WESTERLY LIBRARY GETS PHOTO

Fred Stewart Greene Presents Picture of Stonington Battle Flag—High School Team Defeats Alumni—Firemen Parade Before Hose Company's Fair Opens.

Fred Stewart Greene has presented the Western Memorial and Library association a large copyrighted photograph of the battle flag used at Stonington, August 10, 1814. It is the only photograph of the flag and was taken by Mr. Greene in 1909. The photograph is to be reproduced in Henry M. Knicker's history of the United States and its People, to be completed in sixteen volumes, seven of which have been published. The flag is a large one, 18x12, and there are sixteen white stars in the blue field representing the states of the Union a century ago, which has since increased to 48. The flag has also 15 stripes, it being the original intention to add a stripe as well as a star for each state of the Union, but as this was not practical the original 13 stripes became standard. This battle flag is preserved in a small glass case where it is carefully folded and is in the custody of the Stonington Library association. The flag is of bunting, considerably tattered and torn, somewhat patched and the greatest care was exercised in handling the record to prevent parts of it dropping away. Mr. Greene secured a copy of the photograph, the flag when there was no wind, and with the aid of three assistants, hung the flag on the side of the Stanton residence, opposite the library building, where the photograph was taken. Then the flag was carefully refolded and replaced in its glass case where it will probably remain to the end of time. The combination auto chemical and hose wagon sent voluntary to Westernly for demonstration, was called elsewhere Friday. No opportunity was given the demonstrator to demonstrate the qualities of the fire apparatus and he tried to interest the public by showing the machine as best he could by an occasional street exhibition. Rev. Benjamin D. Hahn, D. D., for many years pastor of the State Street Baptist church, Springfield, Mass., who resigned a few months ago, has received a call from the Pendleton Avenia Baptist church, of Greenville, South Carolina. He is now in Greenville and preached there the last two Sundays. It is not yet known whether he will accept the call. Dr. Hahn was a former pastor of Calvary Baptist church, in Westernly. Mrs. Hahn is sister of Miss Helen Pitts Pendleton, president of Wellesley college, and has four brothers, all natives of Westernly. The first baseball game of consequence played in Westernly this season was witnessed by quite a number of the younger set of baseball fans and a sprinkling of old-in-the-wool fans who have followed the game since childhood. The contestants were from the alumni of the Westernly High school and the high school team of today. The game was played Friday afternoon on the Vose field, with the understanding that the players should not be criticized and the same leniency shown them as is given to the home talent that produces the amateur plays, inasmuch as the players did their best. The alumni team was made up in this battling order: Byron Champion, George Wilcox, B. Raymond, Hiscox, Harold Rogers, L. Louis Foley, James Murphy, C. Adam, Archie B. Norman, Stanton, Charles Briggs. The Westernly High school team was represented by these athletes: William Pennington, C. Moses, Lowry, B. Walker, Flynn, B. Walker, Butler, B. Bowman, Coon, Roy, Wilcox, B. Walker, Smith, C. Barclay, Robinson, H. Leverett, Briggs, et al. The alumni were defeated by a score of 8 to 7. Local Schools. The Park avenue school is closed on account of the cases of scarlet fever in that district. George Hadden of Norwich was in Westernly Friday. There was no criminal business for the Third district court Friday. Rev. Samuel H. Davis will supply the pulpit of the First Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. James Scott, a former Westernly score cutter, died Thursday in New York. Burial will be in Westernly. Policeman Donald Ferguson, who has been off duty for several months by reason of sickness, has recovered and returned to duty. Fully two-thirds of the laborers who went on strike for advance in pay three weeks ago and who out are now among the unemployed. A marble cutter was engaged Friday in smoothing the joints of the marble blocks in the oval front of the new post office building. At the annual meeting of Grace Methodist church, B. M. Hinman was elected president, E. B. Kenyon vice president, W. G. Spargo secretary and F. E. Fowler treasurer. The Niagara Engine company of New London and the Noank Fire company were guests Friday night of the Pioneer Hook and Ladder company in Stonington. The New Londoners made the trip in automobiles. The Wheeler and Downey circus went out of existence at the close of last season and now the proprietors are on the road with separate shows. The Wheeler circus will be in Westernly in May. The Downey attraction, known as Latena circus, will be in Westernly, New London and Norwich during next month. Rev. F. C. A. Jones conducted the funeral service of William Lord Thursday afternoon at his residence in Main street, a large number of friends attending. Burial was at River Bend. The bearers were Alfred Burdick, Fred Greene, Frank Edwards, and Robert Potter. Henry V. Whitford, a resident of Tug Hollow, Richmond, was arrested Thursday for selling liquor without a license. He was held by Oscar E. Barber, justice of the peace, in bonds of $100 and will be tried in the Third district court, at Hope Valley, next Thursday. Headed by the Westernly band, the several organizations of the Westernly fire department, the Westernly Veteran Firemen's association and the P. S. Barber Hose company, paraded Friday evening before the opening of the fair of the Alert Hook and Ladder company in Hipernian hall. The report of the treasurer of the Seventh-day Baptist Trust society for the quarter ending with March shows a contribution of $25 from the First Hopkinton church. The sum of $2,922.46 was received in January, $1,261.02 in February and $1,308.88 in March, a total for the quarter of $5,492.36. The jurors from Westernly summoned for the session of the superior court that opens Monday at Kingston are: Oscar Vose, Ashel Larkin, Robert A. Hiscox, John A. Stillman, John C. Anderson, petit jury; John T. Mauran, Louis Solomon, Arthur Greenman, Charles M. Seabe, Edwin L. Hood, F. Samion Nardone, grand jurors. The grand jurors will report Monday and the petit Wednesday. The Westernly Historical society has appointed Ethian Wilcox, Fred Stewart Greene, Mrs. Lucy M. M. Foster, Miss Jennie E. Miner and Mrs. LaCiede Woodmansee, to arrange for an outing. Professor W. H. Munro, of the Rhode Island Historical society, will read a paper at the next meeting on "The Most Successful American Privateer." NOANK Friday evening the fire company of the village attended the fair of the Neptune Hose Co. in Stonington. A most delightful time was spent and a special car of the Groton and Stonington line brought the boys home. Baseball enthusiasts are making an effort to secure the use of the diamond at Poquonoc race track for this season. An interesting meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church was held Friday afternoon. John McInnes, who had a leg removed in Lawrence hospital recently as the result of an accident in the Midway yard, is improving. C. B. Green of New London has been visiting in the village. Capt. Charles T. Potter has returned to his home in Norwich after a visit here. Friday evening the Noank camp of Modern Woodmen held a meeting in Mechanics' hall. A good number of members were present. The Mission Study class held a meeting at the Baptist parsonage with Mrs. W. G. Allen as hostess. Mrs. Edward Ashby entertained the True Blue society at her home in Front street. A social hour followed the work of the evening. MYSTIC Sites for Federal Building Get High and Scarce When Government Wants One—Camp Fire Girls' Entertainment. Brammell T. Davis of the treasury department at Washington, D. C., has been in Mystic this week looking over sites for sale for the purpose of the federal building. The Tripp property on East Main street is talked of as a desirable location and if this plot is decided upon for the new post office an additional appropriation would be necessary as the price is larger than anticipated. There are several pieces of property available that are quite central to the business part of the village which were given a thorough inspection. The decision of the treasury department will not be made public for some time. The bank property known as the old D. I. Miner property and the Winthrop Burrows property, owned by Mrs. T. E. Packard, are considered good sites for the building. Mystic River Bank people were willing to sell, but Mrs. Packard said she did not care to dispose of the property. On the east side of the river the Capt. Tripp property was offered for $18,000. The Sutton lot on the corner of Jackson avenue and East Main street and the Babcock lot on the corner of Wilbur and East Main streets were other places considered. If the Babcock lot was purchased it would be necessary to buy a strip of the Fish property adjoining on the west, thus bringing this site to a cost of $4,000. Funeral of George Davis. The funeral of George Davis was held from the home of his brother, Ellery Davis, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Rev. A. H. Wilbee, pastor of the Old Mystic Methodist church, conducted the services. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery. Camp Fire Girls Entertainment. The Camp Fire girls gave an entertainment in the assembly hall of the Broadway school Friday evening. The following program was rendered: Welcome, Miss Margaret Galvin; solo, Spring, Mrs. Grace Crowell; folk dance, Beat the Flax, Boating Song, Booga Man, Mammy Moon, 'Twas April Allah, The Last Snow Leaves His Nest, Mrs. Grace Crowell; piano solo, Rondo Brillante, Miss Helen Wilcox; play, Every Girl; Every Girl, Miss Beatrice Wylie; Hope, Miss Elizabeth Cheney; Mirth, Miss Eleanor Davis; Wealth, Miss Esther Colt; Beauty, Miss Rachel Edgcomb; Knowledge, Miss Esther Dennison; Work, Miss Beatrice Williams; Health, Miss Lucy Whitman; Love, Miss Marjorie Gledhill. Weekly Visitors to Fair. The fair being held by Stonington lodge was well attended Friday evening, a special car bringing a large number from Narragansett lodge of Westernly. M. J. FIELDS . . .
