COLONIAL THEATRE.

The Calling of Jim Barton, Wonderful Story With G. M. Anderson.

This beautiful story, teaching a lesson to young boys, tells of a wayward son who, when reproved by his parents for a misdemeanor, leaves home and becomes an outlaw. His brother, an honorable lad, stays with the parents, and eventually becomes sheriff of the village. Some time later the sheriff is notified to search for a pair of outlaws who are terrorizing the country and starting on his mission. Jim's tale in a spirit of revenge tells of the outlaw's whereabouts and later the sheriff is brought face to face with the ruffian whom he discovered to be his brother. The sheriff is about to allow his brother to escape, but the outlaw takes the matter into his own hands, and the closing of the scene is a strong and stirring drama in which youth innocently combats with age. The story of the Willow Pattern is a delightfully rendered pictorial rendition of the legend of old China made famous by its application to the familiar blue and white crockery. The program supplies two comedies, "Being Their Board BSH" and "The Paddists," and there is another big film for today.

NORWICH TOWN

Sermon to Children—New Brunswick Singer at First Church—Private Sale at Beekwith Residence.

At the First Congregational church Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. G. H. Ewing preached a most interesting sermon to children from the text, "While thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone." The contralto solo, "My Redeemer and I," was rendered with fine expression by Mrs. John E. Luther of St. John, New Brunswick, and was greatly enjoyed by those present as was also the solo, "Rest in the Lord," from the organ of Elijah, which was given at the offertory.

Mr. C. H. Bushnell of the West Side, who has been at Beckwith Hospital for several weeks, has so far recovered from the attack of muscular rheumatism as to be with her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Prothro of Vergason avenue for a time.

Sale at Beekwith Home.
There was a private sale of household goods from the estate of the late Miss A. L. Beekwith at the house on West Town street last week. Nearly all the things were sold and brought good prices.

Home From Sag Harbor.
Mrs. Fordham of Vergason avenue returned Friday after passing the week in Sag Harbor, Long Island, having been called by the death of her sister's husband.

Attended Brother's Funeral.
Mrs. William H. Fitch of East Town street was in Mystic Monday to attend the funeral of her brother, W. H. Smith.

Briefs and Personal.

Mrs. Jennie Leary of Pritchville has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Ailyn of Tanner street.
Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Masfit and family moved Monday from Harland's Corner to Franklin street, Norwich.

Nelson Ford who has purchased the Beekwith place on West Town street, is moving there this week.

After passing several months on West Town street, Mrs. Belle Cook has returned to her home in the city.

Converse Smith of West street returned Saturday, after spending part of the week in Moosup on a business trip.

Mrs. Beatrice Underwood has returned to her home on Pecks corner, after a week's visit with relatives in New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Hitchcock and family are moving today (Tuesday) from 123 West Town street to Boswell avenue, Norwich.

Mrs. Bigelow who has made her home uptown for the past two or three years, left last week and is located in the city for a time.

Miss Emily Beckwith a member of the faculty of the Emma Willard school, Troy, N. Y., has returned after spending the vacation here and in the city.

Mrs. Roy Johnson of Montville and Mrs. Emma Gardner of Occum were guests a day or two last week at the home of Mrs. Eliza Geer, on the Scotland road.

Mrs. Fanny M. Holmes of East Town street left Monday for Hartford to visit her daughter, Mrs. Grzywacz, before returning to New York. She is with her son, Frederick Holmes in New Britain.

Mrs. Woodbury O. Rogers and her daughter, Miss Marion Rogers of Washington street left Monday to visit in New Rochelle, N. Y. Before returning they will make a brief stay in New York city.

YOUR HAIR NEEDS
PARISIAN SAGE

It Quickly Removes Dandruff, Stops Falling Hair and Scalp Itch.

Just because your hair is full of dandruff, thin, streaky, dull, and never will do up to look pretty, do not think that it is so. Beautiful hair, thick, fluffy, lustrous and absolutely free from dandruff is only a matter of a little care. Hair is like a plant—it needs attention.

A Little Parisian Sage, one of the most helpful and invigorating tonics, frequently applied and well rubbed into the scalp, will work wonders. Just one application stops itching head, removes dandruff, cleanses the hair and scalp of all dust and excessive oil. It goes right to the hair roots stimulating them and furnishing the nourishment that is needed—the hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life.

Parisian Sage not only saves the hair and stimulates it to grow long and heavy but gives it that incomparable gloss and beauty so much desired by both girls and women of all ages. Get a bottle from Lee & Osgood Co. at once. Use it as directed and if you are not both surprised and delighted with results they will return your money.

Parisian Sage is faintly perfumed—no lasting odor—not sticky or greasy, and is sold in 50 cent bottles at drug and toilet counters everywhere. There is no other "Just-as-good." Accept nothing else.

POETRY

REPRIEVE.
The other day it dawned on me,
A sudden shock across our play,
He is so old—the miracle
May happen any day!

The miracle at any hour
This small man—come at my knee
May grave upon his soul his first
Clear memory of me.

Some trivial moment, slackened mood,
Impracticably there may trace
Me pictures at heart beat
My sweet, dead mother's face.

I—I unworthy. Let me bow
(Like kneeling page of old, to feel,
Laid on his shoulder, stiff and shriveled,
The consecrating steel).

Abased in utter thankfulness
Before the mirror of his eyes:
He is so little yet—I still
How simple the heart that knows
—Charlotte Wilson, in Scribner's Magazine.

HAVING NOTHING, HATH ALL.
How happy is he born and taught,
That serveth not another's will;
Whose armor is his honest thought,
Who simple life that sordid strife
Who God doth late and early pray
More of His grace than gifts to lend,
And his best glory is but that
Which well chosen book or friend,
This man is free from servile hands
Of hope to rise or fear to fall,
Lord of himself, though not of lands,
And, having nothing, yet hath all,
—Indianapolis News.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"Why do you always carry your umbrella, even when it is not raining?" "So someone else won't carry it when it is raining."—Houston Post.

"Jones, the lawyer, is becoming deaf, is he not?" "Yes, all that's left to him is an appointment to a judgeship."—Minneapolis Minnehaha.

Featherstone—Look here, Bobbie, I don't see you hanging around the parlor any more when I first came, you were hanging around the kitchen, you were hanging around the kitchen, you were hanging around the kitchen."—Life.

Pat (with newspaper)—Here's a writer says that slaps is "death's counterfeit." Mike—Beggara, thin, Old sooner have the counterfeiter than the real thing. Philadelphia Ledger.

"Nature's works are marvelous." "Yes, isn't it fortunate that she provided every woman with some real hair to pin braids and switch to?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"At this point," said the narrator, "she broke down and wept scalding tears." "My goodness!" exclaimed a listener. "She must have been boiling over with rage!"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Redd—He's become a great entertainer since he got his automobile. Greene—You don't say so! Redd—Sure. He's had a "blow-out" nearly every day. Vankers Stateman.

"We all think our own job the hardest," observed the humorist on his vacation. "Yew bet!" agreed the farmer. "I try to talk like this and yew hev tew spell it."—Puck.

"I say, colonel, why do you always take your drink with your eyes shut?" "Well, s'en, if Ah was to drink with mah eyes open, mah mouth would water, an' Ah'd care to dilute the liquor."—Judge.

Hicks—Isn't Withington a long time getting well? They told me three weeks ago that he was convalescent. Wicks—I see you know what a pretty nurse Withington has—Somerville Journal.

"At what period in life should a man's income be largest?" "It is usually reported to be largest at the period of his life in which his wife tries to show the court how much alimony he could pay."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Gibbs—What do you think of this idea of counting ten before you speak when angry? Gibbs—Well, I know this, that counting out $10 when my wife is angry has a mighty soothing effect.—Boston Transcript.

Bank Teller—This check is all right, but you must be introduced. Can't you bring in your husband? Woman—Who? Jack? Oh, my! Jack thought you wanted an introduction to me, he'd knock your block off!—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE
The butter order of New York city amounts to 300,000 pounds every day. Rich gold fields recently were discovered in the Russian district of Anadyr.

Only 400 cattle were exported from this country in January, including pure bred animals. Cables linking British and North American ports convey about thirty million words a year.

Uruguay last year began to contribute to the supplies of chilled beef of the United Kingdom. Until ten years ago, the street railway and electric light wire were virtually unknown in China.

At the fair held in Yakutsk, Siberia, last July, 46,946 pounds of bones of the mammoth were sold. Madrid proposes to utilize the water brought to the city by an old canal to produce about three thousand electrical horse power.

Because women may not legally work more than eight hours daily, Denver stores will hereafter open at 9 a. m. and close at 5.30 p. m. Officials of Swansea, N. Y., have decided to appoint to the borough police force only unmarried men who will undertake to remain single for four years.

The known coal areas of the United States cover 310,000 square miles and there are 160,000 square miles believed to be underlaid with marketable coal. The board of health of a Canadian town visited the slaughter houses the other day and straightway announced that they would become vegetarians.

The national forests contain water powers with an aggregate estimated capacity of 12,000,000 horse power, available for use under permit from the secretary of agriculture. As a result of negotiations between employers and the Birmingham carters, an agreement was reached at the close of last year for a minimum wage of 28c ($6.73) for a 60-hour week.

The announcement that the government has "planted" some $76,954,654 fish eggs this season arouses a feeling of hope that some day science will succeed in crossing the barnyard hen with the snail, says the Boston Transcript.

French Indo-China consists of the colony of Cochinchina, a French possession, the five protectorates of Tonkin, Annam, Cambodia, Laos and Luang Prabang, the territory around Pattambang, which was ceded by Siam in 1907 and which is administered by the Indo-China government as a quasi protectorate, and the territory of Quan Tchou An, which is leased from China.
