

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County LARK'S FALLS

Swarm of Runaway Bees Found in Attic.

The road machine is at work on the streets here.

Henry F. Babcock has found a swarm of runaway honeybees located in the attic of his house.

Dr.ville Cheesbrough took part in the Stonington celebration.

Miss Elizabeth Stumpff, who has been with her sister, Mrs. S. F. Palmer, several weeks, returned to New York City Monday night.

YAWBUX VALLEY

Frank Tranchell was in Westley Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Cressie Gray of Dover, N. H., were visitors at the home of G. D. Coates last week.

Mrs. Charles Maine of Wintehuck Hill has been entertaining out of town friends the past week.

Windham County

CANTERBURY G.

Children's Sunday Tomorrow Interest in Brooklyn Tablet.

Tomorrow will be mid-summer Children's day at the Green.

Dr. and Mrs. Hollingshead of Pemberton, N. J., have been guests of Mrs. S. A. Woodard.

The annual reunion of the Child family was held at Roseland park Wednesday.

Address by Dr. Sykes. President P. H. Sykes of the Connecticut College for Women spoke at the Congregational chapel Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Parker returned today to their home in Stonington.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller have returned from a two-days' trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Judd and family of Southington, have been guests for a week or more at the Trieman Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Apply spent the week with Mr. Apply's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Apply.

Mr. and Mrs. James Apply returned from Burdick, Mass.

Harry Flint, who is also working in Burdick, returned from a visit at his mother's, Mrs. Lewis Lyons.

Parker and Honston Lathrop spent the week in Norwich.

Won Honors at N. F. A. At his graduation from Norwich Academy, Harry Lathrop was not only one of those appointed to write the essays for the closing exercises, but his essay won first prize.

Mrs. George Lyman and two little daughters are spending August and September in Canterbury at Mrs. Potoin's mother's, Mrs. Keen's.

Mrs. Escher Brown was a guest here last week.

Attendees Brooklyn Meeting. Miss Jones was a guest of the Captain Deliverance Browne association in Brooklyn, Wednesday, and of the Church St. Friends' auxiliary at the unveiling of a tablet in Old Trinity church, when President Luther of Trinity college, delivered the address.

Captain Deliverance Browne was a resident of Canterbury in the early days and was one of the first deacons of the church at the Green.

A delightful paper on his life was read at the morning session by Rev. George Browne of Lancaster, Pa.

Tracy Tracy of Wauregan visited Miss Florence Exley over the week end.

Cecile Hale has returned to Norwich.

Cavalrymen on the Green. There was a little stir of excitement on Canterbury Green Wednesday when a small company of mounted troops appeared and for a time held possession of the center.

The residents were disappointed when they withdrew, as they had hoped to have witnessed an encounter between the troopers and the "enemy."

The troopers were very gentlemanly and easily made friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Apply were in town over the week end.

DAYVILLE

Miss Blanchard on Yachting Trip—Rev. Ignatius Kost Home from Germany.

Miss Myrtice Blanchard is taking a yachting trip with her sister, Mrs. Frederick Rogers, of Providence, R. I.

Miss Carrie Franklin has returned from two weeks' visit with friends in and around Foster, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Bennett spent Sunday at Ocean Beach.

Scotch Day at Rocky Point. Mrs. Andrew Thorne went to Rocky Point, Thursday, as that was the Scotchmen's day at the Point.

Mrs. Frank J. Burnett is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Shippee of Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cogswell were at Eaters Island Tuesday.

Harold Hirst spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Field. On his return to Peterboro, Monday, Mrs. Harold Field and Miss Muriel Field accompanied him home.

Miss Mattie Leavens has returned to Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leavens were at Rocky Point Wednesday.

Home from Germany. Rev. J. Kost arrived home from Germany Monday night.

Miss Ruth Bennett is visiting at South Glastonbury and Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. George I. Bennett of Lakewood, R. I., are guests of Mrs. Fannie Bennett.

Mrs. Charles P. Fish of Mystic and Mrs. William Rinan of Washington, D. C. were guests of Mrs. Sablin D. Russell Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers have gone to live with her mother, Mrs. Dennis, in Westley.

Port Ethan Allen, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

EKONK

Funeral of Charles Hall—Family Reunion at Benjamin Colburn's.

Rev. William Reynolds is spending this week in New York.

The body of Charles Hall was brought here Monday for burial. The service was held in the Congregational church. Rev. Mr. Davis of Sterling Hill officiated.

The deceased spent his boyhood days here and was well remembered and liked by a large circle of friends.

Those from out of town attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Emilius Burdick of Providence, Mr. and Mrs. Witter of Brooklyn, Mrs. Emma Buckley of Mystic and Mrs. Claude Shippee of Sterling and John Thomas Barber of South Canterbury and Silas and Charles Barber of Campbell Mills and Miss Ella Gardner of Plainfield were in the number.

Four Generations Represented. Charles Gardner of Boston, his daughter, Mrs. Edith and Mae, with the latter's husband, and child, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Colburn.

On Sunday the party was increased by the presence of four generations who partook of an appetizing dinner and had a very enjoyable time in Dayville this week.

Thomas Barber of South Canterbury and Silas and Charles Barber of Campbell Mills and Miss Ella Gardner of Plainfield were in the number.

On Sunday Miss Edith and Miss Ruth Kelloog and on Sunday she visited her brother Edwin in Vineyard Haven for a short stay.

Cards from Mr. and Mrs. George Gallup report a delightful trip through the Berkshires and Mohawk valley.

Miss Nettie Gallup and party motored to Rockville Sunday and returned on Tuesday Miss Gallup went to Rocky Point.

Those who have not finished haying are much discouraged by the cloudy weather.

John Fenner is visiting his daughters in New York.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Over Seventy-five at Child Reunion—Boys' Camp at Eastford.

Lois Bannister of Webster has been visiting G. L. Upham and family the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cox of Vernon have been visiting L. H. Lindeman's family.

Attended Child Reunion. Lucian Burleigh of Troy, N. Y., Howard Bracken of Hopkdale, Mass., and Mrs. Wallace Leavitt of Caspar, N. Y., were in town Wednesday, attending the Child reunion at Roseland Park. The attendance was 75 or more.

Anna Bemis is visiting relatives in Worcester.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Lindeman, Mr. and Mrs. George Cox enjoyed an automobile ride to Holden Sunday, visiting Ralph Allen and family. Little Ralph Allen, who has been visiting his relatives returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Foster visited their daughter, Mrs. Eliot Clemence in Southbridge, Wednesday. She is ill with a nervous ailment.

Boys in Camp. A party of boys is camping at Crystal Lake, Eastford, this week. Windward White is catching some big fish, bass weighing 3 pounds or more. Fred Davidson took, accompanied the boys last year.

EAST KILLINGLY

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Buffington entertained friends from Pawtucket, Sunday.

Miss Mand Capron of Danielson is visiting at Ledge Cottage.

Mrs. Benjamin Cole and daughter Vera and Miss Laura Jacques, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Pray in Ballouville, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sayles were in Providence, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. White have been in New York for a few days this week.

George C. Spooner and a friend from North Sterling were at Old Killingly Tuesday, fishing.

Miss Vera Gordon is spending her vacation in Newark, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Matheron are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. William Amanda Sands, of Central Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Credie of Ballouville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Credie, Wednesday.

William Birch of Providence is visiting at Charles Moran's.

E. L. Gordon was in New London, Sunday, calling on friends.

The Volunteer band played at Chapatet, Wednesday.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

Mrs. Arthur Spicer of South Willington is visiting Miss Harriett Shilley.

Frank Flynn, Charles Silvia and Richard Flaherty, mot scooter, visited in town over Sunday.

Miss Edith Wood has returned to her home in Hartford.

Rev. A. C. Johnson and family, of Westfield, Mass., are at their summer home.

Mrs. Florence Hayter is visiting Thompson friends.

Elmer Goss and Chester Hatstat were in Webster Tuesday.

Mrs. Louis Luverich has returned to her home in New York.

Earle Hyde who is staying at A. N. Hammond's, had an attack of heart trouble Tuesday.

Mrs. Reed of Thompson visited at Asa Thayer's, Wednesday.

ABINGTON

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hicks, were Mrs. Charles Weeks and little son, of Auburn, R. I., Mrs. W. Jennings of Central Village, and Lilla Weeks of Washington, R. I.

Rev. Joseph Kite of South Brainree, Mass., supplied the pulpit at the Congregational church Sunday.

Kite has many friends in this vicinity, having been a resident here at one time.

Almost everybody was so interested in the soldiers' encampment at Bigelow pond in Hampton that they drove or motored over Sunday. About 150 cavalrymen were in town, Thursday, arriving just at noon. They dismounted and ate their rations, then proceeded on their way.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Contest Programme at Grange—Death of Mrs. Frank Johnson.

Miss Gladys Sheldon has returned from Boston.

At the meeting of Senexet grange last Wednesday evening the Alphas and Omegas presented a rival contest programme, the Alphas being victorious.

Miss McDonald of Providence is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Frank Johnson, who has been ill for a number of weeks died Wednesday night at the home of her son, Putnam.

The funeral is to be held today (Saturday) at South Woodstock. Miss Nellie Lowe is quite ill.

BROOKLYN

Meeting of The Brown Association—Personal Mention.

Miss Gladys Stone is spending a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stone, Danbury.

Miss Abigail L. Witter has returned from Danbury.

Milton Gardner of Saylesville, is visiting in town.

Rev. A. E. Kimmouth and wife were at their son's in Mystic the past week.

William R. Thurber and daughter visited relatives in Gloucester, R. I., the first of the week.

Witnessed Celebration. Oscar F. Atwood was the guest of his brother and wife in Stonington during the celebration.

Rev. E. A. Kimmouth was in Stonington, Monday, to witness the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter of Germantown, Penn., who have been spending several days in town, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bennett were in Providence Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Briggs and daughter, are with the former's parent, George Briggs, at the Kimball hospital, who has been in Day Kimball hospital, for several weeks with a broken hip.

Rev. Rufus Sheldon and daughter have had as their guest Mr. Whittlesly of Pittsfield, Mass.

The Brown Association held a reunion in Unitarian Hall, Wednesday.

SOUTH WINDHAM

Mrs. Charles Maynard and two children are visiting Mrs. Maynard's mother, Mrs. Peck, in Norwich.

Mrs. Walter E. Cooper has returned from the private hospital, where she has been recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Susan Payne is with friends at Danbury.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenney of Hartford are guests of Mrs. Maurice Golden.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jennings have returned home after spending part of their wedding trip with Mr. and Mrs. John Jennings.

Mr. Henry Scribner and Ralph Scribner were visitors in Woodstock, Thursday.

Miss Hazel Backus is visiting friends in Waterbury, Mass.

Miss Josephine Palmer was a weekend visitor with her sister in Worcester.

Miss Rena Murdock has returned from the private hospital, where she has been for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Daniel Matheron and son Alfred are visiting in Rockville.

Miss Elsie Ericson is recovering rapidly but is not yet out of the hospital.

Miss Scofield of Mystic is the guest of Mrs. Walter Backus.

Henry Stone infant son of Mrs. Stone is critically ill.

Miss Patricia Millette and Miss Mary J. Millette spent Sunday with relatives in Woonsocket.

Miss Beatrice Miller of Worcester is spending a week with her cousin, Miss Barbara Popple.

Joseph Farland and grandson, Clement Mahew, have been attending the celebration at Stonington, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nettleton returned Sunday from Philadelphia, where they have been spending a week with relatives in town.

Mrs. Welcome Moffett, of Greene, R. I., spent Sunday with Mrs. Frank Popple.

Miss Ruth Bogue returned to her home in Norwich Sunday after spending two weeks with her cousin, Miss Beatrice Bean.

Patent at Hospital. Miss Fitch Caplette was at the Backus hospital, in Norwich, Tuesday, to visit her mother, Mrs. Narrae Caplette, who is very comfortable.

Annual Picnic. The Ladies of the G. A. R. held their annual picnic at South Plainfield Thursday at the home of Mrs. Caleb Bishop, in Brookville, Conn.

Mrs. Joseph Farland has been entertaining her sister from New Hampshire.

Woolen Mill Starts Up. The Plainfield Woolen mill started Monday morning, having been shut down a week, giving the employees their annual vacation.

Are in England. Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Lawson, who have been spending several weeks with relatives in England, are uncertain about the time of their return home.

Miss Alda Breute of Springfield, Mass., is visiting local relatives.

Miss Elsie Ladd is visiting Miss Ethel Collins in Warren, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Carpenter returned from New York Sunday night.

John Kelly has been at his home in Sterling.

Several local people were in Mousup Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Melissa Starr, who died in Pittsfield, Mass., but formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Ruby, of Middlebury, returned from a trip up the Hudson with his two daughters.

Miss Bertha Holgeron returned to her home in Farmington, after a week's visit at the home of her uncle, August Holgeron.

Miss Lena Tripp of Dayville is visiting in town.

Master Waldo Tillinghast is riding a fine pony which is admired by his young friends.

Miss Greene of Arcadia, R. I., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Edgerton.

Miss Laura Barber, a nurse in the Blackstone hospital, Pawtucket, R. I., is spending a few days with Mrs. Charles E. Barber.

Learns of Brother's Death. Mrs. S. A. Lewis has received the news of her brother's, Hiram Rathbun's, death at his home in Belford, Mass.

Miss Frances Barber of Woody Hill, R. I., and Miss Gladys Barber, are visiting for a few days at William Dean's home here.

Charles Byles of Chicago is visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Byles.

Mrs. John E. Vaughn of Norwich visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weaver and son John were Norwich visitors Tuesday.

CLARK'S CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ennis of Cohasset, are at Rest Cottage owned by Allen Jewett.

Mrs. Reardon and children, and Miss Josephine of Willimantic, are at P. J. Naylor's.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Palmer, of Springfield, and P. J. Palmer of Woonsocket are at L. H. Jewett's.

Eugene Fairbanks was in Pomfret Tuesday.

Miss Viola F. Jewett has returned from a vacation at Watch Hill, Westley and Norwich.

People have been interested in viewing the cavalry on their way to mimic war.

HOWARD VALLEY

Mrs. H. Hames is in Windham. Clayton Hawkes is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. C. Pitts, of Bristol, Conn.

Miss Simpson lost a valuable horse Tuesday from colic.

Sunday visitors at the Hawkes home were Elmer Hawkes of Willimantic, Mr. and Mrs. Lear of Willimantic, Miss Black of Valley Falls, R. I.

The cavalry has been much in evidence this week in the valley.

WILSONVILLE

Dr. Miller and Miss Edith Woodard were Putnam visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. E. S. Upham returned Saturday after a week's visit with friends at Lake Pleasant, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson have been entertaining a friend from Hartford the past week.

Mrs. Agnes Clare of Boston has been visiting the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. E. S. Upham.

Miss Hazel Frink has returned from New Haven, where she has been staying for several months. Mrs. William

Prince and two children returned with her for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Charles Kelly entertained Mrs. Merton Childs and daughter, of Webster, Wednesday.

Mr. Miller and a lady friend, of Boston came by automobile and are visiting Truman Robbins and family.

Mrs. Charles Kelly and son, Webster, have moved to the lower tenement at the Sherlock place.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Selectmen Erect Warning Signs for Automobile Drivers—Ladies of G. A. R. Have Picnic.

Harold and Oscar Olson returned to New York Saturday after visiting two weeks at August Holgeron's.

Mrs. Thomas Shannon and Mrs. Frank Longway, of West Ingleswood, N. Y., are staying at William Dean's.

Mrs. William Jowett has returned from Pawtucket, R. I., where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Eliza Miller returned to Hartford Saturday after spending several days at Frederick Tillinghast's.

Vacationists Return. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis and son, Fred, returned from Providence where they have been spending several days with relatives.

George Greene has returned to his home in Danbury after visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frank Edgerton.

Miss Helen W. Tillinghast and Waldo Tillinghast have returned from Pawtucket, where they have been spending a few days with relatives.

Warning Signs Erected. The selectmen have had signs erected near the schoolhouses in town to warn the motorists to drive slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Frances of Westley, R. I., are visiting Mr. Frances' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Frances.

Miss Edith Edwards has returned to her home in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith and daughter Hazel and Mrs. Esac Smith have returned from Peacedale, where they have been visiting friends.

Miss Edith Edwards has returned from the summer school in Danbury. She expects to teach in Sterling.

Philip Mathewson, who has been spending the summer at Watch Hill, R. I., is at his home for a few days.

Henry Frink was in Stonington to attend the celebration.

Miss Patricia Millette and Miss Mary J. Millette spent Sunday with relatives in Woonsocket.

Miss Beatrice Miller of Worcester is spending a week with her cousin, Miss Barbara Popple.

Joseph Farland and grandson, Clement Mahew, have been attending the celebration at Stonington, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nettleton returned Sunday from Philadelphia, where they have been spending a week with relatives in town.

Mrs. Welcome Moffett, of Greene, R. I., spent Sunday with Mrs. Frank Popple.

Miss Ruth Bogue returned to her home in Norwich Sunday after spending two weeks with her cousin, Miss Beatrice Bean.

Patent at Hospital. Miss Fitch Caplette was at the Backus hospital, in Norwich, Tuesday, to visit her mother, Mrs. Narrae Caplette, who is very comfortable.

Annual Picnic. The Ladies of the G. A. R. held their annual picnic at South Plainfield Thursday at the home of Mrs. Caleb Bishop, in Brookville, Conn.

Mrs. Joseph Farland has been entertaining her sister from New Hampshire.

Woolen Mill Starts Up. The Plainfield Woolen mill started Monday morning, having been shut down a week, giving the employees their annual vacation.

Are in England. Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Lawson, who have been spending several weeks with relatives in England, are uncertain about the time of their return home.

Miss Alda Breute of Springfield, Mass., is visiting local relatives.

Miss Elsie Ladd is visiting Miss Ethel Collins in Warren, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Carpenter returned from New York Sunday night.

John Kelly has been at his home in Sterling.

Several local people were in Mousup Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Melissa Starr, who died in Pittsfield, Mass., but formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Ruby, of Middlebury, returned from a trip up the Hudson with his two daughters.

Miss Bertha Holgeron returned to her home in Farmington, after a week's visit at the home of her uncle, August Holgeron.

Miss Lena Tripp of Dayville is visiting in town.

Master Waldo Tillinghast is riding a fine pony which is admired by his young friends.

Miss Greene of Arcadia, R. I., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Edgerton.

Miss Laura Barber, a nurse in the Blackstone hospital, Pawtucket, R. I., is spending