

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

GALES FERRY

Methodist Stewards Add Two Members to Finance Committee—No Southbound Train from 8.47 to 3.10—The Week's Happenings.

A meeting of the stewards of the M. E. church was called after the Thursday evening prayer service and two new members were added to the finance committee, Miss Alice Satterlee, treasurer of the Sunday school, and Miss Jennie G. Perkins was made treasurer of Benevolence. Miss Satterlee and Miss Kate B. Colver were added to the camp house committee. It was voted to continue the method in use—the M. E. church will continue to operate expenses of the church, with its benevolence. The solicitors were reappointed: Gales Ferry, Mrs. Courtland E. Colver, Mrs. Laura A. Perkins, Long Cove, Mrs. Ellen Turner, Mrs. Myra Mather, Allyn's Point, Mrs. Olive Rogers, Mrs. Charles J. Pierce, Lately District, Charles H. Chapman. At the close of the Sunday morning service it was found necessary to conduct a brief meeting of the Epworth League to consider the fixed date of the supper given by the Ladies to the Whites, as it was found to occur on the same Tuesday evening that Bishop John W. Hamilton was to be in the Federal Street Methodist Episcopal church, New London and the pastor, with members of the Epworth League, were to attend. The date of the supper was changed. At the Sunday school session Dorothy Birch, Jr. received a bronze medal for eight consecutive Sundays. The evening service on Sunday was led by Miss Laura A. Perkins, theme, A. A. March Theatre.

Mrs. Eugene La Fontaine, Miss Grace Chapman and her guest, Mrs. Elmer Keene of Attawapung, with Miss Alice Satterlee and Florence Hubbard, attended the matinee Quincy Adams Sawyer in Norwich Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Delphine Fish, Mrs. Fanny A. Mott and Miss Alice Satterlee attended a meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Epworth League, at the home of Mrs. Satterlee, at 8.47 to 3.10 on Thursday last and the exhibit of ancient and modern embroidery, which was held at the Shaw mansion in New London.

Mrs. Harriet F. Crandall and Mr. and Mrs. Marian Pierson have returned from New York to their home in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin H. Peckham of Peckham's Point, attended the funeral of Mr. Peckham's brother, Alvin H. Peckham, at Jamesville, R. I. Wednesday. Mr. Peckham was 67 years of age, having been ill only a week.

Will Be Remodeled. Mrs. Nettie Peckham of Long Cove has purchased the building owned by Edward R. Perkins and used by him as a carpenter shop. The building near the cove and will have the building removed to the lot in the rear of her cottage and converted into a cottage for summer use.

Mrs. Sarah E. Colver of the Navy Yard is spending several days in Middletown with her brothers, Edward, Addison T. and Fred Chapman.

Trains Badly Missed. The new schedule of trains on the Norwich branch of the New Haven railroad affects the village rather severely. There is no southbound train accommodation from 8.47 a. m. to 3.10 in the afternoon. Gales Ferry has always had the best service the branch afforded and why things at this time have not been explained. Villagers are obliged to cross the river and walk one mile to the railroad station to be in New London during the six hours of no-train service.

Miss Alice Satterlee is spending the week at the home of her brother, Elmer Satterlee, at North Haven. A private telephone has been installed between the houses of James P. Freeman and Latham Smith, for the especial benefit of Mr. Freeman, who is in feeble health.

Heard Methodist Bishop. Rev. C. Wilson Harrison, Dudley C. Perkins, treasurer of M. E. church, and H. Irving Hilditch, secretary of the Epworth League, were in New London at the Federal Street Methodist church to hear Bishop Hamilton and attend the banquet given the bishop Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Eliza Tarrant of Brooklyn, N. Y. is a guest at the home of Mrs. Justin H. Peckham. Henry W. Hurlbut had a portable sawmill saw twenty cords of wood at his farm, Woodville, Tuesday.

Edward Latimer was in Haven on business last week and attended the song recital at the Hyperion given by E. R. Alexander, a nephew of Rev. George H. Murphy of Moore's Hill, Indiana.

Miss Gladys Latimer of Palmertown was a caller at the home of Mrs. Emma B. Latimer Saturday.

GLASGO. Supper Nets Over $15—Postponed Quarterly Conference This Evening.

The Ladies Aid circle realized $15.09 from the supper held in social hall Friday evening.

Postponed Conference. The postponed quarterly conference of the Epworth League will be held this Saturday evening at the parsonage at 7 o'clock. The superintendent, Rev. George S. Smith, will preach at the Bethel, Sunday morning at 10.45.

P. J. Gustafson was the leader of the Epworth League. The subject will be Missions—A Prisoner of Hope, the Story of Yun Chi Ho, Epl. 8, 1-13.

The predicted weather disturbance reached here Wednesday morning in the shape of a hard thunder shower and hail storm. It was so dark from 9 to 10 a. m. that lamps had to be lighted. The lights were turned on in the mill and stores.

John McGovern and family have moved from the village to the Calvin Wilcox farm near the Bethel.

NORTH FRANKLIN. M. W. Club Meets With Mrs. Jeannette Hoffman.

Mrs. J. W. Frink attended the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Main of Ledyard last Thursday.

Mrs. Annie Adams of Ledyard is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Clark.

OLD MYSTIC

Government Agents Find No Moth Nests—Hike of Boy Scouts—Burial of Miss Delia Lamb.

The party of Scouts employed by the U. S. government to search for gypsy moths left Old Mystic a few days ago after five weeks' stay here. They found no moth masses in Old Mystic or nearby districts.

Boy Scouts' Hike. The Boy Scouts took a hike Saturday afternoon to the Horse Pound near Center Groton. Those who enjoyed the outing were Homer Williams, Charlie Tinker, Edward Walker, John Gilbert, Freddie Marchand, Elbert Davis, Charles Welles, John Marchand, and the other members of the team. The Scouts really missed Scoutmaster Rev. Henry E. Anderson and sons from the party. This was the first hike the Scouts have taken since Rev. Mr. Anderson left for his new field at Rowayton.

Death of Miss Delia Lamb. Mrs. James B. Chapman received the sad news of the sudden death of her sister, Miss Delia Lamb, formerly of Old Mystic, at her home in Medford, Mass. Her body was brought to the Epworth cemetery Monday morning for burial in the family plot. Rev. Herbert Bacon Hutchins officiated. Mystic conducted the burial service.

The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church met Wednesday afternoon and evening with Mrs. Frank E. Wilcox. The supper was served from 6 to 8 o'clock.

Theodore Johnson is janitor of the Old Mystic school building. Henry Meech, janitor for the past two years, was obliged to give up the work owing to poor health.

The United Workers of the Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George G. Harris.

Lawrence Dana Taylor Gallup of Cambridge came here to attend the funeral of his uncle, Arthur Parton of Yonkers, N. Y.

Miss Grace Agaloe Brown of Brookside has been spending the winter with her cousin, Mrs. Maria Bertman.

Mrs. Mary Holmes of Quonsetquam Hill is the guest of relatives at Preston City.

Miss Susan H. Babcock is the guest of her brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace A. Phillips of Bridgeport.

Mrs. Emma A. Williams has returned to her normal home after a week's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice A. Williams of North Haven.

Mrs. Antonie Leontis of Norwich was a recent guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin E. Welch.

George D. Saunders returned Wednesday to Boston after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Brown.

Mrs. Maurice B. Caswell and daughter Esther were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Caswell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Babcock of North Stonington.

Robert C. Burchard has a new touring car ready for the season. Miss Susan Jerome, who has been ill with grip, is recovering.

Rev. J. F. Rogers was in town Monday and Mrs. James E. Comstock, who were accompanied by Miss Mary Pahl, have arrived at St. Andrews, Fla., where they will remain for several weeks.

Mrs. Charles T. Beebe has been entertaining her mother, Mrs. Samuel Hannev, who returned to her home in Waterbury, Conn. Wednesday.

The Ladies Aid society met in the Quaker Hill church parlors Wednesday afternoon.

Hart Johnson Engagement. The engagement of Miss Florence Hart to Herman Johnson has been announced. The marriage is to take place Tuesday the 24th.

J. R. Dandridge of Norwich was the guest of Fred W. Chapel over Sunday. Moses Chapman, who has been spending the winter at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hilditch in Salem, has returned home.

Frank Crandall, who has been confined to his home with pneumonia, was able to go to New London Tuesday. The C. M. Robertson Co. have placed a new well curb over the back road which was blown down by windstorm in the recent windstorm.

Arrivals at the Grove. Howard Purkin of Hartford has arrived in the Grove for the season. Dr. and Mrs. George M. Barrett who have been passing the winter with relatives in Hartford, arrived at their cottage in the Pines, Monday.

F. A. Beckwith has men and teams carting ties from the woods back of the Stone House to the freight yard for shipment.

W. J. Manwaring of New Haven spent a short time Monday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Manwaring in East Main street. Mr. Manwaring is conductor on one of the fast express trains between New York and Boston.

Mrs. Josephine M. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Farmer and the Misses Farmer have arrived at Sunshine Villa to remain until fall.

Mrs. Case of Albany, N. Y., has leased a cottage from R. L. Manwaring and will arrive shortly. Capt. and Mrs. N. W. Rogers returned Sunday evening from a few days visit to New Haven.

NORTH STONINGTON

Special Union Services to Begin March 29th—Perkins-Tillinghast Marriage—Lightning Strikes House.

The pastors of the two churches in this village have been working and planning together for some weeks. They have arranged for special union services which will begin Sunday evening, March 29, in the Congregational church, and on the second week will be held in the Baptist church. Below is the programme with dates and speakers:

Sunday evening church—Sunday evening, March 29, Rev. J. L. Peacock, Westerly (expected); Tuesday evening, March 31, Rev. G. H. Strouse, Norwich; Wednesday evening, April 1, Rev. R. M. McNally, New London (expected); Thursday evening, April 2, Rev. G. C. Campbell, New London; Friday evening, April 3, Rev. G. Glenn Atkins, Providence.

Baptist church—Sunday evening, April 5, Rev. M. C. Abbott, Westerly; Tuesday evening, April 7, Rev. U. R. McNally, New London (expected); Wednesday evening, April 8, Rev. G. C. Campbell, New London; Thursday evening, April 9, Rev. Wilson R. Stewart, Stamford.

Friday evening, April 10, at the grand hall. Open meeting to every body, at which there will be a noted speaker, to be announced later.

The announcement of the special meetings signed by Rev. F. M. Hollister, Rev. G. H. Chambers and Rev. Lucian Drury, and concludes:

Sunday evening, April 5, Easter, Rev. A. B. Coats, D. D. of Hartford. This will be the closing service and will be held in the Baptist church. Every one is invited to attend. A company is urged to plan his or her work so as to be able to attend these union meetings. Let us come to these houses of prayer with a prayer for those who minister and a good will toward all. The pastors and people of these churches welcome you to all their services.

Perkins-Tillinghast. John E. Perkins and Miss Amy L. Tillinghast were married last Saturday at the residence of Frank T. Main by Rev. G. H. Chambers in the presence of near relatives.

Mrs. H. M. Pendleton spent Sunday with friends in Northampton, Mass. The village grammar and primary schools, which have been closed two weeks on account of a scarlet fever scare, will reopen Monday. The school-rooms were fumigated.

House Struck by Lightning. The residence of J. Edwin Thompson was struck by lightning in the storm of Wednesday morning, but not much damage was done. William H. Partello is to move to the Daniel H. Frink farm, about April 1.

LEDYARD

Probate Court Business—Selectmen Make Division of Fence Between Main Farms.

Miss Florence Adams of Montville, who has been substituting in district school, returned to her home in Montville. The probate court has appointed Charles A. Gray and Isaac G. Geer appraisers on the estate of Thomas P. Norman.

Death of Infant. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Church died at the residence of her parents Thursday.

Joseph A. Clark has secured the services of Arthur Avery. Isaac G. Geer has been remodeling his barn.

Walter Hibberd R. Norman of Norwich was a recent business caller in town.

Miss Mary Lamb has entered the employ of the Norwich and Westerly Traction company.

Miss Rathbone of Norwich is teaching in district No. 4.

Divide Main Farms. The selectmen on Wednesday made a division of fence between the farms of Oscar H. Main and Lafayette Main. Horace H. Main has been very ill.

Albert Whipple has leased the Larkham farm from William I. Allyn, executor of the estate of Mrs. E. L. Whipple. Christopher Baldwin has been appointed administrator on the estate of Ruth Ann Baldwin.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Friends in Town to Attend Funeral of Mrs. Chester J. Holmes—Clarke Sullard Recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Cummins and little daughter Thelma and Fred Royce and friends from South Coventry were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Cummings Sunday. The trip was made by automobile.

Ernest Bland and son visited their aunt, Mrs. Frank Browning, in East Colchester, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick returned to Waterbury Friday after spending a week at Henry J. Williams'.

Miss Grace E. Nettleton saw a deer recently.

Attended Funeral. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holmes and family of Norwich, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Watrous of Sterling, Mrs. John Healy of Hartford, Mrs. Edna Lombard of Colchester, Herbert Holmes of New Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. McDougall of Norwich, Mrs. Walter B. Burt of Quaker Hill, Walter Lombard of Hartford, Harold Lombard of South Coventry and other out of town relatives in Hartford, attended the funeral of Mrs. Chester J. Holmes Monday afternoon.

Personal Mention. Mrs. Bert Pierce of Quaker Hill spent the night of last Friday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown, and attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Chester Holmes, Monday.

Mrs. Maria C. Haas of Providence, R. I. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth L. Cummings.

NORTH STONINGTON

Special Union Services to Begin March 29th—Perkins-Tillinghast Marriage—Lightning Strikes House.

The pastors of the two churches in this village have been working and planning together for some weeks. They have arranged for special union services which will begin Sunday evening, March 29, in the Congregational church, and on the second week will be held in the Baptist church. Below is the programme with dates and speakers:

Sunday evening church—Sunday evening, March 29, Rev. J. L. Peacock, Westerly (expected); Tuesday evening, March 31, Rev. G. H. Strouse, Norwich; Wednesday evening, April 1, Rev. R. M. McNally, New London (expected); Thursday evening, April 2, Rev. G. C. Campbell, New London; Friday evening, April 3, Rev. G. Glenn Atkins, Providence.

Baptist church—Sunday evening, April 5, Rev. M. C. Abbott, Westerly; Tuesday evening, April 7, Rev. U. R. McNally, New London (expected); Wednesday evening, April 8, Rev. G. C. Campbell, New London; Thursday evening, April 9, Rev. Wilson R. Stewart, Stamford.

Friday evening, April 10, at the grand hall. Open meeting to every body, at which there will be a noted speaker, to be announced later.

The announcement of the special meetings signed by Rev. F. M. Hollister, Rev. G. H. Chambers and Rev. Lucian Drury, and concludes:

Sunday evening, April 5, Easter, Rev. A. B. Coats, D. D. of Hartford. This will be the closing service and will be held in the Baptist church. Every one is invited to attend. A company is urged to plan his or her work so as to be able to attend these union meetings. Let us come to these houses of prayer with a prayer for those who minister and a good will toward all. The pastors and people of these churches welcome you to all their services.

Perkins-Tillinghast. John E. Perkins and Miss Amy L. Tillinghast were married last Saturday at the residence of Frank T. Main by Rev. G. H. Chambers in the presence of near relatives.

Mrs. H. M. Pendleton spent Sunday with friends in Northampton, Mass. The village grammar and primary schools, which have been closed two weeks on account of a scarlet fever scare, will reopen Monday. The school-rooms were fumigated.

House Struck by Lightning. The residence of J. Edwin Thompson was struck by lightning in the storm of Wednesday morning, but not much damage was done. William H. Partello is to move to the Daniel H. Frink farm, about April 1.

LEDYARD

Probate Court Business—Selectmen Make Division of Fence Between Main Farms.

Miss Florence Adams of Montville, who has been substituting in district school, returned to her home in Montville. The probate court has appointed Charles A. Gray and Isaac G. Geer appraisers on the estate of Thomas P. Norman.

Death of Infant. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Church died at the residence of her parents Thursday.

Joseph A. Clark has secured the services of Arthur Avery. Isaac G. Geer has been remodeling his barn.

Walter Hibberd R. Norman of Norwich was a recent business caller in town.

Miss Mary Lamb has entered the employ of the Norwich and Westerly Traction company.

Miss Rathbone of Norwich is teaching in district No. 4.

Divide Main Farms. The selectmen on Wednesday made a division of fence between the farms of Oscar H. Main and Lafayette Main. Horace H. Main has been very ill.

Albert Whipple has leased the Larkham farm from William I. Allyn, executor of the estate of Mrs. E. L. Whipple. Christopher Baldwin has been appointed administrator on the estate of Ruth Ann Baldwin.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Friends in Town to Attend Funeral of Mrs. Chester J. Holmes—Clarke Sullard Recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Cummins and little daughter Thelma and Fred Royce and friends from South Coventry were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Cummings Sunday. The trip was made by automobile.

Ernest Bland and son visited their aunt, Mrs. Frank Browning, in East Colchester, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick returned to Waterbury Friday after spending a week at Henry J. Williams'.

Miss Grace E. Nettleton saw a deer recently.

Attended Funeral. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holmes and family of Norwich, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Watrous of Sterling, Mrs. John Healy of Hartford, Mrs. Edna Lombard of Colchester, Herbert Holmes of New Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. McDougall of Norwich, Mrs. Walter B. Burt of Quaker Hill, Walter Lombard of Hartford, Harold Lombard of South Coventry and other out of town relatives in Hartford, attended the funeral of Mrs. Chester J. Holmes Monday afternoon.

Personal Mention. Mrs. Bert Pierce of Quaker Hill spent the night of last Friday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown, and attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Chester Holmes, Monday.

Mrs. Maria C. Haas of Providence, R. I. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth L. Cummings.

NORTH STONINGTON

Special Union Services to Begin March 29th—Perkins-Tillinghast Marriage—Lightning Strikes House.

The pastors of the two churches in this village have been working and planning together for some weeks. They have arranged for special union services which will begin Sunday evening, March 29, in the Congregational church, and on the second week will be held in the Baptist church. Below is the programme with dates and speakers:

Sunday evening church—Sunday evening, March 29, Rev. J. L. Peacock, Westerly (expected); Tuesday evening, March 31, Rev. G. H. Strouse, Norwich; Wednesday evening, April 1, Rev. R. M. McNally, New London (expected); Thursday evening, April 2, Rev. G. C. Campbell, New London; Friday evening, April 3, Rev. G. Glenn Atkins, Providence.

Baptist church—Sunday evening, April 5, Rev. M. C. Abbott, Westerly; Tuesday evening, April 7, Rev. U. R. McNally, New London (expected); Wednesday evening, April 8, Rev. G. C. Campbell, New London; Thursday evening, April 9, Rev. Wilson R. Stewart, Stamford.

Friday evening, April 10, at the grand hall. Open meeting to every body, at which there will be a noted speaker, to be announced later.

The announcement of the special meetings signed by Rev. F. M. Hollister, Rev. G. H. Chambers and Rev. Lucian Drury, and concludes:

Sunday evening, April 5, Easter, Rev. A. B. Coats, D. D. of Hartford. This will be the closing service and will be held in the Baptist church. Every one is invited to attend. A company is urged to plan his or her work so as to be able to attend these union meetings. Let us come to these houses of prayer with a prayer for those who minister and a good will toward all. The pastors and people of these churches welcome you to all their services.

Perkins-Tillinghast. John E. Perkins and Miss Amy L. Tillinghast were married last Saturday at the residence of Frank T. Main by Rev. G. H. Chambers in the presence of near relatives.

Mrs. H. M. Pendleton spent Sunday with friends in Northampton, Mass. The village grammar and primary schools, which have been closed two weeks on account of a scarlet fever scare, will reopen Monday. The school-rooms were fumigated.

House Struck by Lightning. The residence of J. Edwin Thompson was struck by lightning in the storm of Wednesday morning, but not much damage was done. William H. Partello is to move to the Daniel H. Frink farm, about April 1.

LEDYARD

Probate Court Business—Selectmen Make Division of Fence Between Main Farms.

Miss Florence Adams of Montville, who has been substituting in district school, returned to her home in Montville. The probate court has appointed Charles A. Gray and Isaac G. Geer appraisers on the estate of Thomas P. Norman.

Death of Infant. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Church died at the residence of her parents Thursday.

Joseph A. Clark has secured the services of Arthur Avery. Isaac G. Geer has been remodeling his barn.

Walter Hibberd R. Norman of Norwich was a recent business caller in town.

Miss Mary Lamb has entered the employ of the Norwich and Westerly Traction company.

Miss Rathbone of Norwich is teaching in district No. 4.

Divide Main Farms. The selectmen on Wednesday made a division of fence between the farms of Oscar H. Main and Lafayette Main. Horace H. Main has been very ill.

Albert Whipple has leased the Larkham farm from William I. Allyn, executor of the estate of Mrs. E. L. Whipple. Christopher Baldwin has been appointed administrator on the estate of Ruth Ann Baldwin.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Friends in Town to Attend Funeral of Mrs. Chester J. Holmes—Clarke Sullard Recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Cummins and little daughter Thelma and Fred Royce and friends from South Coventry were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Cummings Sunday. The trip was made by automobile.

Ernest Bland and son visited their aunt, Mrs. Frank Browning, in East Colchester, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick returned to Waterbury Friday after spending a week at Henry J. Williams'.

Miss Grace E. Nettleton saw a deer recently.

Attended Funeral. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holmes and family of Norwich, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Watrous of Sterling, Mrs. John Healy of Hartford, Mrs. Edna Lombard of Colchester, Herbert Holmes of New Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. McDougall of Norwich, Mrs. Walter B. Burt of Quaker Hill, Walter Lombard of Hartford, Harold Lombard of South Coventry and other out of town relatives in Hartford, attended the funeral of Mrs. Chester J. Holmes Monday afternoon.

Personal Mention. Mrs. Bert Pierce of Quaker Hill spent the night of last Friday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown, and attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Chester Holmes, Monday.

Mrs. Maria C. Haas of Providence, R. I. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth L. Cummings.

Norwich as a Trade-Center

WHAT SHE HAS TO OFFER! WHAT IS YOUR EXPERIENCE?

$50.00 TO BE WON IN PRIZES

Five $5.00 Prizes to Norwich writers who shall tell what her attractions—what she has to offer to visiting buyers.

Five $5.00 Prizes to Outside writers who patronize Norwich merchants and are able to set forth the advantages of coming here to buy goods or supplies.

These letters should be from 600 to 800 words in length—written in black ink upon one side of the paper, and the latest date for mailing shall be

THE 28th DAY OF MARCH.

These competitions are open to men and women and youth of both sexes wherever The Bulletin circulates.

Please give this matter your earliest attention—there may be $5.00 in it for you!

Address all letters to Competition Editor, Bulletin, Norwich, Conn.

Letters signed with pen name should also be accompanied with full address.

CANTERBURY GREEN

Religious Interests—Accidents During the Past Week—Grange Membership Contest.

Last Sunday's sermon was on the name of Christ's disciples—Christians, Acts 11: 26. The midweek meetings at Deacon Rowland's and at the parsonage particularly considered Christ's teaching on the nature and foundation of the kingdom as shown in the records of His Year of Popularity. Next week's meetings covering in study the period of rejection and growing hostility will consider His claims and characteristics. The afternoon meeting will be held at 3 o'clock at the parsonage.

Sunday's Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 p. m. in the church will have for its subject Our Society a Training School, Prov. 22: 6. The leader will be Miss Jones.

Recent Accidents. At last Sunday evening's C. E. meeting a special vote of sympathy was taken in consequence of the absence of Edward Green, the janitor of the church, who is suffering from a severe cut on his foot received when chopping wood at Mrs. Lewis Lyons'. Mr. Green's faithfulness is much appreciated.

Roger Brown, son of Beecher Brown of Black Hill, was struck on the forehead by a bat when playing ball and for several days laid up in consequence. The boy is back in school.

At John Dodge's in Plainfield, Ar. Tracey of Canterbury had three fingers of his right hand taken off by a gasoline saw. Mr. Tracey is left handed but this accident will be a serious detriment to his work.

Cl. Waterhouse of Baltimore has returned to that city after a visit of several months with his mother, who is in feeble health at the Green.

Miss Elise Homard is visiting in Boston. Miss Fulton, her hostess, is one of Canterbury's summer residents. She has had a studio here for several years.

Had St. Patrick's Day Programme. Canterbury Grange Wednesday afternoon held a regular meeting with 23 members present. The Grange is being excited by a membership contest now going on. A St. Patrick's programme was followed by a social hour.

EAST KILLINGLY. Party For Miss Alice Lewis—Local Men at Farmers' Institute.

George Pray of Ballouville was the guest Sunday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pray.

Almond Bartlett of Danielson, visited relatives here last Thursday.

Miss Susan Barrows of Dayville, spent Sunday with her aunt, Miss Mary Foster.

Norwich friends have been entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Anson Maynard, the past week.

Ray G. Shippee and Irving French Jr. attended the Farmers' Institute at Providence last week.

William Y