TEXT OF ADMIRAL MIAO'S DEMANDS

Which President Wilson Insists that Huerta Must Comply with as Amends for Arrest of Sailors,

REJECTS IDEA OF "SIMULTANEOUS SALUTE"

President Wilson Stands Firmly for a Literal Compliance With the Original Demand—Many Officials Think a Majority of the Ships of the Atlantic Fleet Will be on Hand When Salute is Fired.

Washington, April 17.—President Wilson's daily rejection of General Huerta's suggestion for a "simultaneous salute" to the American flag...

The Washington government informed Huerta that the salute was untenable and that, as demanded by Rear Admiral Miao, a salute to the American flag would be insisted upon...

No reply to the last American note transmitted through the British embassy had been received up to late today, and no orders to the American fleet to salute the Mexican flag had been issued...

In connection with the purpose of the American fleet to salute the Mexican flag, the navy department gave on the text of Rear Admiral Miao's demands as follows:

Text of Admiral Miao's Demands.—"This morning an officer and squad of men of the military forces arrived and marched through the streets of Tampico a company of 200 men of the United States navy, the paymaster of the Dolphin, together with seven men composing the crew of the Dolphin...
