

PROGRESSIVES PATIFY TICKET

State Convention at New Haven Endorses Men. Elected at Primaries—Taylor of Bridgeport Declined to Run for Comptroller, and Horace H. Jackson of the Same City Was Substituted.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—The progressive party state convention today ratified the nominations for United States senator for state officers and for congressmen made in direct primaries, as follows: For United States senator—Herbert Knox Smith, of Hartford. For Governor—Willard C. Fisher, of Middletown. For Lieutenant-Governor—Frank S. Butterworth, of New Haven. For Secretary of State—Edward M. Roselle, of Hartford. For State Treasurer—Horace G. Hooley, of Waterbury. For Comptroller—Horace H. Jackson, of Bridgeport. For Attorney General—John H. Light, of Norwich. For Congress—First district, F. E. Duffy, of West Hartford; second district, H. O. Daniels, of the network; third district, Vandell Henderson, of New Haven; fourth district, George F. Shepard, of Bethel; fifth district, Thomas J. Wall, of Torrington. Jackson for Comptroller.

Of the nominations all were voted for in the primaries except Mr. Jackson for comptroller, his name being placed on the ticket to fill the vacancy caused by the declination of John Taylor of Bridgeport to run after being nominated. The convention, under the party rules, was made up of nominees of the party either on the ticket mentioned above or as nominees for state senators or representatives, and only such nominees took part in the discussion. As there is no definite machinery for the direct primary in Connecticut the procedure today was somewhat like that followed in Wisconsin and conforms to the requirements of the law in that the nominees will be certified to by Joseph W. Asoop, the chairman, and J. B. Smith of Orange, secretary of the convention.

Little Change in Platform. New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—The platform adopted is, in the main, the same as that adopted in 1912, with changes and additions made necessary by altered conditions. The national platform of 1912 is endorsed and the pledge to work against the "invisible government" retained.

SHADOWGRAPHS GIVEN BEFORE XENS SOCIETY. Made Enjoyable Programme for First Baptist Society.

The Xens society held a largely attended meeting Friday evening, the second meeting held since the summer recess, the first, a preliminary meeting, was held Friday, Sept. 11. Mrs. John B. Cat, the president, presided, calling the meeting to order at 7:45 o'clock. Forty-five members and four guests were present.

Platform Written by Candidates. The party rules provide that the platform must be written by the candidates themselves to preclude possibility of individual refusal to stand upon it. The final drafting of the document was placed with E. K. Smith, Professor W. C. Fisher, John H. Light, E. M. Roselle and H. G. Hooley.

Various Planks Offered. In the discussion over changes Professor Henderson offered a plank to limit the number of paid party workers at polls on election day, as an amendment to the corrupt practices act. The professor said that the "buying of votes reaches immense dimensions." He added: "I have been amazed to see the number of men who vote simply because they get $5. It has been seen men standing around near the polls doing nothing. Then a town chairman drives up in an automobile. The men wander off, around some corner nearby, and soon return wearing a large white badge. This badge signifies that they are workers. If they are asked what work they do they invariably say they do not know. They vote simply because they have $5 in their pocket."

Another delegate offered a plank to revise the taxing system of the state so that increased increment could be reached. Professor Fisher, E. K. Smith were in sympathy with the principle but thought the question

LADIES' HAIRDRESSING IN LONDON AND PARIS

When I was in Europe this year I found both cities so thickly dotted with hairdressing parlors and hair goods stores that I wondered if the women ever had time for anything but care of the hair. Personally I was chiefly interested in finding a really good shampoo and I found that they never use makeshifts but always retreat or swallow his attention. The motion to eliminate was withdrawn. Under the short ballot item there were expressions of opinion on election of county commissioners by the people, as well as on popular election of the judiciary, sheriffs, state's attorneys and other officials. Several propositions went to the committee. New laws on health conservation, improving industrial conditions, enforcement of laws to prohibit employment of women at night, amendments to the workmen's compensation law so that a state insurance fund would be provided, and more liberal compensation given, prohibition of railroad passes and special privileges by public service corporations and to permit cities, towns and boroughs to incorporate under the commission form of government were other propositions put forward and sent to the committee after discussion. The convention finally recessed until evening to permit the committee to mould the platform and report it back to the convention for discussion and adoption.

STYLE HINTS. What is New in Hats and Garments—Colors and Shades in Favor—Helps for Shoppers.

Maize is a shade uncommonly well liked this season. It was the hue of a dainty crepe meteor the daintiest dress seen yesterday, which had a draped skirt, waist with jacket effect front, over Venetian lace. This was a shade of apple green silk and similar silk trimmed the sleeves. For finish there were fancy buttons. Now that the temperature is more reasonable, there was particular interest in a blue serge basque model, with skirt of black satin with tulle. This had burnt orange velvet collar, cuffs and buttons, giving a very natty finish.

The newest redingote suit in hunter's green was shown, with a skirt of deep yoke and wide side plait. The coat was richly trimmed with Ural lamb. A taupe crepe motor street dress had silk embroidered panel back to the basque. There was a modish tunic skirt, embroidered girdele and the dress was set off with organdie collar and cuffs.

Black messaline was the material of a handsome dress with long tunic, basque girdele in Oriental embroidery and beaded collar and cuffs in sheer lawn.

Fall hats are going like hot cakes, since cooler weather set in. One seen yesterday had a gold net crown, tulle de gold braid and a rich gold flower. Very smart was a turban shape in black velvet, with wing effect, a peacock aigrette following the outline of the brim, and for finish a grosgrain bow.

Sealor shapes continue in favor. One of black velvet had a jet band, and a large jet bird perched at the front. In another model displayed the gold top formed a pleasing contrast to the black side crown. The trimming was of black poppies and gold braid.

This is the acceptable time to choose hats and garments for immediate or later wear. How to select with wisdom and with satisfactory economy will be learned by looking over what The Bulletin's advertisers have to suggest today.

SUITS TO COLLECT ON NOTES AND MORTGAGES.

Three Filed in Superior Court—Make Total of $13,000.

Three new cases to come before the superior court in October have been filed with Clerk George E. Parsons. They are the following: Lewis Dart of New London has entered suit against C. H. Schwane, Jr., also of New London, for the sum of $2,500. Mr. Dart claims he lent the defendant the sum of $1,800 and took a note for four months dated Aug. 4, 1911, and it is still unpaid, though demand has been made for its adjustment.

Dwight Graves of the town of Cashmere in the state of Washington, who is administrator of the estate of Rufus B. Graves, has filed for the sum of $43,500. The defendant owes the estate of Rufus B. Graves the amount of a note, and it was secured by the mortgage of land in East Lyme. A foreclosure is asked for.

William L. Main of Stonington has brought an action against Wilfred O. Stanton of Stonington, formerly of Springfield, for the sum of $7,998. Mr. Main claims he loaned the sum of $5,500 on ten lots located at Lord's Point, and the money has not been repaid.

Abraham Bronstein was expelled from the synagogue Ahavat Chesed at New London. Vote Taken Against Abraham Bronstein in Ahavat Chesed at New London.

Abraham Bronstein was expelled from the synagogue Ahavat Chesed at New London Sunday by a vote of the congregation. Bronstein pleaded guilty Tuesday in superior court to a charge of procuring women for purposes of an immoral nature, was fined $500 on one count and $400 on another, and was placed on probation with a sentence of a year in jail suspended for a year.

Parsonage of St. Patrick's church at 12 o'clock noon Monday Robert Schultz of Hartford and Miss Veronica E. Moran, daughter of James and the late Bridget Callahan Moran, of No. 59 Union street, were married by Rev. Myles P. Galvin. The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Flynn, and Ernest Rogers of this city was best man. The bride was prettily gowned in saxon blue with gold trimmings and wore a velvet hat trimmed with match and the bridesmaid wore Copenhagen blue with hat to match.

After the wedding ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride, No. 59 Union street, with only relatives of the immediate families attending. The wedding was a quiet one owing to a recent death in the family. The bride's traveling suit was of purple, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Schultz left at 2 o'clock for New London by automobile, where they took a train for Boston. After their honeymoon they will take up their residence in Hartford. Mr. Schultz, whose former name was Charles Mitchell, was employed as clerk for the Portland & Mitchell company. There were a number of handsome gifts, including money, cut glass, silver and linen, from the friends of the couple, who wish them a successful and happy married life.

The Burlingham-Tiffany. The wedding of Miss Dorothy Trimble Tiffany, youngest daughter of Louis C. Tiffany, of a prominent Windham county family, and Dr. Robert Burlingham, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Burlingham, of New York and Crescent Beach, Conn., took place Thursday at noon in the Episcopal church at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I. Dr. Burlingham is a house surgeon in Roosevelt hospital, New York.

Autumnal flowers and foliage were used for the decoration of the little church and at Laurelton Hall, the Tiffany place near Oyster Bay, with its artistic appointments and surroundings.

The bride wore a gown of soft cream satin draped with rare lace, an heirloom of the family on the maternal side. Her veil, of the same family lace, fell to the floor, which she took train, being surrounded by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of orange blossoms and roses. Her young niece, Miss Louise Luck, acted as flower girl and was the bride's only attendant. She wore a white frock and carried a basket of yellow roses and clematis.

Mr. Tiffany gave his daughter in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. E. McCord, rector of the church, which the Tiffanys attend while occupying their summer home. Charles Burlingham served as best man for his brother. There were only about fifty guests present at the wedding and the breakfast which followed at Laurelton Hall. The Tiffany town house is at 27 East 87th street. Dr. Burlingham's family spend the winters at 140 East 88th street.

After their honeymoon the couple will reside in New York.

NORWICH TOWN Barn Swallows Take Sudden Flight Southward—Moth with Tinted Wing Noted—Briefs and Personal.

The 175 pairs of barn swallows on the Lillbridge farm on the Scotland road have left on their journey to northern South America. They went suddenly and after a short flight were seen resting all along the telegraph wires. Then another flight took them to Sacred Heart church for a second rest. After that they were lost sight of. The chimney swallows on Washington street have also left.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. As soon as this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is not a permanent condition of the mucous surfaces.
