NEW ENGLAND LEAGUE
HELD ANNUAL MEETING
Voted to Amend the Constitution—A.
D. Cooper's Resignation Refused.

Boston, Oct. 18.—The New England League of Professional Baseball Clubs held its annual meeting today. President Timothy J. Murnane presided.
Arthur D. Cooper, after being re-elected as secretary-treasurer, tendered his resignation. It was refused and the matter ordered left on the table.
The league voted to amend its constitution increasing the membership of the board of directors from four to five. The members to be elected annually, and to meet frequently during the season as an executive committee.
Representatives of the Portland, Lew-isell, Worcester, Lowell, and Everett clubs were elected to this body and to them was entrusted the work of mapping out a schedule for next year.
No action on the election of the playing season on Labor day instead of a week later, or on setting a salary limit was taken. Notwithstanding many reports of purchases and deals no change in the league membership or franchise ownership developed.
The Lawrence club was awarded the penalty for the season of 1914 at a meeting of the board of directors, which preceded the annual meeting.

BATTLE OF GRIDION STRATEGY

Most Important Game of Season Takes Place Saturday When Michigan Meets Harvard—First Time These Two Teams Have Met in Twenty-one Years—Both Teams Have Excellent Records This Season.

New York, Oct. 18.—The most important intercollegiate football game of the present season will be played in the Harvard stadium on Saturday, when the Michigan and Harvard teams meet for the first time in twenty-one years. As representatives of the eastern and western methods of attack and defense the two eleven hold high rank in their respective territories.
Because of this fact and the excellent records made by both teams in the early games this fall the result of the contest will be awaited with more than usual interest by followers of football through the country.

The personal of the teams and coaching staffs add greatly to the interest in the contest since both eleven are players of national reputation and the battle of gridiron strategy between coach Haughton of Harvard and Yost of Michigan should develop some of the sensational plays for which these football generals are noted. Harvard will be handicapped by the absence of Captain Brickley who was injured in the game with Princeton last Saturday. Yost respects the Crimson speed and is able to show an initial line-up fully equal to that which won the chief honors of the season. Michigan has a number of punting and drop-kicking, Haughtitt at quarter, Maubetch and Boehm at halfback, has a backfield of exceptional caliber and one equal in ability to the Crimson trio, Logan, Bradlee and Mahan. The lines of both teams are fast and heavy and strong in both offensive and defensive play.

Presuming that the eleven enter the game equally strong the ultimate victory may rest with the coaching staffs and the system of attack which they adopt. Both Haughton and Yost are masters of the football strategy and

EASTERN ASSOCIATION HELD
MEETING IN NEW LONDON Treasurer's Report Showed League in Good Condition—It is Learned That Waterbury Franchise is for Sale.

New London, Conn., Oct. 19.—Routine business only was transacted at the annual meeting of the Eastern Baseball association here today. The annual report of the treasurer showed the pennant and acceptance was made by Manager McCann. Morton F. Plant, owner of the local club, was not present.

The session was an executive one and the directors were reticent as to what had been done. It is understood that the treasurer's report showed the association to be in good financial condition, although no figures were given out. It was learned that Maranville is chosen by three as the greatest shortstop, and Gowdy by three as a catcher.

The baseball writers held their annual meeting today and no business was transacted, other than the election of officers. Sidney W. Challenger of the Bridgeport Press was elected president. Arthur H. Smith of the New Haven Register, vice president and Frank H. Mattoon of the Waterbury American, secretary-treasurer. The old board of directors was re-elected.

GIANTS' PITCHERS CRACKED
UNDER THE STRAIN
One Reason Why Braves Led the Giants.

During the past season the Giants' pitchers cracked more under the strain when it came to being located for home runs than the Braves hurled. This has been the case since they were in the city. The reason for this is that the Braves have forty-six four-baggers and Rudolph and his associates for thirty-eight batters. The surprising thing is that the homers gleaned off the two staffs is that no less than sixteen were made off Christy Mathewson, whose work was just as able in 1914 as it was in many of the preceding campaigns.
Vic Saler, Chicago first baseman, reached "Big Six" for a quartet of circled clouds, and by Wilton and "Chief" Wilson of the St. Louis Cardinals each got to the Old Master for two.

Some homers are charged against "Big" Marquard, holder of the National League winning and losing strike records, Sherwood Magee and Dwight Gooden. The Phillies, each nicking Richard Le Marquis for a brace of four-ply wallops in one controver. Fessenden permitted eight four-baggers, like Ty Cobb, during Al Demaree three (two obtained by Frank Schulte, 1911 National League automobile winner). George Witte two and "Big" Schauer one.

Of the Boston pitchers, Dick Ruffdolph was stung for homers the offense. He has nine four-baggers marked up against his record. Creativity with the lone athlete to get two off the little Bronsonian, George Tyeler's record in yielding homers is peculiar. He allowed seven, a batsman from each club making one. Bill James, who received more votes from the Chalmers Trophy jury than any other pitcher, was like Ty Cobb, defended for seven four-bar smashes, the Phillies getting two and each of the other clubs, except St. Louis, one. Berdas fielded five homers during his brief Boston career, which may have been one of the reasons "Miracle Man" Stallings traded him to the Cards.

Captain Brickley May Play.
Dr. H. L. Williams, coach of the University of Minnesota football team, expresses the opinion that in all probability Charles E. Brickley, captain of the Harvard team, will be operated upon for appendicitis, will be in first class physical condition and able to play before the time of the Harvard-Yale game.

of coaching a team to meet the middle will go on with redoubled spirit.

SCHEDULE OF COLLEGE
SOCCER FOOTBALL TEAMS Season Opens This Wednesday and Closes December 19.

Beginning on Wednesday at Ithaca, Columbia, Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Cornell, Pennsylvania and Haverford will contest their annual series for the intercollegiate soccer championship now held by Harvard, and hitherto played for in the spring, instead of in the fall. V. C. Chittenden, Harvard, secretary of the Intercollegiate Association Football league has given out the following as the official schedule: October 21, Cornell vs. Princeton at Ithaca.
November 5, Princeton vs. Columbia at Princeton; 7, Pennsylvania vs. Yale at Philadelphia; 9, Cornell vs. Harvard at Ithaca; 14, Columbia vs. Cornell at South Field; 14, Harvard vs.
Pennsylvania at Cambridge; 14, Princeton vs. Yale at Princeton; 16, Yale vs. Cornell at New Haven; 19, Haverford vs. Princeton at Haverford; 21, Columbia vs. Pennsylvania at New Haven; 21, Yale vs. Harvard at South Field; 26, Pennsylvania vs. Cornell at Philadelphia (a. m.); 26, Haverford vs.
Cornell at Haverford; 28, Harvard vs.
Princeton at Cambridge.
December 3, Columbia vs. Haverford at South Field; 5, Columbia vs. Yale at South Field; 5, Harvard vs. Haverford at Cambridge; 5, Princeton vs.
Pennsylvania at Princeton; 12, Harvard vs. Columbia at Cambridge; 12, Pennsylvania vs. Haverford at Philadelphia; 19, Haverford vs. Yale at Haverford.

Another change in the rules of the league provides that, in case of a tie between two teams, the winner shall be determined by the championship scored. Harvard and Pennsylvania were tied last season, but thanks to a better goal average, Harvard won the title.

JOHNNY EVERS GOT
ROUSING RECEPTION
Troy Turned Out With 5,000 Strong, 10 Bands and Several Drum Corps.

Troy, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Troy gave Johnny Evers, captain of the Boston Braves, the world's champion, a rousing reception tonight upon his return to his home in this city. There was a parade with ten bands and several drum corps and over five thousand men in line. Nearly every organization in the city, including the chamber of commerce and the fire companies were represented, besides many prominent business men. The marchers carried baseball bats and red fire and each wore a large button the size of a tea saucer and which bore Evers' picture.

Captain Evers rode at the head of the column in an automobile with Mayor Burns and other city officials and he was wildly cheered all along the line. The streets were crowded with spectators and Greek fire illuminated the line of march.

After the parade there was a banquet at the state ramory, at which about 500 guests were present. Evers was welcomed by Mayor Burns and he responded briefly, expressing his appreciation of the honor shown him by his fellow townsmen. Among those present were James P. Gaffney, president of the Boston Nationals; Joseph J. Lamin, president of the Boston Americans; Harry N. Hempstead, president of the New York Yankees; Edward Barrows, president of the International League; George Stallings, manager of the world's champions; John E. Foster, secretary of the New York Nationals; John J. McGraw, manager of the Giants; John M.
Cowan, commissioner of records, New York city; Charles E. Gehrig, superintendent of public records, New York city.

SUMMER BASEBALL
DEFINED AT YALE
No Professional Athlete is Eligible to Play on all Teams.

Eligibility rules for athletes who desire to represent Yale in competition with other institutions, with the revisions recently made, have been insisted. Summer baseball is mentioned in the first rule, which provides as follows:
"No professional athlete and no man who has ever received any personal reward or any emolument whatsoever by reason of his connection with athletics, such as the receiving of board for playing summer baseball, coaching or acting as a teacher in any branch of athletics whatsoever shall represent Yale or any athletic team or crew."

Eligibility is limited to a man who is a candidate for a degree requiring two years residence in college, and whose academic standing is at or above the required figure for good standing.
The revised rules, it is stated, clear up points in the old rule, and make more stringent the conditions under which a man can attain the honor of representing the university in all branches of intercollegiate sport.

A Fireless Cooked Hen.
Of cooking on the march, one recalls a recipe of Charles XII, which may appear to our men in the field. Given a fat hen, then, Charles was always sure of a good dinner. The fowl was larded, trussed and stuffed with butter. Then, to quote Mr. Hackwood, "a piece of hot steel was inserted into its body, a two, three or four inch tin box, which was wrapped in a woolen cloth and strapped on a soldier's back.
In a few hours when the march came to an end, it was found sufficiently cooked." But, to cap this, there is the story of the Tartars who cooked their meat "while galloping on horseback by inserting it as a saddle."—London Chronicle.
