HELP FOR WOUNDED SOLDIERS IN EUROPE

Opportunity Offered to Norwich People in Plan of Mr. and Mrs. Rudyard Kipling.

Charles H. Kimball of No. 342 Washington street has received the following letter from Doubleday, Page & Co. of New York which will interest many.

Dear Sir: For the first time we are addressing communication lines to give the name. The reason for doing so is in the following paragraph.

In a recent letter, Mr. and Mrs. Rudyard Kipling tell us that they are working out for making bandages for the wounded out of old household linen, and they have asked us to forward such material with the assurance that every bit of it will be carefully used.

Some of our friends have already been kind enough to send us old linen sheets, towels, napkins, etc., to be used for this purpose, as it is much better than commercially made bandages.

Very truly yours, Doubleday, Page & Co. Mr. Kimball will see that all such linen obtainable in Norwich reaches Doubleday, Page & Co. and they may be trusted to forward same with dispatch to its destination.

Senator Brandegee Says That Has Been and Will Be His Aim.

United States Senator Frank D. Brandegee was in Hartford Wednesday, and when asked what he had to say about his victory at the polls, he made the following statement:

"All I can say is that, from the beginning, I have had my eyes fixed on the common sense of the people of Connecticut. They have done just what I expected they would do, only in a much more generous measure than I could have anticipated.

"All along the line the result of the republican victory has been received as a very salutary thing, and has had a good effect on popular sentiment. The republican party is as alive today to its ancient faith and belief as it ever was.

Word was received here this week by Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Barrows from their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Usher, a missionary stationed at Van, Turkey, who writes from the front lines. She states that they are unable to obtain their winter wheat because of lack of means of transportation. The Turks have called off all the horses for army use. The Armenians are being mobilized and while drilling are in sad need of food. Armenian women are seen daily with packs of food on their backs for the men who have been called away. The employment for lace workers ceased the last of September. There is no way to get money from the bank at Van and none is sent from Constantinople. IS YOUR HAIR RIGHT FOR THE NEW FALL STYLES?

You will delight in arranging your hair in the new and interesting modes of this season if you keep it perfectly soft and fluffy so that it appears naturally heavy. This will be a simple matter if you use the right shampoo. It is not advisable to use a makeshift but always use a preparation made for shampooing only. You can enjoy the best that is known for about three cents a shampoo by getting a package of Curox from your druggist; dissolve a tablespoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with minimum of Dandruff. Excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.
