The funeral of Thomas J. Nolan was held from the home of his sister, Miss Mary Nolan, 78 North Main street, Friday morning at 8:15 o'clock with services in St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock.

Calendar Social at Federated Church. There was a well attended calendar social at the Federated church on Friday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the church.

The carefully arranged programme, which was carried out excellently, follows: January, New Year's Greetings, Mildred Case; February, reading, Katie Lee and Willie Gray, Miss Chapman; March, song, Where the River Shannon Flows, Miss Hayden; April, violin solo, Mrs. C. McNeely; May, reading, The Challenge, Mrs. James Spicer; June, June Bride, Miss Anna Sebastian (the June bride was given a receipt on her wedding day by the master of ceremonies); July, song, Our Country's Flag, male quartette, Stephen Peckham, H. L. Peckham, William Lund and Rev. A. L. Tedford; encore, song, Jimmy, accompanist, Mrs. William Lund; August, song, Till the Sande of Solitude Grow Cold, Miss Harrison; September, Schillero, Henry Sebastian; October, When the Harvest Moon is Shining, quartette, Miss Hayden, Miss Hayden, Hamilton and Miss Harrison, accompanied by Miss Hoffman (encored); November, song, My Heart is in the Mountains, Miss Hayden; December, reading, Just Before Christmas, Miss Clara Hamilton.

The committee in charge of the programme consisted of Mrs. James Spicer, chairman, Mrs. John Hill and Mrs. H. I. Pichham.

Went to Hartford. The graduating class of the Greenville Grammar school enjoyed a seeing trip to Hartford on Friday. They were accompanied by Principal F. P. McNamara.

POMFRET. State Road Work Started—Brooklyn Dramatic Club Presents Pleasing Play.

Miss Townes has returned to Boston. Miss Isabel Rogers is at her home again after a visit in Boston.

Miss Mary A. Avery of Norwich called at Westland farm Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Beecher Brown of Central Village and Mrs. Carrie Gardner of Mousup took an auto trip to Putnam and Pomfret last Wednesday and called on E. E. Brown.

Mrs. Charles P. Grosvenor has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Averill, in Worcester.

Start on State Road. The contractors have commenced work on the state road in town leading from Pomfret street towards Abington.

Play by Brooklyn Club. Theatregoers in town were given a treat Thursday evening by the Brooklyn Dramatic club, which presented the comedy drama in Old New England.

The play was one of exceptional interest and the parts were well taken. The interest of the audience was held to the end. While all were excellent, Alfred E. Williams' interpretation of the character of Jed Perkins was a duplicate Denman Thompson, a difficult part, especially well acted. Refreshments were served at the close.

Following is the cast: Jedediah Perkins, Alfred E. Williams; Tom Perkins, Jed's son, Benjamin Kinne; David Kinne, Lemmy Pearl; Len Hawkins, Everett Kimball; Hezekiah Slocum, Arthur Kimball; Robert Donald, George Ford; Algonquin Percival Montgomery, Clinton Cleveland; George Washington Lincoln Jackson, Norton Eastment; Mrs. Perkins, Jed's wife, Susie G. Williams; Araminta Perkins, Estella Tabbot; Gladys Angell, Bessie Morrison; Minerva Ann Johnson, Martha DeViney.

Made Agreement on Compensation. An agreement of compensation has been filed by Commissioner J. J. Donohue between the U. S. Finishing company, employer, and Hugh McDonald of Norwich, employe, who was injured April 13, by having the small finger on his right hand badly lacerated; $5 weekly until disability ceases was the agreement. The injured man has always been known to the company as Joseph McDonald, and the accident was so reported, but he now informs the company his correct name is Hugh.

WAR TIME NEWS

Sheridan Circles Lee's Right Flank—New Willimantic Thread Mill Building Four Hundred Feet Long—Spring Parade of Norwich Light Infantry—Death of Nathaniel Hawthorne at Plymouth.

The following are extracts from the Bulletin of fifty years ago: May 16, 1864.—An official despatch from Major Sheridan states that on May 13, he marched around the enemy's right flank and on the evening of that day reached the North Anna river without opposition. During that night he destroyed the enemy's depot at Beaver Dam, three large trains of cars, two hundred thousand pounds of bacon, two fine locomotives and other stores of the rebels amounting to one million and a half.

Word from Major General Butler states that they are still before the base of the enemy's position at Drury's Bluff, Fort Darling. General Gilmore by a flank movement with a portion of his corps and a brigade of the 15th corps, attacked and took the enemy's works on their right.

Those interested in the formation of reading rooms, are requested to meet in the basement room of the Broadway church, at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening.

The new Willimantic thread mill which is expected to be completed this season, is a most magnificent structure, being some 400 feet long, 20 feet wide, and 20 feet high. It has sold his new mill to Mr. Kenyon of Rhode Island.

May 17, 1864.—Col. Ward, 8th regiment was wounded in recent battles in Virginia. His host of friends in this section will be gratified to learn that he is not dangerously wounded.

Gen. Sherman Reports a Victory. Gen. Sherman says that he had a fight May 15th at Resaca in which we were successful. Our losses were estimated at 3,000 killed and wounded.

Rumors from the front state that Lee's army received heavy reinforcements from North Carolina and Georgia.

On the afternoon of the 11th Commander Parker, of the 1st Maine, received information that a party of rebels were engaged in placing torpedoes in the Rappahannock and Potomac rivers. He immediately ordered an expedition party to thwart the purposes. They scoured the rivers and succeeded in blowing up a mine at Bernuda Hundred, May 14.—There we great cheering at the front this forenoon, news having reached the troops through the lines that Gen. Grant had captured a whole division of the rebels with forty pieces of artillery.

General Butler is being heavily reinforced. The First artillery has been ordered to Norwich Light Infantry Parade.

The Norwich light infantry company have their usual spring parade today at the New London County Agriculture Society's grounds.

The season City of New London has been temporarily withdrawn from the Norwich and New York Transportation company's line for the purpose of receiving necessary repairs.

The two pairs of horses recently purchased by the city are pronounced by competent judges to be the noblest specimens of the equine race.

May 19, 1864.—General Crooks has fought the battles near Newburn. After the forces under General Morgan, Sam Jones and A. G. Jenkins, gaining a complete victory over the enemy. The enemy lost 600 killed and wounded and 300 prisoners. Gen. A. G. Jenkins fell into our hands mortally wounded.

Our Losses in Generals. Generals who have left us since the war number 36 killed in battle and 16 died from disease contracted in the service. The Connecticut ones are Gen. Lyon, killed; Gen. Mansfield, killed; Gen. Sedgwick, killed and Gen. Totten, died.

After the spring parade of the Norwich Light Infantry company a target shoot was held. Corp. Sterry won the first prize, which was a pair of pants.

First Hand Organ. May 20, 1864.—The first hand organ of the season made its appearance yesterday.

Yerrington's column, although now played out is not permanently dead, but only sleeps. Reinforcements are awaited.

Steele's army 3,000 strong, surrendered to General Price at Camden on the 23th and General Taylor was demanded the surrender of Alexandria at once.

May 21, 1864.—Two recruits for Lee's army were accepted at the Provost Marshal's office yesterday.

It is rumored that the Russian fleet will be in New London harbor this summer.

Hawthorne Found Dead in Bed. Death of Nathaniel Hawthorne. He was born at Salem, Mass., on July 4, 1864. Early in life he was of feeble health and spent a long time in Maine. He graduated at Bowdoin college in 1875, in the same class with Rev. Dr. Cheever, and afterward in the law at Harvard. He was a poet. His works have reached many editions, and are popular in England as well as in this country. He was a successful author of other than some of his works gave him great fame. Like Thackeray he was found dead in bed at Plymouth.
