OLD MYSTIC

Evangelist Smith Conducting Well Attended Meetings At The Methodist Church—White Rock Pullet Made Good Record.

The evangelistic campaign opened last week Wednesday evening under the leadership of Evangelist Lewis E. Smith of Boston has been well attended although the weather at the commencement of the campaign was cold and the walking and wheeling hard. Evangelist Lewis is a strong preacher and a fine singer. His auto harp playing as an accompaniment to his singing is an interesting feature of his meetings. At last Sunday morning's service John Smith presided from the subject: The Man, Christ Jesus. The services have continued for some time this week thus far. The women's meeting was held at 2 p. m. Wednesday with a good attendance. The message of the meeting was particularly timely to mothers. The solos rendered at this service by the evangelist were The Old Willow Rocker, and He Knows. Thursday evening returned Sunday, February 22, with 23 days from 24 pullets for laying. Feb. 17th, 18 eggs; Feb. 19th, 19; Feb. 21st, 22; Feb. 24th, 19; Feb. 26th, 21; Feb. 27th, 23; Feb. 28, 21 eggs.
