GREENEVILLE

Fire Does Extensive Damage to House at Corner of Eleventh Street and Central Avenue.

Shortly after 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning fire broke out in the two-story frame building at the corner of Eleventh street and Central Avenue occupied by Gilbert E. Talbot and owned by the Albro estate.

While fighting the fire on the roof Henry Cole, one of the Greenville volunteer firemen, crushed the end of one of his fingers when he got into the shaft of a nozzle.

The fire was out by 10:30 o'clock, but not until considerable damage had been done by both the flames and water.

At 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning a wire of the fire alarm system broke between Schofield's hill and the Greenville church.

SCHOOL MATTERS CONSIDERED

Town School Board to Have Broadway School Heating System Investigated—New Fire Escapes Expected in About Two Weeks—Trades School Authority to Confer With Board.

The town school committee, with President Shepard B. Palmer in the chair, Judge T. J. Kelly keeping the records, and members present, held its January meeting on Tuesday evening in Supt. E. J. Graham's room, and was occupied till nearly 11 o'clock with the discussion of necessary business.

In addition to routine business there were various matters coming before the board. The resignation of Miss Julia M. Donahue, teacher in the fifth grade at Tatfield, was presented and accepted. The place will be filled for the present by some of the substitute teachers.

Mr. Palmer made report that the new fire escapes for the nine schools, which are to be placed may be expected to be shipped in about two weeks by the New Haven firm that is to put them in.

It was decided to have an investigation made of the heating system of Broadway school and an expert from a Boston company is to be brought here to look the building and its heating plant over.

"TOMORROW." Subject of Address by Rev. Joel B. Slocum, D. D., at Outcry.

Rev. Joel B. Slocum, D. D., was the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. meeting at the Outcry Tuesday noon and his subject was "Tomorrow." He said in part: "There must be some thought for the morrow, some anticipation of tomorrow's needs. But it is today that we live and move and have our being. It is tomorrow that we must do our work and make our preparation for the future. Recently I heard a man say: 'I don't care for today, I only care for tomorrow.' I am glad he was only joking. The old maxim that suggests that we never should put off till tomorrow what we can do today is a safer rule of conduct."

A schedule has now been arranged to play off the concluding games in the Arcanum club. The following are the games assigned for the following: For Tuesday, Jan. 13, Jordan vs. J. T. Young; Barney vs. H. L. Smith; Honeyman vs. J. P. Young. For Wednesday, Jan. 14, Smith vs. H. L. Smith; Knox vs. H. L. Smith; Friswell vs. Honeyman. For Thursday, Jan. 15, J. T. Young vs. Knox vs. Pierson; Honeyman vs. L. M. Young; Jordan vs. Friswell. For Friday, Jan. 16, Pierson vs. Rathbone; Knox vs. J. P. Young; Pierson vs. Rathbone.

Stop Stomach Worries Now And Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets So That You Can Digest Each Meal Quickly and At the Same Time Renew Your Digestive Strength. Learn once again how to smile and laugh, and stop this grouchy moodiness. This condition arises from a faulty digestion and cannot be removed unless you use common sense and assist Nature a little.

"I am a New Man Since Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Gave Me a New Stomach and Appetite." If the stomach is overworked, its muscles become tired and gradually grow weaker and weaker, until they are unable to take care of the food properly. The glands fail to provide the juices necessary to digest the food. Gases form and cause all sorts of pain, misery and wretchedness, as well as extreme danger to the heart.

It is then that the stomach calls for help. Ordinary medicines are impossible to give in more than 25 years. Walter M. Cowan reported for the executive council. In the absence of Charles Cross, the report of the stockholders was read by Clerk Jacob Starkweather.

Following the reports was the annual election which resulted as follows: Clerk, William C. Joyce; treasurer, Robert W.
