WATCHFUL WAITING COUNTS IN MODERN GAME. A Base on Balls is Quite Often as Good as a Hit.

Vic Sailer, cub first baseman, is specializing in drawing bases this season as well as in smashing out homers. Sailer is not leading the National League in gaining free tickets to the bag he plays, but he is very close to Miller Huggins, manager of the Cardinals, who is the pace setter in this respect.

Besides Huggins and Sailer, 12 more Tenoritas have obtained transportation from the Cubs to New York. The last named is the only automobile winner who shows up well in the Pass League, Frank Schulte having secured only 30 hits from the hurlers and Jake Daubert only 27.

McGraw was a great waiter in the days when he played under Ned Hanlon, but his team of Giants do not seem to care particularly about working the pitchers for transportation. Last year the Gothamites did not draw as many bases on balls as the Cubs, Braves, Cardinals or Reds, and this year they rank next to last among the pitcher workers. The champions have secured 279 hits, the Superbas one less. The Cubs have received 374 free trips to first from the pitchers, the Cardinals 320, the Phillies 315, the Reds 297, the Braves 295, and the Pirates 294.

Williams Found Behr Erratic on Friday in National Tournament at Newport—Semi-finals Today—Plainfield Starts Baseball Series With Moosup—Athletics Lose

Newport, R. I., Aug. 23.—The lawn tennis tournament narrowed today to San Francisco and Philadelphia, with the titleholder, M. E. McLaughlin, still in the running for an almost certain favorite. The other three victors in the day's matches in the sixth round of the all-comers' tournament were E. F. Foltz of San Francisco and E. Norris Williams, 2d, and William J. Clothier of Philadelphia.

For this Sunday Manager Hughes of the All Stars states he has engaged the Bear Cats to play on the Cranberry and says he has secured a strong lineup for Sunday's game and promises to show the fans a fast brand of baseball.

Chicago Checked the Winning Chances. Philadelphia, Aug. 23.—Chicago broke the winning streak of Philadelphia, which had reached seven straight, by winning today's game, 5 to 3, the score reverting to the fifth inning when play was stopped by rain.
