IN THE POLICE COURT.

Case of Herbert Manning Again Continued—Bond Raised to $600 and Furnished.

In the police court Saturday the case against Herbert Manning of Mansfield avenue, arrested during the week when it was ascertained that he was harboring three girls, all minors, was again continued this time until Tuesday morning. His bond was raised from one to five hundred dollars, and he was released under that amount, furnished by A. L. Gelinas. The charge against him is assault, and he has engaged Attorney P. J. Danahy to defend him.

Walter Broadhurst admitted to the court that he was not supporting his family, but stated that he could not do so at present, as he was out of work. Judgment was suspended for three months in his case, and he was put on probation.

Andover Tourist Home from Europe. Miss Vera Stearns landed in New York Friday night, and is now at her home in Andover, after spending the summer in Europe. She went through some experiences which she would not care to duplicate, being without food at one time for thirty hours, but was not in any real danger while on the continent.

Athletics at Thread Plant's Park. A dozen or more juniors at the local Y. M. C. A., together with about the same number of other boys, took advantage of the outdoor athletics inaugurated by Physical Director Elliott on the grounds of the thread plant's park. The juniors were defeated in a game of baseball by their opponents, but won out in a relay race around the old track. Starts for sprints and other stunts were practiced, but the work was light. The practice will be kept up until the cold weather sets in.

Good Vaudeville Draws Well. The first vaudeville Willimantic has seen for some time was put on in the Loomer Opera house Saturday afternoon and evening, and judging from the patronage, it is something which has been wanted. The house was filled, and the applause given the really good acts assured well for the success of the new management's plans for one day of vaudeville a week.

Leaves to Join the Colors. Adolph Obermayer of this city called Saturday afternoon from New York for France, to take up arms for his native country. He leaves his wife, son and niece behind him in the land of his adoption. Early in August Mr. Obermayer received word to hold himself in readiness for immediate departure, and letters received from his mother and sisters recently telling of the need for more men to repulse the invading forces, led to his departure at this time. Mr. Obermayer has served his time in the French army and is still a member of the reserve corps. He has been in this country about three years, and has made many friends here.

Independents—Emeralds Today. Baseball is the main topic in Willimantic for the present. Saturday the leaders in the Mill league were triumphed by No. 2 Mill, and a picked team played all kinds of ball against the Ben Hurs of Hartford. Sunday the first of the Emeralds-Independents series took place on Rhodes field. Today the second of the series will be played at Thread Mill park, while the Hartford Independents will tackle the No. 2 Mill, at the same place in the afternoon. Outside of these games, and the moving picture shows, there will be little doing in this city today.

Many attended the funeral services at St. Joseph's church at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, when a solemn requiem high mass was sung for Rev. James J. Walsh, who died in Atlantic City Wednesday.

Rev. T. F. Bannon of St. Joseph's church, this city, was celebrant. Rev. C. O'Brien of Stamford was deacon and Rev. T. B. Smith of Waterbury was sub-deacon. Rev. John G. Murray, chancellor of the Hartford diocese, was master of ceremonies. The soloists were Rev. Charles L. Lemieux of this city and Rev. Stanislaus Federkiewicz of New London. Rev. P. J. McCormack of the Catholic university at Washington, D. C., also took part in the services. The eulogy was pronounced by Rev. Dr. T. M. Crowley of New London.

Among the priests in the sanctuary during the services were: Rev. John H. Winters of New Britain, Rev. Christopher T. McMan of Manchester, Rev. Michael Lynch of Waterbury, Rev. John H. Broderick of Norwich, Rev. Edward Morrison of Naugatuck, Rev. Bernard Donnelly of North Grosvenordale, Rev. Charles Kane of Colchester, Rev. John A. Dooley of South Coventry, Rev. J. M. Fitzmaurice of Norwich, Rev. Frank Kuster and Rev. Edward M. Hayes of Jewett City, Rev. Richard P. Morrissey of Voluntown, Rev. William McGurk and Rev. James McGee of South Manchester, Rev. William F. Fitzsimons of New London and Rev. William A. Keefe of Plainfield.

During the services Mrs. Henry Mathieu sang Pie Jesu at the offertory and for a waiting hymn the choir sang De Profundis. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in the Walnut family plot. Rev. M. A. Sullivan of Hartford conducted the committal service, assisted by Rev. T. F. Bannon, Rev. Philip J. Mooney, both of this city, and Rev. John H. Broderick of Norwich. The honorary pall bearers were Rev. William Rogers of Hartford, Rev. Patrick Finnegan of New Haven, Rev. M. Lynch of Waterbury, Rev. John F. Winters of New Britain, Rev. Frederick Murphy of Greenwich, Rev. John H. Broderick of Norwich. The active bearers were Mayor Daniel P. Dunn, Patrick Dunlevy, William J. Sweeney, school, has arrived here to take up his work. All out of town teachers in the schools of Putnam will have arrived here by this (Monday) evening. Schools throughout the town are to open Tuesday morning.

Closing of Park Season. Today (Labor day) is to be the last day of the season, excepting for special week ends, at Wildwood park, where many Putnam people have had pleasant outings this season.

More Careful Oiling Needed. The suggestion has been made that in oiling streets better results would be achieved if the oil extended flush up to the curbs, the idea being that oil is needed the entire width of the street.

Retire from Business. D. F. X. McAvoy, whose health has not been the best of late, has made arrangements to retire from the business in which he has been engaged here for years.

Seward Lowe was leader of the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at the Congregational church Sunday evening.

Will Prepare for Basketball Season. With the opening of the high school tomorrow there will be early activity toward rounding the basketball team into form. Putnam's basketball team was a championship winner last season and should be a strong contender for the honor again during the coming season.

Expresses in Two Sections. That the large number of persons traveling might be accommodated Saturday the New Haven expresses to this city via the Middletown division were run in two sections.

Cars Collide. Saturday afternoon just before 5 o'clock there was a collision at the junction of Front and Livery streets between cars owned by Joseph Burke of this city and Walter Turner of Pomfret. Neither car was more than very slightly damaged. Mr. Burke running out of livery street when the crash occurred and Mr. Turner was driving down Front street.

Tip Cart Case Nolle. At Woodstock Saturday the "tip cart" case that stirred up so much interest throughout the town was dismissed through the action of the State boys involved were nolle. Nearly a score of automobiles were included in the number of vehicles that brought from 200 to 350 people to the place where the trial was to have been held. The case was nolle without imposing any expense upon the boys. Charges filed against two of the complainants in the case were also nolle. Charles M. Perrin was justice. Attorney M. C. Bradford was to have prosecuted for the state. Attorney Charles L. Torrey was counsel for the boys.

STATE TRADE SCHOOL. Real Opening Tuesday, Although Students are Already at Work. Putnam citizens who are much interested in the development of the experiment are watching with interest the real opening of the State Trade school here tomorrow, although there have been some students at the institution for a number of weeks. With the opening of the school year and the inauguration of the joint high-school trade school course a large increase in students is looked for. This course is to offer the best opportunity that students in castleg Windham county have had to get an industrial training along with their high school course.

A MAHAN COUNTY. Practically All the Delegations Will Support Him in Preference to Baldwin. With the caucuses of the democrats throughout Windham county nearly all held it is evident that Congressman Bryan F. Mahan will have the support of practically all of the delegates from this section of the state. There would, of course, be a few delegates in favor of Governor Baldwin for nominee for United States senator, but Windham county must be counted as a Mahan county. For governor there is no such unanimity. The selection of a candidate for head of the state government seems to have been very much subordinated in this section to that of selecting a candidate for the United States senate. Interviews indicate that many of the delegates have not made up their minds as to who they will support for the place Governor Baldwin now holds.

Silk Men Defeat Worcester Colored Giants. The colored Giants of Worcester were defeated on the high school grounds here Saturday afternoon, 5 to 1, by the Hammond-Knowlton team, which is continuing its winning streak. The way that is highly satisfactory to its supporters. The local team had the visitors shut out up to the ninth inning, when they scored their lone run. The game was a hard fought one and a single, Coderre and Ryan were the battery for the local team. Robertson started to pitch for the Worcester boys, but was hampered so hard that he was forced to retire in favor of Johnson, who held the local team well in hand.

H-K plays two games today (Labor day) with the C. A. team, and next Saturday will meet the Webster, A. C. team, a very strong aggregation, on the local grounds.

Democratic Caucus at Woodstock. Woodstock has elected the following democratic delegations to the various party caucuses to be held soon: State, Charles S. Sheldon, George C. Phillips, Roscoe Alton, Henry Lamotte; congressional, Henry W. Bishop, John M. Farrin, Vernon T. Wetherell, George S. Scammon; county, George F. Trink, J. M. Perrin, George A. Wetherell, Henry H. Safford; senatorial, V. H. Wetherell, Thomas Bray, Henry Lamotte, George W. Davis.

Other county town democratic caucuses scheduled for this week include one in the local town on Tuesday afternoon, at Pomfret Tuesday afternoon and at Canterbury Thursday evening.

Chester.—Thursday at the grandstand was Past Masters' night. A Mother Goose pie was one of the articles of refreshment.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment
I used some ointment but it would not cure her so I sent for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed her arms with the Cuticura Soap then put the Cuticura Ointment on and bandaged them. The second time I used them I could see a change so we bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and some Cuticura Soap. We had only used about half of them when she was completely healed. (Signed) Mrs. Lilla Beane, Jan. 31, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail
It is so easy to get rid of skin troubles by using Cuticura Soap exclusively and a little Cuticura Ointment occasionally that it is a pity not to do so in all cases of pimples, redness, roughness, itching and irritations.
