How Many Soaps Can You Name Offhand?

This is not a new story, but it is worth repeating.

A friend went to a large soap manufacturer and said to him: "See here, you are spending a fortune in advertising. Why do you name your soap?"

"How many soaps can you name?" asked the soap manufacturer.

The friend studied and named six—all advertised brands.

"That's the answer," replied the soap manufacturer. "Out of the hundreds of brands of soap you can name only six, and mine heads the list."

ADVERTISING

That soap manufacturer was a large user of space in the daily newspapers. He died the other day, leaving an immense fortune and a name known from one end of the country to the other.

The CA Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper-Publishers Association, World Building, New York, solicits correspondence with manufacturers interested in newspaper advertising. Booklet on request.

MERCHANTS' WEEK FINAL DAY

Cooperative Effort of Norwich Business Men Reaching a Successful Close—Industrial Exposition With Constantly Increasing Number of Visitors—Finale Features on City Streets and at Exposition.

Norwich Merchants' Week, the first of its kind ever known here, finished its full seven days today, having started last Saturday and thus including two Saturdays in the week for the merchants to benefit by the outside trade that it has been the aim to attract, particularly through the fare reduction, which has been in operation, through the attractive showing of desirable goods with special inducement in price lines, and through the various entertainment features that have been successfully carried out.

In the line of attractions the Norwich Industrial and Good Home Exposition at the armory, conducted under the winding up of the first exposition of the kind ever held here.

Manager Prescott confidently expects that the largest crowd of the week will attend the winding up of the exposition. New visitors of souvenirs will be on hand at the booth and the affair promises to be a memorable one.

Exposition Notes

The Bulletin's Exposition Special, which has been printed each day at the Bulletin's booth, and has been a popular feature, said on Thursday:

Why not make a great finish for Merchants' week, Saturday? Everybody display the nation's flag. If you have only a small piece of bunting, hang it out and show that you are in the spirit in which the deed is done.

The U. C. T. has gone all through this trouble to help our industries and grocers and have afforded us a fine exposition of enjoyment as well as instruction.

Don't you think it is time we showed our appreciation to the men who have thought they were spent?

Quite a good number of the restaurant and hotel men have had their flags out and Saturday being the final day let everyone come forth with the same spirit as the men who have had their flags out and Saturday being the final day let everyone come forth with the same spirit as the men who have had their flags out.
