ACCUSED OF THEFT. Man With Four Briarwood Pipes in Woolworth Store.

Found with four briarwood pipes on him, Walter Eraso, 27, was accused of theft from the Woolworth Co. store on Main street and arrested Friday at 6 o'clock Friday evening by Detective Charles Smith and Patrick Murphy.

The officers were sent to the store when Chief Linton had a telephone call from there that they were wanted to arrest a person who had stolen a pipe. The accused had been seen to take the pipes.

Particularly effective from a scenic point of view were the first and last pictures on the program, the one of picturesque wooded mountains, while the maris of the play where the cast picture on a broken open area, the scene was at the end of the third scene, where Eraso called after another picture on the program, the one of Louis and Eugene Weber as Jack Hale were brought out to bow their acknowledgments of the cordial applause.

As June, Miss Lowe gave an especially interesting picture of the part, while Mr. Weber was strong in the character assigned him, and the other cast members were very regular in their characterizations that they were called upon to make. They included John Remick, Miss Eva Bellon, Noah Berry, C. Paul Schwager, Marguerite Abbott and Barrett Greenwood.

OBITUARY. George T. Chapman. George T. Chapman died at the New London Memorial hospital April 9th after an illness of some days caused by dropsy and heart disease.

Mr. Chapman was born in the town of Griswold April 13, 1848, the son of George A. Chapman and Martha Bromley.

He married Miss Sophia Main, who died young, and had two children, eight children, only two of whom survive, Mrs. Stephen Lee of North Stonington and Stiles Chapman of California. Mr. Chapman had one brother and three sisters, one sister, Mrs. Henry Austin, having died about two years ago. Those who survive are Mrs. Betsey Main of Preston, Mrs. Henry M. Chapman, superintendent of the Norwich almshouse.

Sixteen Year Old Horse Dropped Dead. A horse owned by Robert A. Beetham, a well known Wauregan Hillman, dropped dead while standing in front of the residence of Charles H. Briggs on Broadway about 11 o'clock Friday night. The horse was driven by Mr. Beetham's daughter Alice, who was on her way home, and had been in the street for some time. The girl had just gotten out of the carriage and had started for the house when the saw the horse drop.

Dr. F. D. Coles, veterinary, was called and said death was due to a ruptured aortic aneurism. The horse was named Belle and was about 16 years old and had been in the Beetham family for 15 years. In its day the animal was very valuable and was as gentle as a lamb. Casper K. Bailey recovered the carcass.

Overlooking a Good Bet. Is Mine. Callahan too ignorant of some back with the return to health. Name given by Postum Co. Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason" for Alexander.

Ever read the above letter. A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.
