CLEAN-UP PROCLAMATION.
Mayor Dunn Officially Requests Citizens to Aid in Coming Campaign.

Mayor Daniel P. Dunn on Thursday afternoon issued a proclamation on the subject of clean-up week.

The work of cleaning up the city has already begun, and the various subcommittees are all active. The thousand cards distributed to the school children yesterday by the committee have all been dispersed, and another thousand will follow, while a third thousand has been ordered, and will be ready for distribution in a day or so.

Reply from New Haven Road.
One thousand buttons have been ordered from Boston by President Fenton of the Civic society, as well as some pamphlets. Mr. Fenton has also received a reply from the officials of the New Haven road, stating that the matter of cleaning up their approaches in the city will be taken care of. It is expected that the Central Vermont will do the same.

Stimulus to Scouts.
The additional prize offered to the Boy Scouts will be brought before that organization tonight, and they will undoubtedly prove of great service to the committee, if they vote to accept. A banner is in the works and will be strung across Main street when completed, and this, with the slides in the motion picture houses, and the school children's work, will be of material aid in giving the week publicity.

All Urged to Aid.
The mayor's proclamation follows:
To the People of the City of Willimantic:

The week beginning May 4th is clean-up week. All people are requested to make an extra effort during clean-up week to clean backyards, and clean up and leave carried away all refuse, junk, etc., so that at the end of the week our city will be a clean one in fact as well as in name.

Let all unite and make the clean-up campaign a successful one.
Let all the schools unite and assist the committee, as this is a campaign of education throughout New England, as the New England clean-up campaign committee has announced the clean-up week of May 3 to 9, inclusive.
This clean-up is general throughout the New England states and has the support of the various chambers of commerce and boards of trade and civic societies and women's clubs throughout our New England cities.
I urge our citizens to make a special effort to the end that the Thread City may stand at the close of the week in the forefront of this commendable civic movement.

DANIEL P. DUNN,
Mayor.

WHITE RIBBON BABY.

Infant Daughter of South Coventry Pastor Enrolled at Tri-County Institute.

The tri-county institute of the Woman's Christian Temperance union was held Thursday, with both morning and afternoon sessions in the rooms of the organization on Valley street. Mrs. L. K. Fuller, of the Windham county president, presided at both sessions, the morning being held at 10.30 and in the afternoon at tween the two gatherings.

Rev. Walter E. Lapham opened the Atlantic fleet, which includes six second line battleships—the Virginia, his flagship; the Georgia, Mahan, New Jersey and Rhode Island.

Mrs. Harris had expressed a wish that any money so raised should rather be used for some other purpose, a fund was started, to be called the Harris fund, and used for the purposes of the tri-county organization.

Arthur Sampson. Burial was in St.
Joseph's cemetery.

brought to this city from Worcester, Mass., Thursday and taken to Wampanoag ville for burial in the Baker cemetery there. Funeral Director Jay M. Shep-charged with attempting to break and superior court. It is said that there were two other men with him, but their identity has not been divulged.

Two Hundred Dog Licenses Issued Thursday.
Thursday was a busy day at the town clerk's office, over 200 dog licenses being issued, the highest day yet, and nearly the last.

Special City Meeting.
There will be a special city meeting next Wednesday night, in all probability to lay a city tax, and also to consider the matter of the White Way on Main street, in accordance with plans submitted to the council at their meeting in April. The latter entails an expenditure of around $5,500, and it is likely there will be a great deal of opposition to it. In other cities, it is understood, the same tax has contributed to the expense, but the proposition here is for the city to pay the bills.

Miss Brick to Wed Lewis F. Church.
Cards are out for the marriage of Marguerite Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brick, of this city, to The Providence Sunday Tribune has published on two successive Sundays the complete text of the grand opera "Nisida" composed by Dr. Jules Jordan, a native of Windham. One each Sunday an entire page was devoted to the libretto which was specially illustrated. A portion of the score, with two of the leading themes, was given, also.

SPIRITUALIST OFFICERS.

Elected at Annual Meeting—Plans For New Meeting Place.

The annual meeting of the First Spiritualist society of Willimantic was held Thursday evening in the W.
C. T. U. room on Valley street.
The treasurer's reports showed the affairs of the society to be in a flourishing condition.
The trustees were instructed to see what means could be devised to provide a suitable meeting place in the building owned by the society on Bank street. This is where the old opera theatre is located, and it is planned next year to hold the meetings of the society in the upstairs part, if it can be arranged.

The trustees and secretary were appointed a committee to formulate by-laws and report to a special meeting.
One of the older records books of the society has been lost, so this action is taken to bring the by-laws up to date.
Officers were elected as follows: President George W. Snow, vice president Annie L. Tingley, secretary Bert E. Watch, treasurer Adelaide E.
Cobb, trustees D. A. Lyman, Fred L.
Yeomans, Annie L. Tingley.
