LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

Charles Huling, 77, and Mrs. Celina Beaudreau, 60, of Danielson, Met Thursday and Were Married Friday—Third Wedding for Each.

Impetuosity is not always the prerogative of youth, as an event which happened Friday in this city demonstrated. On Thursday Mrs. Celina Beaudreau of Danielson came to Windham to visit friends named Duplessis on the Windham road. While there she met a neighbor, Charles Huling, a man of 77, and a veteran of the Civil war.

Their courtship was short, for on Friday they were married by Justice of the Peace Andrew J. Bowen at his office in this city. The bride is 60 years of age. Both bride and groom have had two consorts previously and in each case the former partners have died. Whether sympathy induced by these facts had anything to do with the speedy termination of the courtship is not known.

Remodeling Opera House Entrance.
The entrance to the opera house block is in process of redecoration and repainting, the first coat having been put on Thursday and Friday. This is in line with the plans of the management of the theatre to present their shows in a renovated, up-to-date show house. The entrance will attract attention when the work is done, and it will not be necessary for people to in-

JEWETT CITY

Home of Robert Brewer at Pachaug Burned to the Ground—Fire of Unknown Origin Starts in Parlor—Insured—Methodist Men's Class Meets.

The house in Pachaug known years ago as the Davison place, recently purchased by Robert Brewer, of New York, was burned to the ground, about eleven o'clock Friday morning. Brewer was in Jewett City, his son at school, and Mrs. Brewer was outside attending to outdoor duties. When she left the house there was no sign of fire, but as she returned she saw flames pouring out of the parlor windows. She worked heroically to save some of the contents of the house, William Bitgood and his force of men soon arrived and ably assisted her. The house was burned to the ground, but the shed connecting it with the barn was pulled away so the barn was saved. Some few personal belongings were all that were saved in the house. The house and contents were insured. The family is staying for the present with Rev. and Mrs. Francis S. Child.
