

TALKED ABOUT IN WESTERY

State Junior O. U. A. M. Elects J. Henry Potter President— 1915 Convention to be in Westery—Certificates of Political Nominations Filed—Rev. Andrew J. Morris' Reordination Not Held—Kenyon Weave Shed Leased.

Westery was very much in the limelight at the annual convention of the Junior Order United American Mechanics held in Providence, Tuesday, J. Henry Potter of Westery was elected state vice president. Westery was selected as the place for the 1915 convention. The reports of the several councils of Rhode Island show that the order is in a healthy condition and practically all had made increase in membership during the year and excellent prospects were reported. State Council Secretary Arthur W. Barrus reported a gain of 74 in membership and a cash balance in the treasury of $239.92.

State Councilor William A. Robbins recommended that the sum of $50 be appropriated as the state councilor's fund to be used for extension work in the order with the approval of the state board; that the state council offer a prize of $5 in gold to the degree team doing the best work; that the council continue to hold open meetings and keep up the interest of the old members and to gain new members. The report of the committee on good of the order, to whom had been referred the recommendations of the state councilors, secretary and the finance committee, was adopted. A resolution was adopted protesting against the use of the American flag in the decoration of the state council committee of three was appointed to prepare a bill to be presented to the next general assembly, prohibiting the use of the flag in the decoration of the state council committee.

The officers elected are: John W. Yeomans, of Providence, state councilor; J. Henry Potter, of Westery, state vice-president; Arthur W. Barrus, of Providence, state council secretary; Lester W. Crocker, of Providence, state council treasurer; E. Ralph Arnold, of Providence, state council conductor; Eardon H. Cranston, of Providence, state council warden; George E. Harvey, of Wakefield, state council secretary; Walter Wright, of East Providence, outside sentinel; Fred L. Northrop, of Narragansett, state council secretary; J. Humes, of Providence, representative to national council.

The officers were installed by Dr. E. R. Wheeler, of Providence, Maine, deputy national councilor. After which there were remarks for the good and welfare of the order by Dr. Wheeler, Martin M. Wright, of Providence, national secretary, and by Judge Joseph M. Gamwell, H. H. Pepper, auditors; Miss Frederica Dennis, historical registrar.

Midnight of Tuesday was the time limit for filing certificates of political nominations for the general assembly of state for use on the official ballot. Westery's list as filed is as follows: Republican—Senator, Louis W. Arnold; representative, senator, Charles Francis G. Haswell; second district, Albert H. Langworthy.

Democrat—Senator, Arthur E. Briggs; representative, senator, Frederick R. Cottrell; second district, Truman D. Babcock. Republican—Senator, Charles H. Bunker; representative, senator, Stephen A. Wells; democrat, senator, James M. W. Hamilton; representative, John E. Taylor; representative, Levett A. Briggs; democrat, senator, Wallace G. Gardner; representative, Elsie R. Bitgood.

Charlestown—Republican, senator, Charles Burdick; representative, Asa F. Hoxie; democrat, senator, Charles Burdick; representative, Asa F. Hoxie.

Ira A. Snyder returned from Boston Wednesday, where he attended the two-ages of baseball for the world's championship. He was one of the many who had difficulty in obtaining seats, and when they did not seem to be any room for Ira. There was a fellow filled with booze who was creating quite a disturbance, so I stood by and was a silent witness. Presently four policemen went for that fellow and yanked him from his seat and escorted him to the grounds. I was in that vacated seat before the policemen had squared away with their prisoner. Surely it's an ill wind that does not bring good to somebody.

John H. McCarthy, who occupied the Ureeda cottage last season and was elected mayor of Pleasant View, has moved from Providence to Westery. Some of his household effects came from Providence by express and were addressed to John H. McCarthy, but John says he always enjoys putting it over on the other fellow, but this time his friend John Murphy put one over on him, all right. "This reminds me," said Mr. McCarthy as he addressed a post card to his friend George M. Clafin of Providence, giving the proper

NO REASON FOR IT

When Norwich Citizens Show a Way. There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Norwich citizen says:

"Mrs. Mary Neff, 465 Main St., Norwich, says: 'For many years one of my family was subject to attacks of kidney complaint. He suffered from pains across his loins and at times could scarcely get about on account of his back being so stiff and lame. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and often contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, proved of benefit from the first and soon every symptom of kidney complaint disappeared. I willingly confirm all I said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills in the statement I gave a few years ago. Nothing has occurred to change my high opinion of this remedy.'

PLAINFIELD Hunters' Carelessness May Have Caused Woodland Fires—Death of Charles Packer. The M.M. girls met with Miss Marguerite Chapman Monday evening, there was a social hour with refreshments, etc. Damaging Fires. The scarcity of water and the forest fires are the principal subjects of interest now. One of the fires broke out Tuesday south of the home of Napoleon Duffrene and but for his energetic efforts there would have been a big loss of wood. The fire burned all the afternoon. The Flat Rock fire kept burning stubbornly all day Tuesday. In spite of the fact that Charles Hopkins and Charles Phillips both carried out trucks loads of men to fight it. Fire Warden Mathewson was kept busy and Selectman J. G. Gault and his men in the north part of the town the same day. Jason Lathrop and George C. Deane are among the fire fighters in the Flat Rock fire. Either bunters are unusually careless this fall or there is something strange about so many fires starting at the same time.

Misdirected Energy. An old resident of Flat Rock said in the years gone by that the best way some men could help at a fire was by staying at home, and that was so energetic they scattered the fire and new ones as fast as the others could put it out. Death of Charles Packer. Charles Packer, a son of the late Daniel Packer, who died in Brooklyn, N. Y., of Bright's disease Monday.

There was a number of railroad fires Tuesday night, but they were put out before much damage was done. Utergoss Operation. Sectionmaster J. Sullivan was operated on Saturday at St. Joseph's hospital, Providence, and at last report was as comfortable as can be expected, although very weak.

JEWETT CITY Joint Meeting of Board of Selectmen and School Board Votes Appropriations—Organization of School Board—Attendees at Preston Conference. The annual joint meeting of the board of selectmen and school board was held Wednesday afternoon. After the business and the reading and acceptance of the reports the appropriations were voted for the schools of the town in accordance with the estimates. Pachaug, Woodward, Hopewille, White, Stone Hill, Boardman, Burton, Bethel and Brewster districts, $23 each; Glasgow, $90; and Jewett City, $125. The sum of $3 was voted for each district where school is maintained for supplementary reading or maps and books as the committee see fit. School Board Organizes. After the adjournment of the joint meeting, a meeting of the school board was held at the school house. The board was organized and the following committees were appointed: Transportation, J. C. Hawkins, F. E. Robinson and W. C. Terry; execution of teachers and school libraries, H. Tracy, J. T. Wilbur and A. C. Burdick; text books and supplementary reading, A. M. Clarke, J. H. Stafford and Shepard Brown. The board also granted to Francis Roode and Irene Haverly to attend the high school at Central Village, and to Charles D. Babcock, Ed. Ward J. Barry, Harold Brickley, Fred Clarke, James Dolan, William Dugan, William Emerson, Daniel Finn, Benjamin Giddman, Earl S. The Morgan to attend the Norwich Free Academy. In the main hall showed much variety and was particularly interesting to the women. The suffragettes had a booth in this hall. They passed out a good quantity of literature and succeeded in inducing several men to sign their petition.

Stora Exhibit. The exhibition of the Connecticut Agricultural college extension service was not only interesting but was valuable, and the large tent attracted many visitors during the fair. The exhibit was in charge of Prof. C. D. Jarvis, director of the extension service. The canning demonstration was very interesting. Prof. A. J. Brunson, assisted by Miss M. Sprague, Prof. K. M. Musser had charge of the Babcock milk test and the poultry exhibit was attended to by Prof. R. E. Jones. There were canning demonstrations each day at 10 o'clock and milk testing at all times.

Democratic Caucus. At the democratic caucus held in the borough hall Tuesday evening William E. Walbridge and M. D. O'Connell were nominated for representatives in the general assembly. The following nominations were made for justices of the peace: Fred J. Blumenthal, Gustav Biz, Lucius D. Colburn, Willis E. Belcher, Napoleon Pero, Jr., Frank N. Parsons and Charles H. H. Gray. William H. Heald, W. E. Hamley were chosen chairman of the caucus and M. D. O'Connell acted as clerk.

Stafford Springs Closing Day of Agricultural Fair Was Children's Day—Democrats Nominated Walbridge and O'Connell for Representatives. The 45th annual fair of the Stafford Springs Agricultural society closed on Wednesday after a successful three-day run. Although the attendance Wednesday was not as large as on either of the two previous days, it was sufficient to swell the receipts far beyond the expenses incurred, and when the bills are all paid there will be a nice balance in favor of the association. The weatherman handed out the best he had and it was good enough—just right for a fair, not too hot nor too cold. There was just enough chill in the air Wednesday to be bracing.

It was Children's day, and young America was out in full force. The public schools opened Wednesday morning, but the attendance was so slim that it was deemed advisable to have but one session, so the schools closed at noon. Busy Midway. The track was kept well watered with a four-horse watering cart, but the midway was very dusty. It was as busy a midway as ever seen at a county fair, and this is going some, considering what has been here in former years. The games of chance were thoroughly unscrupled, but the chance was usually on the side of the operators. Many of the fakirs pulled up stakes and got out early Wednesday morning, but there were enough left to make things interesting.

The exhibit of cattle this year was considerably larger than usual, and there was more competition in the various classes than there has been for several years. Domestic Arts. The exhibit of fancy and needlework
