DAVIS THEATRE

Big Tabloid Musical Comedy, With Joe J. Sullivan, First Half of the Week—Million Dollar Mystery Tuesday and Wednesday Only.

For the first half of this week the management of this popular theatre has secured Joe J. Sullivan, the former Ben Hill star and comedian who has made millions laugh in the screaming musical comedy hit called "The Funny Mr. Bunny".

Supporting "The Funny Mr. Bunny" is an excellent company, mostly girls, who provide fun fast and furious throughout the sketch. The show is a clever, musical comedy, with a plot anything that would be likely to offend, full of catchy music, clever jokes and up to date dancing specialties; costumes and settings are all in keeping with the high standard of the performance, and a good solid hour of clean entertainment. The show is a girl show of beauty and refinement seldom seen at popular prices. Besides the musical comedy, there will be the usual high class program of Mutual drama headed by a two reel K. B. drama called "The Sparrows", a beautiful picture of heart interest. The Mutual War Weekly is also shown with pictures from the seat of war, including the Belgian soldiers joining the allies at Ostend, Canadian troops leaving for the continent, and many other interesting scenes connected with the European war. The Keystone comedy is called "Stout Heart But Weak Knees", and is one long riot of laughs. On Tuesday and Wednesday episode number 14 of the Million Dollar Mystery will be shown, and this two reel instalment is a real gem, more exciting than any of the preceding episodes. Are you trying to solve this mystery and win the $10,000 prize? It's worth trying. The usual prices will prevail this week. Matinee at 2:30, 5 and 10 cents. Evening at 7 and 8:45, 10 and 25 cents.

POPULAR LECTURES.

It is unnecessary to say that attention is universally focused upon the war and all its attributes and aspects of the present war suggests the possibility of many new considerations which Prof. Henry Crosby Emery, Ph. D., of Yale, will discuss in his lecture upon the present war. Professor Emery is of the department of political economy in the university and is an authority on the history of the world. His lecture will be given at 8 o'clock in the Slater hall course of popular lectures. It will be presented the unusual opportunity of hearing at first hand the opinions of the highest rank in the field of international relations.
