

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, March 9, 1914.

VARIOUS MATTERS

There was a heavy white frost early Sunday morning.

The City of Norwich, from Calcutta, it is said that the beautiful beach at Fishers Island is piled high with rocks and small stones, since the gale.

Mrs. James Walden, whose death in Florida is mentioned in the Willimantic news, was an occasional visitor in this city.

Neosha whist tonight in Foresters' hall.—Adv.

Italian fruit growers in and about Bolton, fear that the cold storms have killed their peach trees and will mean no berry crops.

Friday evening there was a meeting of the association of Wilcox families in an allied family at Meriden at the home of George Wilcox, the president.

Shampooing and manicuring. Room 22, Shannon building.—Adv.

Rev. E. B. Barber, now pastor of the Universalist church of Danbury, has been drawn to preach the occasional sermon at the state convention of Universalists in Middletown in May.

Laugh at the elements, get a telephone and do your work by wire.—Adv.

At immaculate conception school hall, Hartford, Monday evening, the Rev. T. M. Crowley of New London will speak on socialism. The Rev. Dr. M. A. Sullivan will also give an address.

Attorney General Light has ruled that corporations holding state bonds issued under the act of April 11, 1909, may pay taxes on them although the law provides that they shall be exempt.

A new counterfeit $10 note has made its appearance. The Secret Service announced in a circular issued to banks that the note is of the series of 1901, and the number of specimens is D46792035.

The statement that the department at Washington had ordered that all mail be forwarded to its destination whether the postage was prepaid or not has been corrected to read all foreign mail.

Telephone service is a saving rather than an expense. Ask the man who has one.—Adv.

It was announced from St. Patrick's pulpit Sunday that the annual charity ball given by the Catholic Women's club of which Mrs. James Walden is president, had netted the handsome sum of $622.05.

The post offices all over the country have received orders from the department at Washington to save and conserve every available scrap of twine and use the same over again in sending out mails.

A New York Sunday paper said: Dr. Louis M. Aloysius, the tenant, is the buyer of the dwelling at 145 West Thirty-Fourth street, adjoining the French hospital, sold recently by J. Arthur Fischer.

In emergencies time saved counts. The greatest of all time savers is telephone service.—Adv.

George W. Sisson of New London has been appointed cashier at Branford house, Morton P. Platts' Eastern Hotel estate. He succeeds William H. Bowker, who returns to the office of the J. E. Fitzgerald Construction Co.

Railroad employees at Saybrook Point and Junction are anxious to learn which train goes off. It is rumored the early New London and Norwich run is the only one in that section. The change on the Norwich branch makes it look that way.

Nearly 3,000 government documents, which have been accumulating at the Otis library for years, were returned in 80 mail sacks to Washington, Saturday afternoon. The government will pay for the shipping. James Scott, who had the library no longer had room for them.

John W. Lord counted 24 quail in one flock on Lord's Point since the storm. Whistlers are plenty now and need in the millions. The quail at Lord's Hill during the shut in period was a large white crane, visiting just at nightfall and scaring the turkeys.

The proof of the pudding is in the eating. Ask the man who has a telephone why he has it.—Adv.

When the compensation commissioner of the state met in the office of Frederick M. Williams' office in the Lilley building, Waterbury, Friday night for their regular monthly conference, and exchanged notes on their experiences, Dr. J. J. Donohue of Norwich attended.

Washington papers mention that Counselor of the Italian Embassy, M. Catalan and M. Catalan (Susan Dimock Hutchinson of Southbury) propose calling this week for Europe on three months' leave of absence. They will take an apartment in Paris for the spring.

When Rev. James A. Mullen, S. J., prefect of the school read the February monthly remarks to the students of Holy Cross college, in the Junior class two testimonials were awarded Thomas F. Shea and in the Freshman class, one testimonial to Robert H. Ma, honey, both of Norwich.

KAMP KILLKARE MINSTRELS HAD CROWDED HOUSE. Thure Rydholm Made Hit on Second Night's Bill.

Before an overcrowded house, the Kamp Killkare minstrels gave their second performance Saturday evening at the Y. M. C. A. At 8 o'clock, when the show started, the standing room of the hall was all taken and still people came. The boys entered into the performance Saturday evening with more confidence than the night before and it was said that it was a better performance. The show was greatly aided by the blackface. Mr. Rydholm of Rockville, Mr. Rydholm of his songs was heartily applauded and in his dance and song. Just Simply Smile, he received an ovation. The end men kept the audience laughing at their antics and jokes all through the performance. The show this year proved to be a banner year financially and with record breaking crowds and is anticipated that about $50 or more will be realized for the camp fund.

To Give Minstrels a Supper. Tuesday evening the boys' work committee of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will give a supper to the minstrels. The minstrels show this was held last Friday and Saturday evenings.

Tim Leonard of Roxbury has been appointed business manager for the Lewiston team. He will be in charge of affairs while the club owners, Burns and his right hand man, McDonough, are at his home with the Red Sox.

PERSONALS

William Kirby of Danielson spent Sunday at the Falls with relatives.

Mrs. D. Paul Guegan of Deep River is in Norwich the guest of her sister.

Charles W. Dow is ill at his home on Broadway, threatened with pleurisy.

Mrs. Charles McChesney, of School street, has recovered from a week's illness.

Mrs. J. W. Reynolds of Norwich has been in Colechester, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Strong.

Mr. and Mrs. George Champlin of Clinton have been entertaining the former's sister, Miss Della Champlin of Massachusetts.

A lecture was given in New London the other night to members of the Junior Order United American Mechanics and several guests by Edward L. Case of Norwich.

Frank L. Palmer, who is at the Kirkwood sanitarium at Camden, S. C., for his health, is somewhat improved in health. Mrs. Palmer has been there three weeks. Mrs. Palmer and daughters, Theodora and Virginia went there a few days ago. Mr. Palmer is president of the Palmer Brothers Co.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS. Alex Jordan for Senior Councillor—One Candidate Initiated.

The annual election with installation of officers for the Norwich council, No. 307, United Commercial Travelers, was held on Saturday evening at the council meeting in Fythan hall, where there was a large attendance.

The representative to the grand council, which meets in Bangor in June is James Conway, with Norman L. Kimball as alternate.

Reports for the past term, during which Norman L. Kimball has been senior councillor, showed a prosperous condition, and reports were also made that the arrangements for the next industrial and good home exposition were progressing in a satisfactory manner.

Reports for the past term, during which Norman L. Kimball has been senior councillor, showed a prosperous condition, and reports were also made that the arrangements for the next industrial and good home exposition were progressing in a satisfactory manner.

MUSICAL SERVICE Given by Quartette at Park Congregational Church.

The musical praise service at Park church, which on account of the severe storm was postponed from the first to the second Sunday of this month, was given by the quartette at the vesper service Sunday afternoon.

Obituary. Saturday morning at 3 o'clock John P. Driscoll died in his home at 416 Asylum street at the age of 75 years, following a short illness.

At the age of 55 years Miss Carroll died in her home at 416 Asylum street on Sunday evening. She was born in Ireland, but for the last 50 years had resided in Norwich Town and had been employed as a weaver.

Miss Sarah A. Boardman, the death of Mrs. Sarah A. Boardman of a rather sudden number of years ago, occurred Saturday morning at her home in Philadelphia.

Besides their match, Sam Richards of Boston and Charles Durborow of Philadelphia will race against each other in the Philadelphia race track on the New York Tribune next July.

TO MR. ULTIMATE CONSUMER This is an important message to you. When quality is lowered or prices raised you are expected to pay the bills.

Before the complaint from Mr. Kingsbury had come in, Volask had appeared at the headquarters with a charge that he had bought a watch with a gold case and a gold chain from a store on Franklin street, but that when he handed over the $5 he could only get the watch. He promised Captain Twomey to go out and get three witnesses but he did not appear again and while he was gone, the complaint from Mr. Kingsbury came in.

Will Have Strawdine. The senior gymnasium class of the Y. M. C. A. is going to have a strawdine this (Monday) evening to Preston City. At Geisthardt's hall they will enjoy refreshments. The committee in charge of the affair are Henry Roessler and Hans Bartz. The party will leave the Y. M. C. A. at 11 o'clock.

CHARGE MADE HOWARD HOWARD—FLOURISHED GUN IN ALLARD'S PLACE ON NORTH MAIN STREET—WAS LOOKING FOR BILL HOURIGAN, HE SAYS—LATTER HAD TROUBLE AT HOME OF ELIZA WILLIAMS ON NORTH MAIN STREET.

Behind a neighboring billboard by Policeman Maloney. Howard claimed that all he had was a toy pistol, and that he had thrown it away. When Bill Hourigan was brought in about 4 o'clock Sunday morning, relative and friends and there were a number of friends and relatives. The bearers, members of the order of Foresters to which Mr. Brosofske belonged, were John Driscoll, Edward Kilday, Joseph Quinn, James Quinn, George Massey and Fred Williams. The funeral was held at 9 o'clock by Rev. J. H. Broderick, the bearers were Walter Kilroy, Paul Shannon, Underaker Hourigan and charge and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery.

Timothy F. Sheehan. Relatives from this city, South Manchester, Wallingford, Webster, Worcester, Pawtucket and New London were in attendance at the funeral of Timothy F. Sheehan, who was held Sunday morning at 8:15 o'clock. Rev. P. J. O'Reilly read the requiem mass in St. John's church at 9 o'clock. At the close of the mass Miss Mary Walsh rendered Nearer, My God, to Thee. The bearers were William G. O'Toole, Timothy Sheehan, Patrick Sheehan of Pawtucket, and Daniel Sheehan of Worcester and burial took place in the Catholic cemetery in New London. The body was accompanied to New London by M. Hourigan and was numerous and beautiful.

Mrs. Florence Swails. The attendance was large at the funeral of Mrs. Florence Swails held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Cummings & Ring. The services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Dennis and Miss Lottie Jackson sang in deep in voice. With Me, and Face to Face. The bearers were Lucian Dabney, Harrison Payne, John Williams, and Matthew W. Burdette. Burial took place in Maplewood cemetery. A committal service was conducted at the grave by Rev. J. H. Dennis.

Lenten Sermon by New York Preacher. Rev. J. T. McNicholas, O. P., at St. Patrick's Church.

A large and appreciative congregation listened to the forceful and inspiring sermon by Rev. J. T. McNicholas, O. P., of New York, at the Lenten service in St. Patrick's church Sunday evening. Father McNicholas spoke on "The Creator and the Creature."

There is between the Creator and the creature a relationship which we know no duty to the father and mother. The relationship between the Creator and the creature is a relationship which we know no duty to the father and mother. The relationship between the Creator and the creature is a relationship which we know no duty to the father and mother.

Novelties in the food line and the various kinds of cake for sale were all sold. The success of the sale is due to the fact that the food was of high quality and the prices were reasonable.

Large Variety of Wares Found Ready Purchasers. A food sale conducted Saturday by the Norwich Equal Franchise League in the store No. 33 Broadway had successful results. The sale was a success in that it satisfied workers, and along with the success of the sale it had the pleasure of enrolling a number of new members.

Travel to Beaches to See Storm Damage. Trolley Lines Did Almost a Summer Business on Sunday. Due to desire to see the havoc wrought by the big storm of the week ago at Pleasant View, trolley line was almost deserted on Sunday.

Eligible for Second Lieutenant. In the Coast Artillery Corps the names of those hold a certificate signed by the adjutant general, as being qualified for a commission as second lieutenant in the following: Sergeant Charles H. Voegelé, Eighth Co., March 18, 1913; Corporal Courtland B. Pierce, Eleventh Co., March 22, 1913; Corporal Elwood W. Stanton, Tenth Co., Nov. 25, 1913.

Incidents in Society. Miss Winifred Welles and Philip T. Welles are in New York. Miss Eliza Davenport of Fitchburg, Mass. is the guest of Miss Olive Huntington of Washington street.

Miss Sarah Loring of Lincoln avenue has returned from Providence where she has been the guest of Miss Taber. Miss Katherine Holmes of Greenboro has been the guest for several days of the Misses Taber of Providence, R. I.

Miss Nancy M. Pond returned on Saturday to Norwich, R. I., after a visit with the Misses Trumbull of Perkins avenue. Miss Henrietta Bidwell, who has been in Glen Ridge, N. J. for several weeks, has returned to her home on McKinley avenue.

Mrs. Charles W. Prentice of Washington street, entertains the members of Path Trumbull chapter at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Walter C. Davenport, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Broad street, returned today to his home in Fitchburg, Mass.

Miss Carolina Gilman, who is in New Haven for the winter months, has been the guest for a few days of relatives here, returning last week. Mrs. Lee Roy Robbins of Lincoln avenue is the guest for a few days of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ayerick at her former home in Stamford, Conn.

Miss Gladys MacMahon, who has been a guest for a number of months of her aunt, Mrs. A. N. Carpenter of Union street, will leave soon for Attleboro, Mass.

Miss Lucy Loring of Lincoln avenue and Miss Lucille Lord of Washington street were week end guests of Miss Lord's sister, Mrs. Edward E. Coy of Westery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham, who, since their marriage have resided on Williams street, have taken possession of their new apartment in the Fanning building on Broadway.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Lila C. Winters was held Saturday morning from the home of her aunt, Mrs. F. N. Edwards, 59 Union street, Mass. was celebrated in St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock by Rev. J. H. Broderick. The bearers were Walter Kilroy, Paul Shannon, Underaker Hourigan and charge and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery.

Timothy F. Sheehan. Relatives from this city, South Manchester, Wallingford, Webster, Worcester, Pawtucket and New London were in attendance at the funeral of Timothy F. Sheehan, who was held Sunday morning at 8:15 o'clock. Rev. P. J. O'Reilly read the requiem mass in St. John's church at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Florence Swails. The attendance was large at the funeral of Mrs. Florence Swails held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Cummings & Ring. The services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Dennis and Miss Lottie Jackson sang in deep in voice.

Lenten Sermon by New York Preacher. Rev. J. T. McNicholas, O. P., at St. Patrick's Church. A large and appreciative congregation listened to the forceful and inspiring sermon by Rev. J. T. McNicholas, O. P., of New York, at the Lenten service in St. Patrick's church Sunday evening.

Large Variety of Wares Found Ready Purchasers. A food sale conducted Saturday by the Norwich Equal Franchise League in the store No. 33 Broadway had successful results. The sale was a success in that it satisfied workers, and along with the success of the sale it had the pleasure of enrolling a number of new members.

Travel to Beaches to See Storm Damage. Trolley Lines Did Almost a Summer Business on Sunday. Due to desire to see the havoc wrought by the big storm of the week ago at Pleasant View, trolley line was almost deserted on Sunday.

Eligible for Second Lieutenant. In the Coast Artillery Corps the names of those hold a certificate signed by the adjutant general, as being qualified for a commission as second lieutenant in the following: Sergeant Charles H. Voegelé, Eighth Co., March 18, 1913; Corporal Courtland B. Pierce, Eleventh Co., March 22, 1913; Corporal Elwood W. Stanton, Tenth Co., Nov. 25, 1913.

Incidents in Society. Miss Winifred Welles and Philip T. Welles are in New York. Miss Eliza Davenport of Fitchburg, Mass. is the guest of Miss Olive Huntington of Washington street.

Miss Sarah Loring of Lincoln avenue has returned from Providence where she has been the guest of Miss Taber. Miss Katherine Holmes of Greenboro has been the guest for several days of the Misses Taber of Providence, R. I.

Miss Nancy M. Pond returned on Saturday to Norwich, R. I., after a visit with the Misses Trumbull of Perkins avenue. Miss Henrietta Bidwell, who has been in Glen Ridge, N. J. for several weeks, has returned to her home on McKinley avenue.

Mrs. Charles W. Prentice of Washington street, entertains the members of Path Trumbull chapter at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Walter C. Davenport, who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Broad street, returned today to his home in Fitchburg, Mass.

Miss Carolina Gilman, who is in New Haven for the winter months, has been the guest for a few days of relatives here, returning last week. Mrs. Lee Roy Robbins of Lincoln avenue is the guest for a few days of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ayerick at her former home in Stamford, Conn.

Miss Gladys MacMahon, who has been a guest for a number of months of her aunt, Mrs. A. N. Carpenter of Union street, will leave soon for Attleboro, Mass.

Miss Lucy Loring of Lincoln avenue and Miss Lucille Lord of Washington street were week end guests of Miss Lord's sister, Mrs. Edward E. Coy of Westery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham, who, since their marriage have resided on Williams street, have taken possession of their new apartment in the Fanning building on Broadway.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR STOMACH

Use Mi-o-na—Sure, Safe and Effective—In Digestion, Relief of Money Refunded. If you are not able to digest your food, if you lack an appetite, if your stomach is sour, gassy, upset, if your tongue coated, if your head aches and you are dizzy, if you have heartburn and pains in your colon or bowels, why suffer needlessly?

Buy now—today—from any druggist, a box of Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets. Take them regularly as directed and see how quickly you get relief. There is no more effective remedy for stomach ills than Mi-o-na. It is not only a digestive giving quick relief, but also strengthens and builds up surely and safely the digestive organs, soothes the irritated membrane and increases the flow of the digestive juices, which insures a speedy recovery. Your whole system is benefited and you become well and strong. Start treatment today.

Mi-o-na is different from other digestive remedies. Money back from The Lee & Osgood Co. if not benefited.

In London at the court held at Buckingham Palace Friday night by King George and Queen Mary, Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador presented Joseph E. Spill, the American ambassador to Spain. Mrs. Page presented Mrs. Willard and daughter, Miss Bell Willard. Ambassador Willard is a cousin of Edwin H. Willard of Norwich Town.

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers 337 MAIN STREET Opposite Post Office. Phone 1052-2 Lady Assistant

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN TEACHER In Willimantic Ave. days each week. Full appointments address E. Bullard, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

Get a Copy of Capt. Dan's Daughter JOSEPH LINCOLN'S NEW BOOK

CRANSTON'S 1914 Wall Papers

A full line of the above with new additions coming along, including those with cut out borders. Moldings and Bands to Match. Mixed Paints, Murex and Tints; also Art Glass Imitations. We are in the market for Paintings, Paper Hanging and Decorating all the time.

P. F. MURTAGH 92 and 94 West Main Street

DR. E. J. JONES Suite 46 Shannon Bldg. Take elevator Sbetucket Street entrance. Phone.

FUR SEASON OPENS Now is the time for you to get out your furs. I guarantee all repair work to be perfect. Have also a nice line of Fur Coats for men and women. Women's Muffs and Collars and anything in the Fur line. M. BRUCNER, 81 Franklin St.

COAL AND LUMBER FRESH ARRIVAL Genuine Big Vein George's Creek Blacksmithing COAL

ALSO A CARLOAD OF READY ROOFING PAPER Economy and satisfaction for those who are SHY on SHEDS by using a few loads of our COMMON LUMBER and READY ROOFING.

Chappell Co. Central Wharf, Norwich, Conn. Telephone.

M. C. HIGGINS COAL HIGH GRADE COAL Office and Yard 203 North Main St. Office Telephone 1257

Free Burning Kinds and Lehigh BURNING ALWAYS IN STOCK A. I. THROP Office—cor. Market and Sbetucket Sts. Telephone 462-12

- FRESH ASPARAGUS MUSHROOMS CAULIFLOWER STRAWBERRIES BERMUDA ONIONS ENDIVE CELERY NEW BEETS PEARS ORANGES RED BANANAS ROMA AND SPINZURG APPLES EXTRA LARGE BLOOD ORANGES LONG ISLAND DUCKS

SOMERS

THIS IS NOT TOO EARLY TO SELECT YOUR SPRING STYLE SOFT HAT OR DERBY NOW

Our new lines have arrived and they are the smartest Hats we have shown for Spring in many years.

The Toggery Shop 291 MAIN STREET Norwich, Conn.

Special Notice. CLEON Will Give Readings Only Thursday, Friday and Saturday

MISS M. C. ADLES Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist. SPECIALLY PREPARED TONICS are a feature of Miss Adles' scientific treatment of the scalp and hair.

Diamonds Diamonds Diamonds John & Geo. H. Bliss 126 Main Street

ORDER IT NOW Koplins & Co's Light Dinner also 50c per dozen. Koplins' Planer, 300 per dozen. Brommer's Svergreen, 75c per dozen. Free delivery to all parts of the city. H. JACKEL & CO. Telephone 136-6