ON TRIAL OF GEOFFRID RUTH

John J. Walsh of New Haven Has Tracked Him From Here Through South Windham, Windham Center and Hampton—Last Definite Trace Locates Him on the Way to Pomfret Last September—Escaped From Grand View Sanatorium Then.

John J. Walsh of New Haven, who has been trying to find Godfrid Ruth, alias Reed, a patient at the Grand View sanatorium, who escaped from there on the afternoon of September 21st, was in this city on Thursday evening, having been here on his way to see if he had been following up a clew only to find that it did not lead to the man he wanted.

So far the last reliable information that Mr. Walsh has located as to the whereabouts of Ruth located him leaving Hampton on the road to Pomfret. That is the last that he has heard of him since he was taken up to see if he had been following up a clew only to find that it did not lead to the man he wanted.

Investigator Walsh's efforts have traced him on the day he left the sanatorium to a house in Grosvenor place where he took refuge in the attic, scaring the children in the house and the neighbors who live there. From the attic he was driven out by a Mrs. Champagne who was armed with a poker, and he was seen going north through the Falls by a man named McIntyre.

On the morning afterwards, Mr. Walsh has learned that a man corresponding to the description of Ruth appeared in South Windham at the home of a family named Gallivan. His hands were torn as if by pushing his way through the woods and his feet had a number of stone bruises on them. In South Windham he was given a case as he had no hat and he was also given a pair of shoes by some family there. He was wearing one carpet slipper and an old shoe. He left South Windham and went towards Windham Center. People were found in Windham Center who saw him one woman having sewed up his torn blue coat.

Mr. Walsh has also found a bartender in Willimantic who remembers a man who came into the saloon, dressed very much as Ruth was, and having a scar on his head which corresponded very much to the wound where Ruth's skull had been fractured. The bartender helped the man and gave him 50 cents, which he promised to return as he said he was looking for work on a farm.

The trail leads to Hampton, where the trolley starter saw a man of Ruth's description and a rural delivery letter carrier also saw him. The trolley starter saw him on the trolley on the way to Pomfret.

They are doing a number of stunts, and a good hand, too, for their comedy stunts, which they pulled off, using a table, chairs and barrels to good advantage. A great deal of fun was had by the company, who were in a comedy sketch entitled Camp Rest. Mr. Taylor, who carried the part of the tramp, asserted that he was the greatest (Roman) Prince, created something of a sensation when he appeared on the stage in a touring car, a combination of stoves, soap boxes and a barrel. Harry Rogers, comedian, entertained with comedy singing.

Acid Stomachs Are Dangerous

Dangerous

Common Sense Advice by a Distinguished Specialist. "Acid" stomachs are dangerous because of the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach, and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of indigestion, flatulence, and other ailments. Ordinary medicine and medicinal treatments are useless in such cases. The only reliable remedy is the "Acid Stomach Remedy," which can be obtained from any druggist, and should always be kept handy.

How She Discarded Unsightly Complexion

How often I exclaimed as I beheld my ugly complexion in the mirror: "I only could tear off this old skin!" And, do you know, I've learned how to do that very thing. Now I actually remove the entire skin all of a sudden; that would be too heroic a method and painful too. I imagine the world's entire complexion in such tiny particles, and so gradually requiring about ten days to complete the transformation. It doesn't hurt a bit. Day by day the beautiful complexion underneath comes forth. Marvellous! No matter how muddy, rough, blotchy or aged your complexion, you can surely be transformed by this simple process. Just get an ounce of ordinary mercurized wax at your druggist's, apply nightly like cold cream, wash it off mornings.

By this simple method, by dissolving an ounce of powdered aniline in a half pint of water, and applying it to the face in the solution, every line completely disappears. First the finer lines, then the deep wrinkles, and finally the forehead entirely.—Month Morrow in Town Tattler.
