WILLIMANTIC

OVER $200 RAISED. By Public Whist to Which All Contributed Generously—Proceeds to Be Divided Between Town Poor and Belgians.

One of the means taken by local women to raise funds for the help of the non-combatants in Belgium was the giving of a whist in Washburn hall from 2.30 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, which was well attended and highly successful, more than two hundred dollars being raised in this manner.

The ladies voted proceeds to the whist in Lebanon, and who has acquired considerable reputation as a long distance runner during the past two years, has become a member of the local Y. M. C. A. and has started training in the gym for the Thanksgiving day Marathon race to be run at Yonkers, N. Y., under the auspices of the Mercury Athletic club of New York city.

Michael English, Judgment Suspended Thursday, Gets Jail Sentence Friday. The police court had another batch of five prisoners in the dock Friday morning, intoxication being the charge in all cases.

Damage Done by High Wind. Friday was warmer than has been the case for some days past, but the presence of a strong wind made the day very disagreeable, and there were few on the streets in the afternoon.

A large sign on the Hotel Hooker was blown down by the severe wind and broken. The big gate at the entrance to the Willimantic Lumber and Coal company's yard was blown down by the wind, and struck one of the company's employees as it fell.

Some objection has been heard in regard to the proposed ordinance in regard to traffic rules, which will take effect on the streets in the afternoon, November 24. The objections seem to come either from those who will be personally affected by its provisions, or from owners and drivers of teams, who think some of the rules a little hard on them.
