WILLIMANTIC

HOME FROM PANAMA. Fred T. Greener and wife on vacation trip in Connecticut and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Greener of Chelsea, Panama, former residents of this city, are visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Tracy of Summit street. Mr. Greener is connected with the payroll department of the auditor's department of the United States in the Canal zone, and has been in the employ of the government since leaving here four years ago.

Frightened Horse Collides with Auto.

About two o'clock Friday afternoon a horse attached to a buggy and driven by Max Applebaum of North Windham, took flight on Church street, when the king-bolt dropped out, and part of the carriage dropped onto the horse's heels.

Elect Methodist Trustees.

At a meeting for the annual election of three members of the board of trustees of the Methodist church, held Thursday night in the church parlors, and presided over by C. L.

Clinton, the ballot box was kept open from 8 to 9 o'clock at the end of which time the votes were counted.

William C. Lyman, Delos Conant and Henry Anthony were declared elected members of the board for the ensuing year. The board comprises nine members, three of whom are elected annually.

PICTURE OF FIRST CHIEF.

Presented Police Department by Widow of Fred L. Clark.

The Willimantic police department has been presented a picture of the late Fred L. Clark of Providence, R. I., the first officer in command of the department. The presentation was made Friday by Arthur Barrett of Providence, former resident of this city. The picture was accompanied by a letter from Mrs. Clark, in which she expressed her pleasure in giving the picture, stating that her husband, who was raised in this city and attended the public schools here, had always taken a great interest in the town, and kept in touch with happenings here until his death.

Cold Keeps Many from State Fair.

Only a dozen or so from this city took advantage of the one-day special train to Hartford Friday afternoon besides the members of Co. L, for man of about 28. At that time he was in business as a plumber and steam fitter, but the business expanded, and soon he entered the field of foundry work, and the manufacture of castings under his own patents.

Extinguished Dump Fire.

The fire which has been smoldering in the dump between Willowbrook and the streets for several days broke out again Thursday night, but was held in check by some of the firemen who were on duty. Chief T. P. Foley and Engineer Gerick and Benjamin Hills went to the dump with a few firemen, and put the fire out using four lines of hose for that purpose.

Lighted Match Causes Blaze.

A lighted match accidentally dropped on some bedclothes in an apartment in the Sudd block Friday morning caused a slight blaze, which was promptly put out by a neighboring roomer, with the aid of a fire extinguisher.

Five Vaudeville Bill.

The Loomer audiences Thursday and Friday nights went away satisfied that they had seen one of the best vaudeville bills ever presented in Willimantic. The entertainment included five acts and the usual moving pictures, and furnished two and a half hours entertainment at popular prices.

WILLIAM VANDERMAN DEAD.

Prominent Manufacturer Expires Suddenly from Heart Disease on Reaching Home, Friday Afternoon.

In the sudden death of William Vanderman, which occurred at his home shortly after 4 o'clock Friday afternoon and was caused by heart disease, Willimantic lost one of its best known and most highly respected citizens. News of his death came as a shock to all his acquaintances, many of whom had been engaged in social relations with him during the day, when he appeared to be in his usual health. He had just entered his home after walking there from the factory where he was employed and had sat down in a chair when the end came suddenly.

William Vanderman was born in Hartford, July 10, 1851, the son of Charles and Mary Krager Vanderman, and came to this city when a young man of about 28. At that time he was in business as a plumber and steam fitter, but the business expanded, and soon he entered the field of foundry work, and the manufacture of castings under his own patents.

There survive the deceased his widow, Anna Vanderman, a sister, Mrs. Mary Britton, of this city, and a brother, William Vanderman, of Dayton, Ohio, besides nine children, Mrs. M. Johnson of Boston, Mass., Edward L. Vanderman, George A. Vanderman, all of Hartford, George A. Vanderman, Irene Vanderman and Mrs. J. E. Sullivan of this city.

Mrs. Frank H. More. Ellen M. 60 years, Frank H. More died at her home, 147 Spring street, Friday noon. She had been a sufferer from enlargement of the spleen for several years. Her husband was a man of fortitude with which she bore the last few years' illness with a quietness and unassuming, ever solicitous for her family's welfare, and had the esteem of all who knew her.

There survive the deceased besides her husband, Frank H. More, and two grandchildren, Mildred L. and Louise F. More.

FUNERAL.

Marcus F. Taft. The funeral of Marcus F. Taft was held at ten o'clock Friday morning at the mortuary chapel of Funeral Director Jay M. Shepard on North street. William S. Beard of the Congregational church officiated. The service was taken on the 11:30 train to East Hartford for burial.

Nominated for Selectmen. Albert B. Webb, who has previously served the town as selectman, and John P. Webb, have been nominated by the selectmen by the democrats of Brookfield, where a lively campaign is looked for this year.

Burguet Dog Palanquer. The rather sudden death of several dogs in Danielson within the last few days has created the suspicion in some minds that a distributor of poisoned bait is at work, though there is no evidence to establish this belief.

Agricultural Society Takes Out Insurance. To protect itself from damage claims that might arise from an accident on its grounds during the coming exhibition, the Windham County Agricultural Society through its executive committee, has taken out insurance for its employees and the public. The new workmen's compensation law has made this step seem advisable.

In pursuance of a plan for holding a number of September picnics and outings, members of the Sunday school of the Methodist church are scheduled to enjoy a pleasant time this (Saturday) afternoon.

Talk of Park Improvement.

There has been some talk of late about making Willowbrook park a more attractive resort summer by making various improvements there and increasing the number of means of amusement. One of the things that has been suggested is a swimming pool separate from Alexander's lake, in which bathing is prohibited because the lake is a reservoir for the village of Willimantic.

Boston Boat Train to be Taken Off.

A train change on the New Haven and Northampton road, which was announced Friday, of interest to Danielson people, will be the discontinuance of train No. 111, which now leaves Boston for Putnam at 7:00 p. m., known as the Boston boat train, and connecting at Putnam with the New London and Danbury train. This is the last evening train out of Boston. Danielson people will after September 27 and Highland street press from Boston for Putnam a fine train to use in the early evening, this train reaching here at 8:20 p. m. The discontinuance of train No. 111 is in pursuance of a plan for retrenchment for the purpose of reducing expenses and meet a falling off in earnings.
