disposition and was liked and respected by all who came in contact. His death is a source of deep regret to his many friends and acquaintances in this city. He is survived by his wife, three sisters, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Alfred Dear, and Miss Baker, all of London, England, and the following children: George, Thomas and Frederick Baker, Mrs. James Kirby, Mrs. Louis J. Bruttoe, Misses Emma, Margaret, Ida G. and Marion E. Bakington, and also Mrs. George P. Bolles of Bullocks Falls, Vt.

Henry H. Kingsley.

The death of Henry H. Kingsley occurred on Monday evening at 11.15 o'clock at his home at East Great Plain, where he had resided for the last six years. He had been in poor health for some time, but his death was occasioned by pneumonia.

Mr. Kingsley was a native of Franklin, N. H., where he was born May 21, 1849, the son of Henry W. and Sarah (Huntington) Kingsley. His early years were spent in Franklin, where his only brother, Silas, died at the age of 20. Mr. Kingsley was the last of his immediate family, but is survived by his wife, a stepson, Byron J. Frink, and several children.

In his early years he had been engaged in farming, but he had been retired for a number of years and had made his home in Norwich for thirty years, residing in Williams street most of this time. He was an attendant at the Methodist church and was a member of the church and was well liked by his neighbors and whose kindly and amiable disposition and high character won him the sincere esteem of all with whom he was associated. His influence was for the best and he leaves many friends to regret his passing away.

Zekeiah Huntington.

In his home in Mamaroneck, N. Y., Zekeiah Huntington died at 12.15 o'clock Tuesday night. Mr. Huntington suffered a shock, and since that time he had never fully recovered. Mr. Huntington was born in this city and was the son of Asaiah Huntington. He inherited a large farm and considerable money and also owned real estate in Norwich and New York. Mr. Huntington was united in marriage with Miss Frances H. Smith, who died in New York city about four years ago. Mr. Huntington was well known in the town where for many years he made his home. He had an extremely attractive tenor voice and was a member of the church and was well liked by his neighbors in Mamaroneck, N. Y. Surviving him, besides a son, Lester Huntington of Yonkers, N. Y., there is also another son.

The remains, with those of his wife, will be brought to Yantic and burial will be in Franklin cemetery.

Gurdon F. Allyn. Gurdon F. Allyn, aged 87 years, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Herbert E. Beard, at Loffingwell, at 9.30 o'clock Monday evening. Death was due to advanced years.

He was born October 1, 1826, at Gales Ferry, and was the son of Gurdon L. and Sarah S. Bradford Allyn. Gurdon L. Allyn and his father, Nathan Allyn, were seamen. Gurdon F. Allyn attended Bacon Academy, and after graduation engaged in agriculture. He located on a farm in Agram fifty years ago. The place was a landmark and the house over a century old, was at one time a tavern on the stage road from Essex to Norwich. Mr. Allyn was republican in politics and served a first select term of the town of Salem, represented the town in the legislature three years, and was for some time school visitor. For 45 years he was deacon of the Salem Congregational church and was also superintendent of the Sunday school.

Mr. Allyn was well known as an auctioneer for nearly a century. He traveled extensively when young and could talk interestingly of other parts of the world. He was a man of high character and integrity, and was honored and respected in his community.

He was married March 7, 1851, to Sarah Raymond Dolbear, who died eight years ago. Mr. Allyn had made his home for three years previous to his death with Mr. Beard.

PARCEL POST SAVES MINING CAMP.

Cuts Transportation Costs on a Sack of Flour from $2.50 to 50 Cents.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The parcel post is lowering the high cost of living at Edwardsburg, Idaho, according to a report that reached the postoffice department today. Transportation charges on a sack of flour from the nearest railroad station to the mining camp have been $2.50, while the charges by parcel post are only 50 cents. As a result winter supplies which have to be purchased before the big snows set in are being shipped by parcel post.

The parcel post system probably will save the camp, which has been threatened by the former excessive transportation charges, from the possibility of being abandoned. A person in the camp, concludes the report, seems to be the mail contractor.

India has 315,000,000 people less than half of whom can read even the native vernaculars. Nevertheless there are 458 newspapers and 1903 periodicals published there.
