

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County

EAST KILLINGLY

George Wade and Harold Brooks visited friends in Providence, Sunday. Mrs. Ethel Huntley and son Arthur, were week-end guests of relatives, in Fiskeville, R. I. Shippee spent the week-end with Miss Pearl Smith, at Hopkins Mills, R. I. Robert Dunfield was in Providence, Tuesday. Miss Alma L. Rich was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus R. Chase, in Putnam, Wednesday. Israel P. Chase has been doing duty as juror in Putnam this week. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jordan of Providence, spent Sunday with Mr. Jordan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Jordan. Mrs. H. A. Hopkins of Elmville called on friends here Friday. Mrs. Phebe A. Potter left Wednesday to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. William Robbins, in Waterbury. Mrs. George S. Shippee is spending the week with relatives in Fiskeville, R. I. Fred Smith of Putnam Heights spent Sunday with relatives here. Mrs. Fred Barrowhouse of Dayville called on friends here Tuesday. George Pray of Ballouville called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pray Sunday. Several from here attended the chicken supper and entertainment at the North Porter church, Saturday evening. Mrs. Ina Outley and her brother, Allen, spent a few days with Mrs. Mary Law and family in Providence last week.

DAYVILLE

Mrs. Oswald Street is spending a few days in Providence. The Ladies' Aid society met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. F. Ebd-son. Miss Maude Street is spending the week end in Providence. Mrs. C. A. Russell is passing the week with Mrs. Cummings of Willimantic. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Potter and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dexter were in town Sunday. Mrs. E. LaBelle was in Boston Thursday. Mrs. Samuel Gillette was confined to the house with an attack of grip. Mrs. Victoria Gringras was buried Monday from St. Joseph's church. There was a large attendance of mourners and friends present. Mrs. W. L. Greig is spending a few days in Hanover. N. L. Greig was away from town on business Tuesday and Wednesday in New York. Fred E. Witter was in Hartford and New Jersey for a visit. Henry Burnett is assisting his brother William in Danielson in the motorcycle business. Miss Elizabeth Barron has been the guest of Miss Maline Brooks.

HAMPTON

Mrs. Marshall H. Greene Dies, Aged 86 Years. Mrs. George Pitts is visiting friends in North Willingham. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brenn visited their daughter, Mrs. R. E. Pearle, Sunday. Miss Charles did not meet with her dancing classes last Saturday, but the young people had a very enjoyable dance in the hall Saturday evening. Mrs. Marshall H. Greene died at the home of Miss M. E. Burnham early Wednesday morning at the age of 86.

WILSONVILLE

Wife Suicides, Leaving Husband and Four Children. Mrs. Charles Webster attended a Missionary meeting held at Mrs. Robert Anderson's in Webster, Tuesday. Mrs. James Welch is able to be out after being ill for a week or more. Miss Hazel Prink was in Dudley Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mills spent the week end in Fitchburg, Mass., with friends. Drowned Himself in River. The funeral of Mrs. Scherter, who drowned herself in the river Friday morning, was held at her home Sunday. She leaves her husband and four children. Burial was in East Webster cemetery.

NORTH STERLING

Fred Emmons, who has been laid up for some time with a strained knee, is able to go without a cane and has returned to work. Miss Gertrude Brooks of Worcester is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Pierce, Jr. The rain of Sunday night was very welcome, but much more is needed, as many wells are dry and cattle have to be driven to neighbor's property for water. Fred Emmons visited friends in Norwich last week. The old grist mill, which is not in running order, is greatly missed by many, far and near. Fur trappers are not doing much this season, as the price of raw fur has dropped. The church is being painted.

PACKER

Miss Evelyn Strong was in Norwich Saturday. La. D. Howe and family and Mrs. Tracy of Jewett City visited friends here Sunday. Mrs. William Tilly returned home Wednesday, after several days' visit in Providence and vicinity. C. A. Parker held an interesting mu-

Help the Stomach Digest Your Food. When the stomach fails to digest and distribute that which is eaten, the bowels become clogged with a mass of waste and refuse that ferments and generates poisons that are gradually forced into the blood, causing distress and often serious illness. Most people naturally object to the drastic and purgative agents that shock the system. A mild, gentle laxative, positive in its effect and that will quickly relieve constipation is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. It does not grip or cramp, but acts easily and pleasantly, and is therefore the most satisfactory remedy for children, women and elderly persons. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 481 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

POMFRET CENTER

Neighbors' Night at Grange—Everett E. Brown Wins Fourteen Apple Prizes. Robert Rust and E. E. Brown were to Boston last week to the "Mun" show. Miss Parmenter is away for a vacation near Boston. Mr. Wicks plans to attend the great National Stock show in Chicago. Mr. Gascon and P. J. Noon went home to Canterbury to vote. Neighbors' Night was observed by Wolf Den Grange, Wednesday evening, the program being furnished by J. C. Worth & Co., Norwich, is having two weeks' vacation, during which will spend with her mother and brother on Columbia Green and part with her brother Herman and his wife at Westfield, Mass. D. A. Lyman's new house is progressing rapidly. A Willimantic contractor has the job and will soon have it covered. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Collins, Jr. of Rocky Hill drove into town last Sunday and attended the morning church service, where they were greeted by many Columbia friends. Mrs. Collins returned to Rocky Hill Sunday night. Mr. Collins remained with his father a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Collins formerly resided here.

WARRENVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Case recently entered into the arms of Mrs. Adams and Mrs. George Moore and little daughter of New Haven. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Durkee spent several days last week in Ashaway, R. I. A. E. James was in Putnam Thursday. L. James entertained Floyd S. Lewis and Herbert Turrell of Waterbury this week. Mrs. Caroline Lawton has been the guest of her son, Marshall Lawton. Mr. Durkee and his sister, Mrs. Ellen Weeks have gone to Worcester, Mass. Corner Crest is closed for the winter.

EASTFORD

Meeting of Suffrage League—Revival Services at the Chapel. The Woman Suffrage league met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Peck. Mr. Whitford of Boston is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Cowan. Miss Juliette Chapman has gone to spend the winter with her niece. The Congregational people are having a furnace put into their church. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the parsonage Thursday afternoon. Rev. William Stewart, who is conducting revival meetings at the chapel, is entertained at the home of Deacon Trowbridge.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

Miss Mabel J. Weiant of New York and Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Renice and Dr. Arthur Randall of Providence are at Allie W. Witter's and his sister, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Tift of Westford visited their daughter, Mrs. A. N. Hammond, last week. Miss Maud Brigham is suffering from a severe attack of grip. Misses Sarah and Hien Stanton of New London were week end guests of Mrs. Sherman. Drouth Serious. The lack of rain is becoming serious, and the entire water supply has to be carted from the lake, a long distance for some of the farmers, who are watching anxiously for the old signs before the coming of winter. Ignore Trespass Signs. Hunters and trappers are unusually bold this season, paying little regard to trespass notices except to deface them and feigning ignorance when held up. Some arrests are pending.

TOLLAND COUNTY

RIPLEY HILL

Hilltop Homes Club Plans for Six Months' Meetings—Hunters and Trappers Annoying. The Hilltop Homes club met with Mrs. A. Peterson at the home of Mrs. A. Peterson on Monday evening, a good number. First lessons in basketry were given. It was voted to meet monthly during the winter, also to have programs for six months printed. A fine programme has been prepared for that length of time. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. F. A. Ayer. Mrs. Lydia Williams of Middletown is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ayer. Mrs. F. B. Topf is returning from a trip including South Hadley, Mass., and Guilford, Vt. Miss Maud Brigham is suffering from a severe attack of grip. Misses Sarah and Hien Stanton of New London were week end guests of Mrs. Sherman. Drouth Serious. The lack of rain is becoming serious, and the entire water supply has to be carted from the lake, a long distance for some of the farmers, who are watching anxiously for the old signs before the coming of winter. Ignore Trespass Signs. Hunters and trappers are unusually bold this season, paying little regard to trespass notices except to deface them and feigning ignorance when held up. Some arrests are pending.

STAFFORDVILLE

Methodist Pastor to Preach on Silver Threads Among the Gold. Raymond G. Ormsby has returned to his duties in the state hospital of Concord, N. H., after spending a vacation of three weeks with his father, George M. Ormsby. Mr. and Mrs. David Gaudette and daughter were with Mrs. Gaudette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Heck, in Union, over Sunday. North Franklin Guests. Mrs. H. A. Race and granddaughter Rena of North Franklin visited the former's sister, Mrs. C. W. Hill, and niece, Mrs. T. M. Lyon, last week Thursday and Friday. Mrs. H. G. Dunham is with Mrs. Cyril Johnson at Stafford Hollow for a few weeks. Miss G. West is loom fixer in George Duffey's mill in Worcester, Mass. Mrs. Edgar Wilson of Westley, R. I., recently visited her brother, Jerry S. Wilson. Misses Arlene and Blanche Hanner have been ill with tonsillitis the past week. The pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Tunncliffe, will preach next Sunday morning from the subject Silver Threads Among the Gold.

BOLTON

Members of Bolton grange, No. 47, attended the meeting of East Green Pomona grange, No. 5, in Enfield Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trude and daughter of Hartford spent Sunday with George Newcomb and Mrs. Newcomb. Mrs. Frances E. Ruggles is in Springfield spending a fortnight with relatives. Mrs. Esther F. Northam of Hartford was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Loomis. Miss Mary Ellis of Gilead is spending some time with Mrs. Charles F. Sumner. Miss Clara Post of Hartford spent the week end with Miss Annabel Post.

MT. HOPE

Mr. Merwin, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Shepard of Westville, Conn., were out hunting with Mr. Albee the past few days. They report very good luck, two hares and birds and other game to the law limit. William Ford of New Haven and George Russ are trying their luck at hunting three days. Miss Ellen Chesbro of Ashford is at work at George Smeade's taking care of his house. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lawton were callers at Mr. and Mrs. George Albee's last week.

WILLINGTON

A meeting of the grange was held Friday evening. The new furnace was in working order Sunday morning. There were 66 at Sunday school and a good number at the service. Rev. E. W. Darrow's excellent sermon was from 28th Psalm, 5: 14. At the prayer meeting Thursday evening the first chapter of the Book of Daniel was studied. Plans are to be considered as to the meeting for the winter. Rev. E. W. Darrow has made the required return that there was no ex-

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Colonel Hall in Atlanta—$1 Per Cord Bonus for Spool Birches This Month. Col. W. H. Hall is in Atlanta, Ga., this week a delegate to the good roads convention. Homer N. Neil has received from Atlanta, Ga., a miniature bale of cotton and from Florida a cro alligator, both from H. N. Neil, Jr. Spool Birches Valuable. Spool birches are coming in at a good rate these days, $1 per cord bonus being paid during November. Mr. and Mrs. William Brackett spent Sunday with friends in Norwich. Of 165 ballots cast in the recent election in town, only one was thrown out as defective. Ruling Disputed. The ruling of the superintendent of fisheries and game that hunting rabbits with a ferret before Nov. 25th was illegal has been disputed and will be passed on by the attorney general. A new electric light placed at the top of the hill north of the village went out of commission immediately upon being lighted the first time. Philip Denman has come home from the Stafford hospital after seven weeks' treatment for a broken ankle. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rogers of Eggleville is employed by G. Hall, Jr. & Co. Five Partridges Bagged. Fred Service bagged the limit of five partridges in about two hours Wednesday morning.

COLUMBIA

Library Receives $500 Bequest from Page Estate—Sisters Meet for the First Time. Arthur Bailey of Cobalt was in Columbia Friday and Saturday of last week on a hunting trip, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Collins. Miss Lena G. Wolf, bookkeeper for J. C. Worth & Co., Norwich, is having two weeks' vacation, during which will spend with her mother and brother on Columbia Green and part with her brother Herman and his wife at Westfield, Mass. D. A. Lyman's new house is progressing rapidly. A Willimantic contractor has the job and will soon have it covered. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Collins, Jr. of Rocky Hill drove into town last Sunday and attended the morning church service, where they were greeted by many Columbia friends. Mrs. Collins returned to Rocky Hill Sunday night. Mr. Collins remained with his father a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Collins formerly resided here.

STORRS

Mrs. C. L. Read Entertains—Dickerson Baker to Speak of Belgian Relief Work. The Red Cross dance given by the young lady students netted $25. A meeting of Mansfield grange was held Monday evening. Mrs. C. L. Beach, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Buchanan, entertained the ladies of the faculty at whist Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. G. H. Lamson, Jr., spoke at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting in the absence of Mr. Rogers. The Ladies' circle met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Wheeler. A. E. Morse was on the Hill over Sunday. Doing Laboratory Work. Dr. C. A. Simonds of Willimantic is at the college on Wednesday and Sunday afternoons. His office is in the south wing on the second floor of the main building. To Describe Belgian Situation. Sunday morning Dickerson Baker, from Ghent, Belgium, will speak of the distress in Belgium and of relief work in Washington for a week, returned Saturday. Mrs. Ketchum of Danbury has been visiting here with friends.

TOLLAND

Republican Wins Out in Special Election—Death of Paul Green. A Halloween social was given by the young people Saturday evening. There were games and music. Fortune telling was by Miss Place and Miss Baker. The Ladies' society of the Congregational church served a dinner in the church parlors Tuesday. The proceeds are to be used for the support of Mrs. Griggs. Misses M. Helen and Elizabeth Hicks and Mrs. Downing have returned to their home in New York. Paul Green's Death. Paul Green, 76, died last Saturday from pneumonia. He leaves his wife, two sons and two daughters. The funeral was held Monday. Arthur Clough is on the sick list. Rev. E. F. Case and Samuel Simpson were delegates to the Congregational conference at Windsor. The Nature Study club meets Monday evening at W. B. Sudlow's. Curtis K. Christopher attended the Congregational convention at Meriden Nov. 5 and 6. Special Election. On account of the tie between Peter Morgensen and John J. Feiler on election day there was a special election called Tuesday, Nov. 10, which resulted, vote standing for Peter Morgensen, rep. 116, and John J. Feiler, 73.

STAFFORD

Many at Harvest Supper—Football Practice Today. Rev. Mr. Ballantine occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. L. R. Curtis. The harvest supper at the Baptist church was a success, with a good attendance. There will be association football practice this (Saturday) afternoon in the park. The teams will be picked for a game to be played on Thanksgiving. Aid Society's Meeting. The Hospital Aid society meets next Tuesday evening. The regular meeting of Stafford grange will be held next Tuesday evening. W. S. Walbridge has moved into the house owned and recently vacated by J. B. Hough. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Chapman of Westford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green, making the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chiam in Mr. Chiam's automobile.

BOLTON NOTCH

Mrs. Loren Maine is visiting her sister, Mrs. McGinn, in Hartford. A number from this place attended a dance at Hillside hall, Mansfield, Friday night. Mrs. Estelle Read spent Tuesday in Manchester Green. Mrs. Maud Woodworth went to Providence Monday to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. J. B. Hough. John Castle spent Thursday in Hartford. Mrs. Hattie French visited her son in East Hartford Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Emma Dennis is keeping house at Loren Maine's. Mrs. Charles Howard, with their two children, spent their 11th marriage anniversary Thursday with Mr. Howard's father, M. W. Howard.

HEBRON

Flavel Gillet of New Haven is visiting his sister, Miss Gillet. Randall C. Prink was in town last Saturday to see his mother. Addison Prink of Andover was in town Saturday. Mrs. H. P. Tennant returned home Monday. Mrs. Elizabeth Hills has returned after spending the summer at Willimantic camp ground. Mrs. Mary F. Prink is improving, but is not able to get out of bed. There was a surprise party at C. A. Lord's in honor of his election Wednesday night.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, R. I.

USQUEPAUGH

Oyster Supper Well Patronized—New Owners for the Bray Farm. Dr. Martin spent Tuesday and Tuesday night as the guest of Dr. E. E. Kenyon. Mrs. F. K. Crandall, with her children, who has been spending a few days with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon returned home Wednesday. C. C. Kenyon and family, who have been living at Bradford, moved into the house with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon, one day last week. J. C. Webster visited Providence Tuesday. Mr. S. Chappell, who has been visiting M. D. Palmer, has returned to Westley. Nets $17.86. The oyster supper held Nov. 6 netted the society $17.86. The profits from aprons was $5.26. Mrs. Hattie Carter of Attleboro spent a few days last week at T. T. Loche's. The family that purchased the Bray farm has moved in and has begun improving the property. It is understood they are to farm quite extensively. Charles C. Exeter was a caller here Wednesday. A. W. Kenyon and R. L. Knight visited Providence Wednesday. Mrs. Kenyon was a guest of Exeter were callers at B. C. Loche's Wednesday. Mrs. D. E. Kenyon is visiting over

UNION

Al. A. Marcy has closed his summer home for the winter and has returned to Hartford. John Buckley was home over Sunday. Mrs. Mary Dodge is with her daughter, Mrs. Theodore Brand of Oakland, R. I. Andrew Smith of Stafford Springs

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Colonel Hall in Atlanta—$1 Per Cord Bonus for Spool Birches This Month. Col. W. H. Hall is in Atlanta, Ga., this week a delegate to the good roads convention. Homer N. Neil has received from Atlanta, Ga., a miniature bale of cotton and from Florida a cro alligator, both from H. N. Neil, Jr. Spool Birches Valuable. Spool birches are coming in at a good rate these days, $1 per cord bonus being paid during November. Mr. and Mrs. William Brackett spent Sunday with friends in Norwich. Of 165 ballots cast in the recent election in town, only one was thrown out as defective. Ruling Disputed. The ruling of the superintendent of fisheries and game that hunting rabbits with a ferret before Nov. 25th was illegal has been disputed and will be passed on by the attorney general. A new electric light placed at the top of the hill north of the village went out of commission immediately upon being lighted the first time. Philip Denman has come home from the Stafford hospital after seven weeks' treatment for a broken ankle. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rogers of Eggleville is employed by G. Hall, Jr. & Co. Five Partridges Bagged. Fred Service bagged the limit of five partridges in about two hours Wednesday morning.

COLUMBIA

Library Receives $500 Bequest from Page Estate—Sisters Meet for the First Time. Arthur Bailey of Cobalt was in Columbia Friday and Saturday of last week on a hunting trip, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Collins. Miss Lena G. Wolf, bookkeeper for J. C. Worth & Co., Norwich, is having two weeks' vacation, during which will spend with her mother and brother on Columbia Green and part with her brother Herman and his wife at Westfield, Mass. D. A. Lyman's new house is progressing rapidly. A Willimantic contractor has the job and will soon have it covered. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Collins, Jr. of Rocky Hill drove into town last Sunday and attended the morning church service, where they were greeted by many Columbia friends. Mrs. Collins returned to Rocky Hill Sunday night. Mr. Collins remained with his father a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Collins formerly resided here.

STORRS

Mrs. C. L. Read Entertains—Dickerson Baker to Speak of Belgian Relief Work. The Red Cross dance given by the young lady students netted $25. A meeting of Mansfield grange was held Monday evening. Mrs. C. L. Beach, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Buchanan, entertained the ladies of the faculty at whist Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. G. H. Lamson, Jr., spoke at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting in the absence of Mr. Rogers. The Ladies' circle met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Wheeler. A. E. Morse was on the Hill over Sunday. Doing Laboratory Work. Dr. C. A. Simonds of Willimantic is at the college on Wednesday and Sunday afternoons. His office is in the south wing on the second floor of the main building. To Describe Belgian Situation. Sunday morning Dickerson Baker, from Ghent, Belgium, will speak of the distress in Belgium and of relief work in Washington for a week, returned Saturday. Mrs. Ketchum of Danbury has been visiting here with friends.

TOLLAND

Republican Wins Out in Special Election—Death of Paul Green. A Halloween social was given by the young people Saturday evening. There were games and music. Fortune telling was by Miss Place and Miss Baker. The Ladies' society of the Congregational church served a dinner in the church parlors Tuesday. The proceeds are to be used for the support of Mrs. Griggs. Misses M. Helen and Elizabeth Hicks and Mrs. Downing have returned to their home in New York. Paul Green's Death. Paul Green, 76, died last Saturday from pneumonia. He leaves his wife, two sons and two daughters. The funeral was held Monday. Arthur Clough is on the sick list. Rev. E. F. Case and Samuel Simpson were delegates to the Congregational conference at Windsor. The Nature Study club meets Monday evening at W. B. Sudlow's. Curtis K. Christopher attended the Congregational convention at Meriden Nov. 5 and 6. Special Election. On account of the tie between Peter Morgensen and John J. Feiler on election day there was a special election called Tuesday, Nov. 10, which resulted, vote standing for Peter Morgensen, rep. 116, and John J. Feiler, 73.

STAFFORD

Many at Harvest Supper—Football Practice Today. Rev. Mr. Ballantine occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. L. R. Curtis. The harvest supper at the Baptist church was a success, with a good attendance. There will be association football practice this (Saturday) afternoon in the park. The teams will be picked for a game to be played on Thanksgiving. Aid Society's Meeting. The Hospital Aid society meets next Tuesday evening. The regular meeting of Stafford grange will be held next Tuesday evening. W. S. Walbridge has moved into the house owned and recently vacated by J. B. Hough. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Chapman of Westford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green, making the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chiam in Mr. Chiam's automobile.

BOLTON NOTCH

Mrs. Loren Maine is visiting her sister, Mrs. McGinn, in Hartford. A number from this place attended a dance at Hillside hall, Mansfield, Friday night. Mrs. Estelle Read spent Tuesday in Manchester Green. Mrs. Maud Woodworth went to Providence Monday to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. J. B. Hough. John Castle spent Thursday in Hartford. Mrs. Hattie French visited her son in East Hartford Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Emma Dennis is keeping house at Loren Maine's. Mrs. Charles Howard, with their two children, spent their 11th marriage anniversary Thursday with Mr. Howard's father, M. W. Howard.

HEBRON

Flavel Gillet of New Haven is visiting his sister, Miss Gillet. Randall C. Prink was in town last Saturday to see his mother. Addison Prink of Andover was in town Saturday. Mrs. H. P. Tennant returned home Monday. Mrs. Elizabeth Hills has returned after spending the summer at Willimantic camp ground. Mrs. Mary F. Prink is improving, but is not able to get out of bed. There was a surprise party at C. A. Lord's in honor of his election Wednesday night.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, R. I.

USQUEPAUGH

Oyster Supper Well Patronized—New Owners for the Bray Farm. Dr. Martin spent Tuesday and Tuesday night as the guest of Dr. E. E. Kenyon. Mrs. F. K. Crandall, with her children, who has been spending a few days with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon returned home Wednesday. C. C. Kenyon and family, who have been living at Bradford, moved into the house with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon, one day last week. J. C. Webster visited Providence Tuesday. Mr. S. Chappell, who has been visiting M. D. Palmer, has returned to Westley. Nets $17.86. The oyster supper held Nov. 6 netted the society $17.86. The profits from aprons was $5.26. Mrs. Hattie Carter of Attleboro spent a few days last week at T. T. Loche's. The family that purchased the Bray farm has moved in and has begun improving the property. It is understood they are to farm quite extensively. Charles C. Exeter was a caller here Wednesday. A. W. Kenyon and R. L. Knight visited Providence Wednesday. Mrs. Kenyon was a guest of Exeter were callers at B. C. Loche's Wednesday. Mrs. D. E. Kenyon is visiting over

UNION

Al. A. Marcy has closed his summer home for the winter and has returned to Hartford. John Buckley was home over Sunday. Mrs. Mary Dodge is with her daughter, Mrs. Theodore Brand of Oakland, R. I. Andrew Smith of Stafford Springs

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Colonel Hall in Atlanta—$1 Per Cord Bonus for Spool Birches This Month. Col. W. H. Hall is in Atlanta, Ga., this week a delegate to the good roads convention. Homer N. Neil has received from Atlanta, Ga., a miniature bale of cotton and from Florida a cro alligator, both from H. N. Neil, Jr. Spool Birches Valuable. Spool birches are coming in at a good rate these days, $1 per cord bonus being paid during November. Mr. and Mrs. William Brackett spent Sunday with friends in Norwich. Of 165 ballots cast in the recent election in town, only one was thrown out as defective. Ruling Disputed. The ruling of the superintendent of fisheries and game that hunting rabbits with a ferret before Nov. 25th was illegal has been disputed and will be passed on by the attorney general. A new electric light placed at the top of the hill north of the village went out of commission immediately upon being lighted the first time. Philip Denman has come home from the Stafford hospital after seven weeks' treatment for a broken ankle. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rogers of Eggleville is employed by G. Hall, Jr. & Co. Five Partridges Bagged. Fred Service bagged the limit of five partridges in about two hours Wednesday morning.

COLUMBIA

Library Receives $500 Bequest from Page Estate—Sisters Meet for the First Time. Arthur Bailey of Cobalt was in Columbia Friday and Saturday of last week on a hunting trip, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Collins. Miss Lena G. Wolf, bookkeeper for J. C. Worth & Co., Norwich, is having two weeks' vacation, during which will spend with her mother and brother on Columbia Green and part with her brother Herman and his wife at Westfield, Mass. D. A. Lyman's new house is progressing rapidly. A Willimantic contractor has the job and will soon have it covered. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Collins, Jr. of Rocky Hill drove into town last Sunday and attended the morning church service, where they were greeted by many Columbia friends. Mrs. Collins returned to Rocky Hill Sunday night. Mr. Collins remained with his father a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Collins formerly resided here.

STORRS

Mrs. C. L. Read Entertains—Dickerson Baker to Speak of Belgian Relief Work. The Red Cross dance given by the young lady students netted $25. A meeting of Mansfield grange was held Monday evening. Mrs. C. L. Beach, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Buchanan, entertained the ladies of the faculty at whist Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. G. H. Lamson, Jr., spoke at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting in the absence of Mr. Rogers. The Ladies' circle met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Wheeler. A. E. Morse was on the Hill over Sunday. Doing Laboratory Work. Dr. C. A. Simonds of Willimantic is at the college on Wednesday and Sunday afternoons. His office is in the south wing on the second floor of the main building. To Describe Belgian Situation. Sunday morning Dickerson Baker, from Ghent, Belgium, will speak of the distress in Belgium and of relief work in Washington for a week, returned Saturday. Mrs. Ketchum of Danbury has been visiting here with friends.

TOLLAND

Republican Wins Out in Special Election—Death of Paul Green. A Halloween social was given by the young people Saturday evening. There were games and music. Fortune telling was by Miss Place and Miss Baker. The Ladies' society of the Congregational church served a dinner in the church parlors Tuesday. The proceeds are to be used for the support of Mrs. Griggs. Misses M. Helen and Elizabeth Hicks and Mrs. Downing have returned to their home in New York. Paul Green's Death. Paul Green, 76, died last Saturday from pneumonia. He leaves his wife, two sons and two daughters. The funeral was held Monday. Arthur Clough is on the sick list. Rev. E. F. Case and Samuel Simpson were delegates to the Congregational conference at Windsor. The Nature Study club meets Monday evening at W. B. Sudlow's. Curtis K. Christopher attended the Congregational convention at Meriden Nov. 5 and 6. Special Election. On account of the tie between Peter Morgensen and John J. Feiler on election day there was a special election called Tuesday, Nov. 10, which resulted, vote standing for Peter Morgensen, rep. 116, and John J. Feiler, 73.

STAFFORD

Many at Harvest Supper—Football Practice Today. Rev. Mr. Ballantine occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. L. R. Curtis. The harvest supper at the Baptist church was a success, with a good attendance. There will be association football practice this (Saturday) afternoon in the park. The teams will be picked for a game to be played on Thanksgiving. Aid Society's Meeting. The Hospital Aid society meets next Tuesday evening. The regular meeting of Stafford grange will be held next Tuesday evening. W. S. Walbridge has moved into the house owned and recently vacated by J. B. Hough. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Chapman of Westford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green, making the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chiam in Mr. Chiam's automobile.

BOLTON NOTCH

Mrs. Loren Maine is visiting her sister, Mrs. McGinn, in Hartford. A number from this place attended a dance at Hillside hall, Mansfield, Friday night. Mrs. Estelle Read spent Tuesday in Manchester Green. Mrs. Maud Woodworth went to Providence Monday to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. J. B. Hough. John Castle spent Thursday in Hartford. Mrs. Hattie French visited her son in East Hartford Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Emma Dennis is keeping house at Loren Maine's. Mrs. Charles Howard, with their two children, spent their 11th marriage anniversary Thursday with Mr. Howard's father, M. W. Howard.

HEBRON

Flavel Gillet of New Haven is visiting his sister, Miss Gillet. Randall C. Prink was in town last Saturday to see his mother. Addison Prink of Andover was in town Saturday. Mrs. H. P. Tennant returned home Monday. Mrs. Elizabeth Hills has returned after spending the summer at Willimantic camp ground. Mrs. Mary F. Prink is improving, but is not able to get out of bed. There was a surprise party at C. A. Lord's in honor of his election Wednesday night.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, R. I.

USQUEPAUGH

Oyster Supper Well Patronized—New Owners for the Bray Farm. Dr. Martin spent Tuesday and Tuesday night as the guest of Dr. E. E. Kenyon. Mrs. F. K. Crandall, with her children, who has been spending a few days with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon returned home Wednesday. C. C. Kenyon and family, who have been living at Bradford, moved into the house with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenyon, one day last week. J. C. Webster visited Providence Tuesday. Mr. S. Chappell, who has been visiting M. D. Palmer, has returned to Westley. Nets $17.86. The oyster supper held Nov. 6 netted the society $17.86. The profits from aprons was $5.26. Mrs. Hattie Carter of Attleboro spent a few days last week at T. T. Loche's. The family that purchased the Bray farm has moved in and has begun improving the property. It is understood they are to farm quite extensively. Charles C. Exeter was a caller here Wednesday. A. W. Kenyon and R. L. Knight visited Providence Wednesday. Mrs. Kenyon was a guest of Exeter were callers at B. C. Loche's Wednesday. Mrs. D. E. Kenyon is visiting over

UNION

Al. A. Marcy has closed his summer home for the winter and has returned to Hartford. John Buckley was home over Sunday. Mrs. Mary Dodge is with her daughter, Mrs. Theodore Brand of Oakland, R. I. Andrew Smith of Stafford Springs

The nourishing malt juices and tonic properties of pure beer and ale help to restore the energy of nerve and tissue used up by the strenuous work and play of modern life.

The Famous Narragansett Lager-Ale-Porter "BEST BY FAR"

MISS M. C. ADLES TWO NERVOUS WOMEN. Hair, Scalp and Facial Specialist. Made Well By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Another Bad Case. Ephrata, Pa. "About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysterical spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W. HORSBERGER, R. No. 3, Ephrata, Pa.

Washington, Nov. 10—Secretary of War Garrison will recommend to the president a successor to Major General W. W. Wotherspoon as chief of staff of the United States army. It is understood the place will go to Brigadier General Hugh L. Scott, at present assistant chief of staff, and a brother of Professor Scott of Princeton university. Brigadier General Scott has a splendid record. General Wotherspoon retires from the active list November 16.

Woman Suffrage. The woman suffrage army has captured two more redoubts on its way to Washington—Providence Journal.

LAUGHING AUSTRIAN SOLDIERS LEAVING VIENNA FOR GALICIA. PHOTO © 1914 BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION. The group of laughing, merry Austrian soldiers was snapped while starting from the front at Vienna. Let me to see them go and smilingly shouted that they would return soon. But the regiment to which these men belonged was nearly annihilated by the Russians after a brave resistance against overwhelming odds.